

And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in all the world as a witness to all the nations, and then the end will come. Mat.24:14

Learn the truth and the truth will make you free...

TwelveLoaves welcomes the Theophilus worldwide for an incredible journey into the Excellency of the knowledge of Christ, the designated riches in Christ.

TwelveLoaves: The profusion, the light of the spiritual knowledge and understanding of the Logos of God, of the Spirit and not of the letter, that, from the foundation of the cosmos, has remained hidden in God, up until now, the predestined time.

Jesus confirms that the literal narrative is (was) given in a figurative language.

These things (of the Spirit) I have spoken to you in figurative language ἐν παροιμίαις, proverbs, and parables; but the time is coming when I will no longer speak to you in figurative language, but I will tell you plainly about the Father John 16:25

All that the Father gives Me will come to Me, and the one who comes to Me I will by no means cast out. John 6:37

I am the living bread=ἄρτος-artos (in singular) which came down from heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever; and the bread that I shall give is My flesh, which I shall give for the life of the world. John 6:51

As the living Father sent Me, and I live because of the Father, so he who feeds on Me, ὅστις μὲ τρώγει=eats my flesh will live because of Me. John 6:57

I and My Father are one. John 10:30

The written clearly reveals that the biblical narrative was specifically arranged in a figurative language (unknown tongues) and centered on a prophetic scale, designated the Logos of prophecy, concealing spiritual insights and spiritual implications that only spiritually are discerned. Implications which only the author Himself can reveal, adding that all scripture is given by the inspiration of God, and it is profitable for doctrine for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness... 2Tim. 3:16-17

John 16:25 as it is confirmed by Jesus, "the author Himself", the divine literature was intentionally written in a figurative language, but the time will come when He will no longer speak to us in a figurative language. This will only happen through the elevation and opening of the mind "God-inspired" able to of spiritual discernment; and at the time when knowledge has tremendously increased, and that time is now upon us, the long waited predestined, revelation time.

If I have told you earthly things, (in a figurative language) and you believe not, how shall you believe, if I tell you of heavenly things? (Words, spiritual knowledge never before that have been spoken) John 3:12

This means that God in the face of Jesus must participate and personally be involved, God who is the Spirit of wisdom and revelation, giving the correct spiritual interpretation concealed within the figurative language.

Not many, if any that is, have actually understood that Jesus is the personification, the embodiment of the Logos which proceeded out of the mouth of God, the Logos who is God Himself and manifests in the form of a man, within a man. The man bearing the image of Adam, who is a conceptual character, and he is portrayed by Jesus, who is Spirit and not a biological man.

Christ Jesus, the Logos who in the beginning was with God, and God was the Logos.

This means that the Logos which proceeded out of the mouth of God, took the form of a man in the name, the face and flesh of Jesus the Saviour, Emmanuel=God with us.

In the beginning was the Logos, and the Logos was with God and the Logos was God. John 1:1

Despite the written evidence, the figurative language of the Logos has never been challenged, neither reviewed, nor scrutinized by anyone.

Therefore, it has never been spiritually discerned in order to be rightly "spiritually" interpreted, so it has remained unchartered territory.

And for centuries now without spiritual discernment, the divine Logos has been continually taken upon a literal point of view, almost by all, and they have all ignorantly twisted the conceptual “the figurative language” the parables and the earthly stories into physical realities, imagining that they were physical events.

Beginning with the creation of Adam and Eve, believed that they were two biological people, who lived astronomical ages... even on one set of teeth?

Adam lived for 930 years and at the age of 800, he procreated sons and daughters. While the age of Eve, the author has kept hidden.

The other prophetic and Spiritual concept which also has been ignorantly twisted into a physical reality is the cataclysmic flood which annihilated the entire human race by drowning, except for eight favorable persons and all of the same family.

The concept which illustrates that God, somehow made a mistake in creating mankind, specifically in His image and likeness, regretfully saying that He was sorry because man became so evil.

The question is this, where did the evil come from?

The answer obviously needs thorough investigation, which is the theme of this edition, concerning good and evil which are the two main characteristics within every biological man alike, despite colour and ethnicity.

Even though the cataclysmic deluge is and was conceptual referring to the outpouring of the spiritual knowledge of God’s Laws, the Spirit of the Logos, therefore it has never happened in the past, but only today is happening.

And as it was in the days of Noah, so it will be also in the days of the Son of Man: Luke 17:26

Today are the days of the son of man, today is the great spiritual deluge, the outpouring of the knowledge of God, and not a natural deluge, but the revelation of the Spirit of the Logos, while the eight persons in the ark, “the sanctuary” can be considered as the grace of God. The eight persons prophetically point to the eighth covenant (7+1).

Noah was the tenth from Adam and the eighth into the ark, prophetically referring to the two covenants of water and of blood, the understanding of the Law and the Spirit.

Bearing in mind that, whatever things were written earlier were written for our admonition today, in order for the fleshy desires of man to be destroyed, drowned “submerged”, judged by the Laws.

The two opposing seeds equated as two sons:

The first two sons of the man who allegedly was created in the image and likeness of God, his firstborn turned out to be a murderer of his own and only sibling, which is the general belief, and all because they have all taken the figurative language “the earthly story” as a physical reality and not as a spiritual concept and implication, which only the Spirit of wisdom and revelation can expose.

Testifying that, when the Spirit comes, He will teach you all things...

Up to now no one has asked why the murderer had to be Cain, Adam’s firstborn and not Abel? And how did Cain become so evil and inside God’s Paradise Garden; and why God did not kill him, but instead He marked him not be killed.

Evidently, through spiritual discernment of the divine Logos, neither Adam nor Eve or their children were biological people, but conceptual, just as the Paradise Garden is, the place where Judaism, Christianity and Islam imagine that they will end up and become holy gardeners, when the written confirms that the Kingdom of God is neither food or drink.

Therefore, spiritual and prophetic, shadow of things to come; and it is Jesus, the embodiment of the Logos of God who portrays the earthly man Adam, while Eve is His flesh and bone, as also his future bride and pointing to the new Jerusalem, the Ecclesia, equated as the woman pursued by the dragon. It must be understood that the scriptures are given fragmentary, as in many picture frames, and every picture frame conceals spiritual implications.

Every figurative story we read, automatically, we visualize it as a natural event, even though it is not therefore, we cannot and must not take it literally, warned by Jesus “the embodiment of the Logos” that spiritual, heavenly things only spiritually are discerned.

For many centuries now, the Logos has been taken literally, by the self-risen religious hierarchs totally ignoring the testimony of Jesus, the author of salvation.

I will open my mouth in parables and utter things kept secret from the foundation of the cosmos.

It is, therefore, essential that all scripture is read independently of any religious influences. Completely outside the self-risen religions, outside of all manmade beliefs and speculative suppositions.

We cannot twist the conceptual, the earthly story into a physical reality, because of lack of spiritual discernment ignoring its allegorical, prophetic, the paramount issue Jesus makes very clear in John 3:12.

Wherefore, from the very beginning the Genesis creation had nothing to do with the natural creation of all mankind and of all the species but the spiritual creation of the man in Adam, the man to be created in God’s image and likeness through Christ Jesus, who portrays a dual role and stands the signature name of God, God’s royal seal.

It is essential to understand that, only through Christ Jesus we can be created in the image and likeness of God, to whom God said, let us make man in our image and likeness. The commandment which only Jesus Christ can fulfill, Christ Jesus, the embodiment of the Logos which proceeded out of the mouth of God.

And as we have borne the image of the man of dust, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly man. 1Cor.15:49

It must be understood that the above decree strictly applies to the man has already borne the image of Adam, the man who has already entered the biblical arena competing for the first prize, defining that it does not apply just to any man.

Bearing in mind that all scripture was written on a prophetic scale and in a figurative language.

The man of dust, the man Adam is portrayed by Jesus of whom we have to bear his image and who goes back to the descendant of the biological evolution, the man created from the dust particles of the earth. The man of the animal nature with the primal instinct, which is the survival of the fittest.

From the dust man was created and back to the dust he shall return, become dust and ashes, which obviously refers to the perishing of the flesh, the animal side of man with the primal killer instinct, the seed of the devil, and not to the seed of the woman, the designated son of man, the humane side of all of us.

The son of man is raised only when the seed of the serpent is raised, which is the solo mission of Jesus through the Law-Moses and of the Prophets. Jesus the fulfilment and the end of the Law. Jesus, the Logos of God, sharper than a two-edged sword, comes not to bring peace but to cause division.

As it has been mentioned many times it is Jesus Himself who portrays the role of the earthly man Adam, while the Christ portrays the role of the heavenly man Adam. Prophetically denoting the transformation of man, from earthly to heavenly. From mortality and corruption, onto life eternal.

Jesus as the Alpha Adam and Christ as the Omega Adam. Christ Jesus’ dual role, who in the form of God (as the one and only God) emptied, lowered Himself to portray man, becoming as equal to man, in order to communicate with man.

To communicate with the mortal man, with the mortal soul, the nominated crown of God’s biological creation, whom He wants to create first, into a Living soul and after to transform him into a Living Spirit. As in His image and in His likeness.

The Prophetic decree:

Let us make man and into our image and likeness, referring to the seed of the woman.

Evidently, Jesus, prophetically testified that: The time will come, when, I will no longer speak to you in figurative language, but I will tell you plainly about the Father.

The concept which He has already revealed, adding,

I and the Father are One... I am in the Father and the Father is in me, and who sees me, sees the Father... no man comes to me unless He is drawn by the Father, and no man comes to the Father, but only through me...
For in Him dwells all the fullness of the Godhead bodily; and you are complete in Him, who is the head of all principality and power. Col.2:9-10

Never before, until now, mankind has been given the opportunity and the freedom to exercise discernment of the Logos for to receive spiritual enlightenment and totally independent of any religious influences.

Free in the spirit of his mind to study and to review the ambiguous embroidery of the literal narrative and with the help of God, who elevates and opens the mind, according to the great promises of God; that He will “reveal” and give the spiritual meaning of the hidden, enabling man to work out and interpret the figurative language, the designated unknown tongues.

Thus, to fulfill the written: That, all scripture is given inspirationally by God profitable for doctrine, taught by God through Christ.

Separating “the earthly things from the heavenly”, in both the Hebrew, and the Hellenic texts.

Today, in our times the figurative language opens wide its gates.

Today is the time of spiritual revelation and clarity of interpretation; and it is a concern for all, concerning our own existence, our human condition while walking in this ephemeral life. Walking in the valley of the shadow of death.

Orbiting the Sun once a year while aging and waiting to die, it is neither a prosperous nor a wonderful life, but rather a bleak and pitiful future.

We happen to be the most pitiful from all the rest of the biological species, because of our intelligence. And since we all and without exemption, are fellow travelers to the grave and slaves of the same destiny and have no physical advantage over the rest of the species.

Our only advantage is spiritual, we have the Living Logos of God based upon solid promises which will regenerate us to be born anew and to overcome the sting of death, if we take up God’s offer of eternity.

After all, it was God who embedded the idea of eternity into our hearts, from the foundation of the cosmos, confirmed by the written, therefore, the idea of eternity it was not man’s invention.

Despite our creational ingenuity and technological advancements, when it comes to natural calamities and pestilence, we are the puniest of all the species.

The recent pandemic proved the very point, the virus, which was specifically originated inside a laboratory, to satisfy the accomplice. The virus which somehow hypothetically had escaped.

The deadly virus created by those who love to play god, the world rulers, who through the spirit of error, the evil spirit which for many centuries now have been trying to create the dystopian “antichrist” society in order to rule and to control the whole world. Imaginatively with an iron rod, which was always pointing to Jesus and not to a certain nation or a group of certain dysfunctional minded individuals, who love to play god, and who through the centuries have managed to own most of the landmass of our planet.

The question now is this: where does the knowledge of good and evil come from, and how they are both embedded simultaneously in man? Which is the main theme of this edition.

Good and evil the two opposing forces “seeds-genes” inside the mind and heart of every man, designated by Jesus as man’s two masters.

However,

Even though the scripture has remained unchartered territory, due to the religious lawyers who cannot enter and up to now stood the main obstacle, but now free from them, things will begin to change due to the increase of all knowledge in the world, as it has been promised by God.

We are at the brink of turbulent times, and before the freedom of Logocrisia and of thought are taken away, by the dystopian (AI) warlords, the rich merchant bankers of Babylon the harlot, better reflect on the biblical prophecies and contradict skepticism.

For those who truly seek the spiritual insights of God's word, today God loses the seals of the book of life, referring to the correct and spiritual interpretation of the everlasting Gospel, (ministers of the Spirit and not of the letter) for the few to believe and for the many to bear witness.

Enter by the narrow gate; for wide is the gate and broad is the way that leads to destruction, and there are many who go in by it. Mat.7:13

Many are the invited, but few are the chosen. The majority today is too busy "enslaved" by the cares of this temporary life, which has been forcibly imposed upon them by the corrupt governing system.

Today if you would hear His voice, accept the high calling only if you want to. Everyman is entitled to choose his "temporary" earthly portion, which in reality is totally pointless while walking in the valley of the shadow of death, totally unaware what the future might bring.

Even though humanity, through much struggle and strife over the centuries has achieved both, the freedom of thought and of speech, despite the fact that there are satanic forces in action trying to eliminate this human achievement, creating the so-called artificial intelligence, for the accomplice of interest. And for the interest of the accomplice.

The imperfect man subdued by the deceitfulness of riches and fame vainly puffed up by his fleshy mind based upon flawed ideologies and flawed data, wants to create soulless, heartless machines to rule the world, by playing god. A travesty to the rational human intellect.

The imperfect, the evil and the irrational, which is double minded, would never be able to create perfection, the imaginary perfect human being or perfect society.

Perfection only exists inside eternity and purity, and never outside in the natural which is subdued by corruption and mortality, beyond time and space, since time is man's worst enemy.

Artificial intelligence created by evil minded men with the aim to steal our human right of thought and of speech and let soulless computers to tell us what to think and do, and what not to do, the accomplice for personal interest.

And the main reason, because they cannot resolve humanity's problems which they, had caused in the first place.

The ruthless and heartless inhumane dystopian society, based upon injustice and inequality, which begun due to certain dysfunctional religious beliefs, by those who control all the financial markets worldwide, which begun since the mediaeval times gathering wealth even through slavery.

The rich merchant bankers who created Babylon the harlot. The confused and guilty of corruption and greed system which rules the whole world today. Even though there is enough wealth to support every person on this planet, they rather keep it to themselves and let the rest suffer and die from malnutrition and deadly viruses.

The Lord God prophetically through Jesus, gave these evil and heartless people the ultimate warning:

For what will it profit a man if he gains the whole world, and loses his own soul? Mark 8:36

There have been many questions unanswered concerning the purpose for our temporary existence; our state and frame of mind, questions concerning our human condition, and above all, questions, why the Lord God gave us His Logos in a figurative language, which even demons cannot figure out?

But there is a God in heaven who reveals mysteries. Daniel 2:28

For to make all see what the fellowship of the mystery is, which from the beginning of the ages has been hidden in God who created all things through Jesus Christ; to the intent that now the manifold=πολυποικίλος wisdom of God might be made known by the Ecclesia to the principalities and powers in the heavenly places, according to the eternal purpose which He accomplished in Christ Jesus our Lord, in whom we have boldness and access with confidence through the faith of Him. Eph. 3:9-12 (Orig. Hellenic text)

The mystery of the creation and the multi-diverse wisdom of God given only to the Ecclesia, those called out of the world, the true disciples of Jesus Christ, the issue, which is subject to review and to scrutiny, therefore, subject to interpretation.

After so many centuries of darkness and sterility of spiritual revelation of the everlasting Gospel of Christ, of the Logos of God, the correct interpretation is now being preached and rightly divided “worldwide” in order to bear witness to the truth, so that no man will be with excuse.

Then I saw another angel flying in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach to those who dwell on the earth, to every nation, tribe, tongue, and people. Rev.14:6

The above decree applies to all nations without exemption or prejudice of colour and creed.

Biblical angels represent spiritual messengers given particular messages and who have neither wings nor feathers and point to ordinary men.

For the time has come for judgment to begin at the house of God; and if it begins with us first, what will be the end of those who do not obey the gospel of God? 1Peter 4:17

He, who hears, let him hear...

The biblical literature, the Gospel of God is strictly for the freethinker; and not to the man who only wants to rely upon his predecessors’ hypothetical theories, invented by the self-risen religions, designated as the worship of angels, vainly puffed up by their fleshy delusional mind... to whom God gave the spirit of error to be driven by strong delusions.

However,

The present topic mainly concerns our duality of characteristics, despite nationality colour or creed. The concept which has been hidden and for many centuries, even though God through His word has revealed this mystery, confirming that we all do bear a binary of characteristics, beginning from the book of Genesis, right through the entire scriptures, Hebrew and Hellenic.

Jesus reveals our duality of characteristics and designates them as every man’s two masters, adding that, no man can serve two masters.

Referring to the two opposing seeds, two opposing forces, inside our body.

What is scientifically designated, as the two strands of the genetic information of our DNA, the double helix inside our heart mind and soul.

Confirmation of the two seeds every man inherits from nature, despite colour and ethnicity:

And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your seed and her seed; He shall crush your head, and you shall bruise His heel. Gen.3:15

Until now the above prophetic decree hasn’t been whatsoever understood, but ignorantly assumed that it referred first, to Jesus and to Satan. Satan as an external enmity and not as an internal foe. Referring to everyman who puts on the image of Adam; and by putting on the image of Adam, one also puts on the image of the son of God, in the face and flesh of Jesus.

(Read Luke 3:38, Adam the son of God).

Therefore, Genesis 3:15, refers to the two opposing seeds of good and evil which we all inherit from nature, as soon as we have our first breath and set foot on this planet.

The seed of the devil, the nominated serpent, and the seed of the woman. The one designated as the sinful flesh and the other as the son of man, which is our humane side, our intelligence, our inner conscience, our subconscious mind, our emotions, our soul.

As from another level of understanding the two seeds are also defined as the twain, as the two masters, and as the outward and as the inward man, even as the sheep and the goat.

The two opposing seeds, which we all inherit from nature, from birth and the reason every descendant of the biological evolution is branded as a child of wrath.

The man of the primal killer instinct, proven by History... the study of the world’s criminalities.

The “twain” Jesus first comes not to establish peace but rather to cause division and to break down the middle wall of partition which keeps the two apart, and only when Jesus (the Logos sharper than a two-edged sword) demolishes the middle wall, the two are made manifest. And so, does the enmity between them for the wrestle to begin, until the enmity is put to death through knowledge and wisdom, when full of age and spiritual maturity, understanding good and evil.

For the Logos of God is living and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the division of soul and spirit, and of joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. Hebrews 4:12

And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have eternal life. John 3:14-15

The above clearly confirms, that it is the knowledge “the precepts” of the Law which raises, manifests the seed of the serpent in man; and the man who believes, accepts and follows Jesus’ instructions he shall not perish but have eternal life.

Jesus obviously refers to the cross, the focal point where the two opposing seeds of “good and evil”, the seed of the serpent and seed of the woman meet, and the two are being lifted up, exposed to be judged.

The two opposing seeds figuratively presented as two thieves, who suspend either side of Jesus, (Jesus the embodiment of the Logos of God suspends in their midst, the implanted Logos inside the disciple’s heart and mind) whilst the good repents the evil does not.

The crucifixion, which is a long process, until the renewal of the mind and purification of the heart, when of age and spiritual maturity.

The good and the evil, the righteous and the unrighteous, the seed of the serpent “the sinful flesh” and the seed of the woman, the designated son of man.

The role Jesus Christ portrays, taking on the sinful nature of man. Jesus is crucified within each and every one of His true disciples who must bear the death of Jesus. Co-planted with Him in His sufferings and His death.

With Christ I was crucified and I no longer live...

The two opposing seeds inside the same body, until the enmity between them is put to death through reconciliation based upon spiritual knowledge and wisdom, the very purpose of the foolishness of the cross.

Fulfilling the written that, the one born after the flesh persecuted the one born after the spirit.

Both seeds become reconciled to God, and only through the cross for the two to become one new seed, (not as many seeds but as one seed who is Christ) designated as the new man.

Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He does not say: and to seeds, as of many, but as of one, and to your seed, who is Christ. Gal.3:16

The good news of salvation “the Evangelion of Christ” was given and began from Abraham.

Προ-ευηγγελίσαστο τῷ Ἀβραάμ=proclaimed the good news εὐαγγέλιον to Abraham. (Gal.3:8)

The concept Judaism has totally dismissed.

Jesus confirms: Before Abraham I am, saying that right now I am standing in front of Abraham...

Then the Jews said to Him: You are not yet fifty years old, and have You seen Abraham? (John 8:57)

The number fifty refers to the fifty authentic books of the Old and New Testaments, which fulfills the fiftieth day, when one is filled with all the Spiritual knowledge (God inspired) given by the Spirit of God from above.

These happen to be the keys hidden within the ambiguous embroidery of the literal narrative which need to be rightly discerned since Jesus was about thirty years old, if the scripture is taken from a literal point of view.

The enmity:

The enmity is put to death only when the flesh is crucified, designated as the undressing of the old man, through the knowledge and discernment of good and evil, having understood the spiritual significance of the cross and why the two need to be reconciled and create-merge the two into one new man.

Merging the two into one new man, being built according to Christ, it means that the evil is defeated by the good.

Then Jesus said to him: away with you, Satan! For it is written, you shall worship the Lord your God, and Him only you shall serve. Mat.4:10

Bruising “crashing” the head, symbolically refers to the renewal of the mind, become free from the confusion of double mindedness, the binary of characteristics, which every man inherits from nature. The very necessity for the renewal of the mind, the regeneration and transformation from the former way of thinking.

Be specifically crucified with Jesus on the hill called Golgotha, which literally means skull, and points to one’s head, and mind, the change of the former way of thinking. Skull, the skeleton in the closet. The old must pass away for all things to become new, a new and living way. Jesus, the way, the truth, and the life...

His commandment: lift-up your own cross and follow me...

Become, co-planted with me in my sufferings, and in my death, that is, if you want to become co-planted with me in my resurrection, as it is described by the written, as it is painted by the figurative language.

The imaginative picture we all paint in our head-mind while reading the crucifixion story, intentionally designed for us, because it must happen inside us, but spiritually.

Jesus is crucified together with our carnal man bearing the evil seed, designated as the sinful flesh.

Jesus purposely manifests in the likeness of the sinful flesh, He who has no sin. Because He pitches the Tabernacle of His flesh with the flesh of man and inside his heart.

Καὶ ὁ λόγος σὰρξ ἐγένετο καὶ ἐσκήνωσεν ἐν ἡμῖν=He pitched the Tabernacle-Tent of His flesh inside us καὶ ἑθεασάμεθα τὴν δόξαν αὐτοῦ, δόξαν ὡς μονογενοῦς παρὰ πατρός, πλήρης χάριτος καὶ ἀληθείας. John 1:14 (Orig. Hellenic text)

And the Logos became flesh and dwelt among us, ἐν ἡμῖν=inside us and we beheld His glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth. John 1:14

The English text needs to be rectified, in translation and interpretation.

The Logos became and continually becomes flesh in the face of Jesus the personification of the Logos which proceeded out of the mouth of God, God who is the Logos. And Jesus Christ being the Logos, it means that He is the One and only God; and who is Spirit and not a man magnified.

Christ Jesus who in the form of God emptied-lowered Himself to take on the form of man, in the face-image of the two Adams.

By this you know the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is of God, and every spirit that does not confess that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is not of God. And this is the spirit of the Antichrist, which you have heard was coming, and is now already in the world. 1John 4:2-3

The above decree has been completely misinterpreted, since it is the Spirit of God which testifies that Jesus comes in the flesh, because He manifests in man. He manifests inside the heart-mind-soul of Jesus’ true disciple.

Jesus has pitched the Tabernacle of His flesh inside the heart-mind and soul of the man bearing the image of Adam.

Jesus’ testimony: He who eats me, eats my flesh has life in him, and it is the true disciple who eats the flesh and drinks the blood of Jesus, referring to the Law and the Spirit, received and tasted by the true disciple. The man bearing the image of Adam.

There is no way possible for a man to truly confess that Jesus has come in the flesh, since no man for over two thousand years now has seen Jesus in person.

Counterfeit Christianity’s, I believe, does not justify or prove that Jesus has come in the form of a biological man. To believe is to know. I know in whom I believed; I am doubly sure.

The Logos who in the beginning was with God and God was and still is the Logos today.

One has to experience the Spirit of the Logos working inside him. God inspired.

Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and dine with him, and he with Me. Rev. 3:20

Jesus knocks on the door of one’s heart, sent by the Father, which is God’s high calling to come out of the world’s vanities while imprisoned and choked by the cares of this ephemeral life, which the antichrist corrupt system purposely created in order to enslave man, never to allow him to raise his head above the ground.

Jesus, the Logos of God and the bread from heaven, the only one who can break “interpret” the bread, through His Spirit of wisdom and revelation and free man. Adding, learn the truth and the truth will make you free.

Unless Jesus, the Personification of the Logos pitches the Tabernacle of His flesh inside us, (the implanted Logos) no man yesterday or today could become co-planted with Him, neither in His sufferings nor in His death.

How else could a man eat the flesh and drink the blood of Jesus? Which only refer to the Law through the knowledge-revelation of the Holy Spirit, and not physically eat the flesh and drink the blood of Jesus, who is Spirit and has no flesh or blood. The waters must turn red, the spiritual concept not many have understood.

Religious imposters, charlatans vainly puffed up by their fleshy mind have transformed the glory of the incorruptible God into a man magnified, even into four-footed animals and birds.

Eat His flesh and drink His blood, so, that we might become co-planted with Him in His resurrection, by the implanted Logos which is capable to save our soul. Jesus, the implanted Logos through hearing, becomes the spiritual Tabernacle and spiritual flesh within man.

Wherefore, the crucifixion of the flesh is not a physical act but a spiritual process. while the flesh does not refer to our physical body.

If the crucifixion is or was a physical act, all of Jesus’ followers would have been and will be committing suicide, since His commandment was and still is for everyone to lift up their own personal cross and follow Him.

That meant, if Jesus was crucified physically, all of His followers would have had to do the same.

Jesus is crucified individually with each one of His disciples. He tastes death with each and everyone.

Jesus the spiritual seed of God when received “conceived” through hearing becomes personified as a man inside us, we, who bear the sinful flesh from birth.

Jesus puts on our image, and we put on His image, we put on the exact image of God’s own Son, according to the written. We become exactly like Him, we come under the curses of the Law and under grace, we become saviours of our own soul united with Him, Jesus the Firstborn...

Jesus=Saviour, Emmanuel=God with us and in us. I shall live in them and walk in them...

Manifesting the two opposing seeds inside the same body, inside every man alike who bears that same seed from Adam. The seed of the devil and the seed of the woman: according to Genesis 3:15.

For when we were in the flesh, the sinful passions which were aroused by the law were at work in our members to bear fruit to death. Rom.7:5

When we lived according to the rudiments of this world, according to the desires of the sinful mortal flesh.

Referring to the manifestation of the sinful nature aroused by the knowledge of the Law, the accuser and also the schoolmaster to leads us onto the faith in Christ. The Law “holy and spiritual” which has been rejected by all the self-risen religions and all mankind alike.

The Law, which judges the evil seed, the designated flesh.

But, as he who was born according to the flesh then persecuted him who was born according to the Spirit, even so it is now. Gal.4:29

The above decrees expose the evil seed, and the existing “indwelling’ enmity between the flesh and the seed of the woman, which began with Cain who persecuted Abel.

Illustrating that neither Cain nor Abel were biological persons, but conceptual just as Adam and Eve were.

Cain the firstborn, the one who was born according to the flesh the seed of evil; and Abel the one who was born according to the Spirit, the seed of the woman.

And it was not Cain “the firstborn”, the one sacrificed, but Abel, prophetically pointing to Jesus, the righteous who sacrifices His life for the unrighteous. Jesus manifests in the likeness of the sinful flesh, He who has no sin. Jesus takes the burden of the sinful flesh to condemn sin in the flesh.

The perpetual and conceptual story of Cain and Abel:

Cain and Abel the two opposing seeds of Adam, who ate the fruit of the tree of knowledge. After Adam received spiritual enlightenment from the tree, which was not guarded, but seductive and inviting, therefore, wide open to temptation.

Cain, the seed born of the flesh within Adam persecuted, quenched, Abel, the seed of the woman, yet again within Adam, the one born after the Spirit. Cain designated the seed of the flesh prophetically crashed the head of his only brother. What Jesus was ordained to do and to the seed of the devil, reversing the concept.

Through Cain and Abel, we can see the two opposing seeds within Adam after he ate the fruit of the two opposing branches and they are presented as biological people, even though neither Cain nor Abel were biological people, but conceptual, just as Adam and Eve, the Paradise Garden and the two trees. It is Jesus the tree of knowledge, that is of spiritual enlightenment, the way, the truth and the life, (behold! Man has become like one of us knowing good and evil) and Christ the tree of Life eternal. Jesus, the Living soul and Christ the Life-giving Spirit. And as we have borne the image of the earthly, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly, strictly applying to the man who has already entered the biblical arena, competing, running the race.

Taking the prophetic decrees literally, it is absurd:

According to the literal narrative, God created the man Adam in His image and in His likeness and his firstborn turns out to be a murderer. Not a good reflection on God, who later on regretted that He created man (in His image and likeness) and killed all his descendants, (except eight persons) by drowning; and all in an uncontrollable cataclysmic deluge.

Evidently the majority of Bible readers totally ignore that, what were written earlier were written for us to learn that we do need to be created today in God's image and likeness, therefore, everything written were based upon a prophetic scale, shadow of things to come, thus, to fulfill the saying, today if you will hear His voice.

And if we bear the image of Adam we become as Adam himself, we also eat from the tree of spiritual enlightenment, we also give birth to the two opposing seeds. And from within Adam God creates Eve the woman, revealing that it is all spiritual, therefore, conceptual.

The reason we cannot take the prophetic Logos literally and twist its spiritual concepts and implications into physical realities, since Cain and Abel represent-portray the two opposing seeds, which only Jesus "the Logos", the Saviour is able to divide, to raise up. While the global deluge which killed all flesh signifies the outpouring of the knowledge of the Laws of God and not an actual deluge, a natural disaster.

Whereas the ark from another level of understanding symbolizes God's grace, the safe house, the protection from death, walking on water, symbolically referring to the Laws of God, walking in the Laws of God.

The ark was not built, and the flood did not happen, until Noah was 600, denoting spiritual age and maturity, while at 500 he gave birth to three sons. Referring to the three levels, his mind was elevated, snatched and opened to the third heaven knowledge, denoting the three dimensions of the spiritual knowledge and understanding of the Logos of God.

600 fragments of barley bread gathered from the feeding of the five thousands and 350 fragments of the wheat bread gathered from the feeding of the four thousands.

We can see that all things written were based upon a prophetic scale, shadow of things to come.

Cain and Abel, the two opposing seeds within Adam, manifested after Adam ate the fruit of the tree. Abel literally means breath-life, referring to the breath, the Logos which proceeded from the mouth of God into Adam; and Cain as his fleshy man, the evil seed, who quenches the breath, rejects the Logos of God, that entered Adam, denoting the enmity and wrestle between the two seeds. The good seed in Abel, whose sacrifices were acceptable to God, but not of Cain's.

Cain, therefore, portrays the genealogy of the flesh whereas Abel portrays the genealogy of the Spirit (through the human), which was renewed in Seth, whose name literally means compensation-reward, the cryptic is in the name.

Fulfilling the written that, the righteous falls seven times...

All of us bear the two seeds of Cain and Abel, which carried on with Ishmael and Isaac, with Esau and Jacob, with Saul and David, with Nathan and Solomon, all the way to Saul the religious scribe and Pharisee who persecutes Jesus. Denoting the two genealogies.

Saul renamed Paul by Jesus. Saul as the fleshy old man and Paul as the spiritual new man. Saul, who sat at the feet of Gamaliel, the teacher of the Law, and it was the knowledge of the Law (Moses and of the Prophets) which drove Saul to Jesus, onto the faith in Christ Jesus.

Therefore, having obtained help from God to this day I stand, witnessing both to small and great, saying no other things than those which the prophets and Moses said would come, that the Christ would suffer, that He would be the first to rise from the dead, and would proclaim light to His people (His disciples) and to the nations. Act 26:22-23

Remember that Jesus Christ, of the seed of David, was raised from the dead according to my gospel, for which I suffer trouble as an evildoer, even to the point of chains; but the Logos of God is not chained. 2Tim. 2:8-9

(According to Paul's gospel? Which is a giveaway whom Paul really represents, and who commands us to be mimickers of him, mimickers of Christ).

According to the glorious gospel of the blessed God which was committed to my trust. 1Tim.1:11

According to most bible scholars the gospels were written many years after Paul, then, how did Paul know about the gospel of Christ?

Jesus Christ of the seed of David, refers to the spiritual biblical genealogy, since Jesus is the root of David; and not David the root of Jesus, since Jesus was born many years later if taking the scriptures literally. Exposing that the written cannot be taken literally and assumed that Jesus and David were biological individuals.

The solid evidence of everyman's duality, the two branches of the tree of knowledge:

For He Himself is our peace, who has made both one, and has broken down the middle wall of separation, having abolished in His flesh the enmity, that is, the law of commandments contained in ordinances, so as to create in Himself one new man from the two, thus making peace, and that He might reconcile them both to God in one body through the cross, thereby putting to death the enmity. Eph.2:14-16

Not many if any have inquisitively asked who are the two, "the twain in one body" whom Jesus comes first to divide, second to put the enmity between them to death; and thirdly to reconcile-merge them through the cross, that is, through their own cross.

He, who does not lift up his cross and follow me cannot be my disciple... unless he crucifies his flesh.

Romans Chapter seven makes ever so clear concerning not only the relevance of the Law, because the Author speaks strictly to those who do know the Law, but also exposing the antipathy which exists between the two seeds, and within us all, ruled by two different Laws, two opposing forces.

The two inside our body, our heart-soul and mind, nominating us as double minded, adding that, a double minded man is unstable in all his ways, since no man could or can serve two masters simultaneously.

Cannot serve the evil master, the flesh, which is full of lusts and vain ambitions, lies, envy, enmity and murder, and at the same time serve the good master, through the spirit of our mind, our human intellect, designated as the seed of the woman, the seed of the human. The necessity for the renewal of the mind.

Question: is there a man in this mortal world who does not know the difference between good and evil? And the very purpose of the Logos is to identify and to expose the two.

Apparently, what the majority does not know "but rather ignore" is that every man is a carrier of the evil seed, the rebellious selfish gene.

The evidence of the evil within:

Questions:

How do the evil thoughts enter the heart of man, if man did not bear the evil seed inside him?

Do evil thoughts come through thin air or are they implanted in us? The same also applies for the good thoughts.

Evil thoughts, good thoughts, two opposing forces, two contradictory laws.

Evidence suggests that we all need to be educated in all things, especially of the spiritual, since all other things are only temporary.

While we do not look at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen. For the things which are seen are temporary, but the things which are not seen are eternal. 2Cor. 4:18

This illustrates that there is more concerning our ephemeral existence, that which externally our eyes see, the designated world of sight, which for the majority becomes their prison house and their dark cave.

Evidently, our duality of characteristics (good and evil) has never been reviewed, while a good majority of the modern world have become atheists, totally ignorant how did the evil, the irrational seed; and also, the rational, manifested inside us, since the dawn of man, since the foundation of the cosmos?

Were both seeds “genes” created simultaneously from the dust particles, the substance which we all are made of through the biological creation evolution?

Two opposing seeds which receives the logos of truth, one rational and the other irrational, also designated, as the wise and as the foolish, as the righteous and the unrighteous, as the sinner and as the holy, despite nationality and colour.

Declaring that from nature we all, are branded as children of wrath, which means we are born bearing the two opposing seeds.

God begins with the tree which has two branches, one good and the other evil, and finishes only with “one branch”, one tree, the tree of life.

This means that God cuts off the evil branch and only the good remains, the tree of life and only through spiritual enlightenment, pointing to man, and the very purpose of the cross and crucifixion of the flesh, the undressing “the defeat” of the evil seed.

The two branches of the knowledge of good and evil within every man of the biological evolution, also designated as two different fruits, Jesus the Logos of God comes not to set peace, but to put a sword and to divide them.

The abominable branch, man’s evil seed, evil characteristic, and the beautiful branch, man’s good seed, good characteristic. By the fruit of their mouth (good or evil) you shall know them.

God intentionally guards the tree of Life, but leaves the tree of knowledge totally unprotected, and wide open to temptation. A seductive invitation.

And since we all do bear the two seeds, (two strands of genetic information) two opposing forces, clearly reveals that our creation was specifically by design and not at random.

Evidently, the Paradise Garden story is conceptual, prophetic and spiritual, therefore, not physical, as just as the Paradise Garden, which the Hellenic text also names as the Third Heaven, which most definitely never was or is an earthly place.

Therefore, not an earthly garden, but a platform (three platforms) of spiritual knowledge received through Godly inspiration, by the elevation “snatching” and opening of the mind.

In reality, the Paradise Garden is man’s heart and mind, so are the tree of knowledge and the tree of life, they are all inside us, which become manifest once we begin to bear the image of Adam, the son of God (Luke 3:38). Also are, Golgotha, the cross and the Promised Land.

They are all spiritual conceptions and implications, while the third heaven is the height of the spiritual knowledge given through the inspiration of God, by the snatching and opening of the mind.

All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness, that the man of God may be complete, thoroughly equipped for every good work. 2Tim. 3:16-17

Rational and irrational:

Evidently, we all suspend between the rational and the irrational, the wise and the foolish, the tame and the feral, the human and the animal, which gives us the equilibrium, the ability to make choices, to accept or to reject, and build resistance, mental aptitude.

The two seeds, Jesus comes to divide by breaking down the middle wall of partition, to manifest the enmity and cause conflict between them.

Jesus the embodiment of the Logos of God comes not to bring peace but to put a two-edged sword.

The one born after the flesh persecutes the one born after the Spirit. After one receives the Logos of God through Christ Jesus, the embodiment of the Logos.

The only way possible for this to happen is by “conceiving, planting” the Living and powerful Logos of God, the spiritual seed into our heart, which is symbolically compared to a natural seed, when planted, first it must die “must be digested-understood” and in time it will germinate and begin to grow roots and to blossom.

The Logos becomes alive in our heart, and it is the spiritual enlightenment, which manifests and raises our two sides.

The seed of the serpent which carries his father’s fingerprints; and the son of man, the seed of the woman, the one God wants to create in the exact image of God’s own Son; and who is the exact image of God Himself.

Jesus’ testimony: I was alive and became dead and now I live for ever.

Nevertheless, death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over them that had not sinned after the similitude of Adam's transgression, who is the τύπος=type of him that was to come. Rom.5:14
Αδάμ, ὃς ἐστὶν τύπος τοῦ μέλλοντος. Adam who is the type him=figure of the future.

Yet again illustrating that the story of Adam was prophetic, shadow of things to come.

The One who was to come, even though He was there from the very beginning it was Jesus the Christ, the personification of the Logos of God, first as in the form and flesh of earthly Adam, portrayed by Jesus, the man of the future, and after in the image of the heavenly Adam, portrayed by the Christ. Christ Jesus who in the form of God emptied Himself to take on the form of man.

God who from the beginning was the Logos “the reason for all things” and who still is the Logos “the reason” today through the voice of Christ Jesus.

The name which is above every other name to whom every knee shall bow in Heaven, on Earth and beneath the Earth.

And when Jesus who is without sin is received, He manifests in the likeness of the sinful flesh, because He manifests inside the heart of His true disciple, (s) who from nature bears the sinful flesh.

The Logos equated as the spiritual seed must be conceived inside our heart for to bring forth, first, the fruit of death and after, the fruit of righteousness and of life.

By the renewal of the mind and the purification of the heart, through the Logos of truth, depicted as the washing and the cleansing with pure water, referring to the Law and the Spirit.

However,

Apart from the biblical evidence which clearly reveal our duality of characteristics, there are also external evidence, which were God inspired, given to the ancient Greek philosophers, such as, Socrates, Plato, Aristotle, and others.

Through the discernment of good and evil knowledge and wisdom are born, which in continuation give birth to righteousness and to love, Philadelphia=brotherly love, Laodicea=justice for the people, democracy, equality, fairness for all, peace, and harmony.

The term Philadelphia=brotherly love, firstly, refers to the two seeds inside every man, inside the same body, the two which bear enmity between them who finally are reconciled, which will only happen by the crucifixion of the flesh. Reconciliation through brotherly love.

Secondly, Philadelphia on a general point of view includes all men that they should all live in peace, harmony and love, the concept which since the dawn of time has never been physically achieved, proven by our history, strictly the study of the world's criminalities.

The God given inspirational knowledge concerning the duality of our soul and being, which was given to the ancient Greek philosophers, the lovers of wisdom, freethinkers and wise men, who truly seek God.

The Dialogue Phaedrus, Plato's allegory of the charioteer:

First it was Plato's allegory of the dark cave and after, Plato's allegory of the chariot and the charioteer, in the Dialogue Phaedrus:

Plato ingeniously paints a picture for us of a charioteer driving a chariot pulled by two winged horses, the one black and the other white. The black horse Plato presents as a crooked lumbering animal and also mortal, hardly yielding to whip and to spur, which mean that it needed to be scourged and chastised. Whereas the white horse Plato presents as noble and immortal, upright and cleanly made and needs no touch of the whip; but is guided only by word "Logos" and admonition.

The Horse "Hippos" in Greek it is also called Alogon, which literally means without Logos, cannot speak, cannot utter words.

Illustrated by the Greek Text, that the natural "mortal" man cannot accept the things of the Spirit of God. He considers them as utter foolishness. The mortal man who is unruly and Law despiser.

Plato uses the chariot allegory driven by two winged horses in order to explain his view concerning the depths of his own duality of characteristics, the depths of his human soul on the turbulent journey of his temporary existence.

He uses winged horses to signify something inexplicable, something celestial.

Plato painted this imaginary picture not only for himself and for his contemporaries then, but also for us today, an imaginary picture of a charioteer, driving a chariot pulled by two winged horses, one white and the other black, two conflicting colours, figuratively trying to describe the duality, the double mindedness of every man's conflicting characteristics which are not in harmony or in any agreement, revealing that they are contradictory, they bear enmity.

The one horse pulls hard to the left and the other horse pulls hard to the right, not only preventing the chariot to run smoothly, but also to make it hard for the charioteer to control, therefore, in danger to crash and kill the charioteer.

Plato through wisdom sees his human soul and mind to be driven by two different forces, which he figuratively equates as a pair of horses, one of the horses is of noble breed, while the other is completely the opposite, not only in breed but also in character.

Evidently, referring to the two opposing seeds of good and evil which are clearly revealed by the Biblical literature.

The good seed "the white horse" is of noble breed of purity, referring to the seed of the woman, the son of man, the "spiritual genealogy", while the other "the black horse" is not of noble breed, not pure, referring to the genealogy of the flesh, the evil seed and evil genealogy.

The concept neither Plato nor his contemporaries at that time were able to understand spiritually.

It is only through the divine literature "the Gospel of Christ" we come to understand that the noble breed refers to the divine "the good seed" and the not noble breed, refers to the flesh, "the evil seed".

The Greeks had a plaque offered to "the Unknown God".

However, the noble, the good seed it is the gift of God, biblically designated as the seed of the free woman Sarah, ($40+50=90$, denoting the knowledge of the Law through the Spirit, the Hebrew and the Hellenic writings, which give birth to the spiritual, the noble seed) the humane and rational side of our own selves, whereas the other, the bad seed, is of the devil, the so-called serpent.

The two seeds God reveals and speaks to the evil seed:

And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your seed and her seed; He shall bruise your head, and you shall bruise His heel. Gen.3:15

The two seeds of different opinions biblically designated as double minded and who bear enmity between them.

Specifying that a double minded man is unstable in all his ways, because no man can serve two opposing masters. The two masters designated by Jesus.

Plato's allegories illustrate how "the unknown God" works with the mind of man inspirationally.

The true God is still unknown to the majority of people on earth today, especially the self-risen religious hierarchs including their entourage, who have changed the glory of the incorruptible true God into a man magnified.

The Lord's commandment: Give to Caesar what belongs to Caesar; and give to God what belongs to God, it is the rational and divine way we can deal with the demands of this temporary life. The way we pay our dues.

However,

The charioteer drives the chariot and tries hard to gain control, hard to unite in harmony the two horses from pulling different ways, but to do so, the horses must be trained, scourged and chastised, for to be reconciled, to be merged as one unit.

The commandment, love your neighbor as your own self, happens to be the concept which everyone simply considered that it referred to the person, the stranger living next door, one's neighbour, totally ignorant that it referred to the Logos and to the two seeds, expressed in singular.

The Logos, which is next to you and in your mouth, one's neighbor inside one's own body, one's wise master.

The concept Jesus illustrates through Simon-Peter, who asks Jesus, how many times must I forgive my brother Lord? Simon-Peter as true disciple of Jesus, the seed and listener of the Spirit. Peter referring to his carnal brother, his opposite seed, his outward man.

The two seeds also equated as two brothers.

Love your enemy sums it all up, it is personal, it is inwardly, it is spiritual; since it is physically impossible "outwardly" for a man to love another man whom he considers to be his enemy, and who threatens his life.

Education through spiritual enlightenment, the only way a man can identify himself, his inner conscience, the only way a man can change his way of thinking. Biblically designated as the renewal of the mind by a new and living way.

Plato went even further and divided the soul into three parts: three dynamic forces of the soul, three kingdoms and levels of the soul. The science of psychology.

The three kingdoms and three levels of the soul:

First, the top level and kingdom is the rational, then, the bottom level and kingdom, the irrational, and the third, the middle level and kingdom is the servant, caught between the other two opposites.

The middle and dynamic, is the part which takes its orders from both, the rational and the irrational, therefore, it is the discernor, the decision maker, the judge and jury. It is the scale-balance between the two. Good and evil, right and wrong, the symmetry of reason.

Plato's republic is also another allegory referring to man himself, man's state and frame of mind.

Plato describes a great circuit which the soul makes (the circle of life) as it follows in the path of enlightenment, trying to direct, to train, to unite and to reconcile the two opposite horses, pulling forces into harmony and make the two to run and behave as one.

Plato's imaginary painting of the charioteer and the two opposing forces paralleled as horses, the concept described by Romans chapter seven which speaks much clearer and to the man who knows the Law, by the man Paul who equates the two as his members, as the outward and as the inward man. The Spirit of the mind and as the flesh, suspending between two Laws.

I find then the law, the one who wills me to do good that evil is present with me. Rom.7:21
But I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members. Rom.7:23

The aim of divine Logos is to illustrate the importance of the cross:

And that He might reconcile them both to God in one body through the cross, thereby putting to death the enmity. Eph.2:16

The cross is where the two seeds meet to face one another; while Jesus suspends between them.

Cursed is he who hangs on the tree, that is the tree of Knowledge. Jesus takes the curse of the Law upon Himself and suspends between the two branches of the tree.

Jesus takes the curse of the Law in order for man to come under grace.

Jesus, while suspending on the cross tells the repentant man: today you are with me in Paradise, and obviously the third heaven, as God did with Adam. God took Adam and placed him inside the Garden. The paradise Garden, which is the third spiritual platform of spiritual knowledge.

God inspirationally took "snatched, elevated the mind" of Adam onto the Paradise Garden and also the third heaven and by the tree of knowledge of good and evil, which the Lord left wide open to temptation, because the fruit of the tree was ever so desirable to the eyes, the fruit of natural desires, of the world of sight.

Another one who spoke concerning the soul of man was Aristotle and who declared that the soul of man is divide into two, the rational and the irrational.

Biblically designated the wise and the foolish, the righteous and the unrighteous.

The knowledge of God is everywhere:

For the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord, as the waters cover the Sea. Hab. 2:14

Since the foundation of the cosmos God gave His knowledge to all mankind, through different story linings and allegories, in parables and in proverbs, even in mythology.

The Hellenic text names the seed of the devil as Nothos=bastard (not pure) and the good seed as the son of man and as the pure in heart. Thus, dividing the seed of the serpent from the seed of the woman.

Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall seed God...

Jesus, the Logos testifies that He comes not to bring peace, but to cause division and to separate the animal from the human, whom He will declare righteous, through the renewal of the mind and purification of the heart.

Renewal of the mind and purification of the heart through knowledge and understanding.

And it is the Law that raises the serpent in the wilderness, the seed of the devil and at the same time, the seed of the woman, the designated son of man, the humane side of man.

The reason Jesus is the embodiment of the Logos of God, and who nominates Himself to be the son of man. Revealing that it is Jesus who walks from the Garden, portraying the earthly man, Adam.

The two seeds, two genes, the two strands, the genetic information of our DNA? The double Helix, both animal and human, good and evil, the seed of the devil and the seed of the woman.

Science only sees the natural side of the double helix, but not the spiritual.

As Moses, (the embodiment of the Law) raised the serpent in the wilderness so must the son of man be raised, illustrating that only through the Law our two sides, our two characteristics are exclusively made manifest.

And it is Jesus the personification of the Logos who portrays the seed of the woman, the reason He names Himself the son of man, also the reason God wants us to put on His exact image, become co-planted with Him, to become exactly as Him. Put on His image, the exact image of God's own Son. Behold! The man has become like one of us, but not like the two of us yet...
Jesus, the one who is, who was and Christ the one who is coming.

Jesus born of a woman and under the Law, it is an allegorical term. The woman refers to the flesh. All men are flesh. Jesus manifests in the likeness of the sinful flesh, He who has no sin. That means, Jesus takes on the role of the earthly man Adam, the reason why, man must bear the image of Adam since it is Jesus who portrays him; to become entitled to bear the image of the heavenly Adam who is Christ.
Man from nature (from birth) bears the evil seed and mortal soul, the seed of death, which is sinful towards God, who is the God of the Living, the Living soul. All become alive in God.

Evidently, when we read any story, immediately we paint and frame a natural picture in our mind, we visualize the scenery and the characters of the story, which in reality, we turn the conceptual into a physical reality. We imagine and we see things and record them in our mind.

That is exactly what everyone has done with the divine literature, since the very beginning, even though the written clearly states that behind the earthly "pictures", the conceptual stories, behind the figurative language lies spiritual knowledge. Defined as the heavenly things, the things not seen. And through lack of spiritual discernment of the Logos, the majority who rely upon religious superstitious beliefs and not on reason still insist to take the literal embroidery as physical events.

The chambers of our mind...the spirit of our mind, soul and heart.
The animal is of the body, the human is of the mind-heart-soul; and the flesh is of the devil.
After all, salvation only concerns our soul, psyche, our human being, our intellect.
Therefore, only the Living soul is promised and entitled to be dressed in a spiritual eternal body.

The irrational seed:

Because of our irrational and unruly seed, our history since the beginning of the cosmos became the study of the world's criminalities, which hasn't yet ceased and never will, unless the evil seed is uprooted, which is the very purpose of the Laws of God and all His divine instructions through Christ Jesus to all mankind.

It is the Law that raises the seed of the serpent in us, the man of lawlessness; it is the Law which condemns and crucifies the flesh, the evil seed in us.

The divine purpose of the Law, the three so-called monotheistic religions have never understood and have taken literally and lacking spiritual discernment have tried to justify themselves with illogical rituals, even mutilating parts of their body.

Totally ignoring God's commandments, neither food nor drink or clothing can commend us to God, not even if we were to sacrifice our entire body.

God only accepts living sacrifices, referring to good works to serve God's purposes and not dead works, being fully and spiritually aware of God's instructions through Jesus.

And when one comes under the Law, one immediately comes under grace, made possible by Jesus, the Saviour. Jesus, the only mediator between God and man, who counterfeit Christianity has replaced with their own hierarchs. They are the solo mediators now between (their) god and man, forcing their followers to confess their so-called sins to them, which is against the instructions of God.

Apparently, it is because of the accusations of the Law that grace "favour-mercy" was made possible, because the Law carries the scales and the sword of justice and no man can be justified by the Law alone, as long as man carries the sinful flesh with the primal killer instinct.

One good example is Cain, who portrays the fleshy man, the opposite seed that of Abel, and both seeds within Adam himself, who ate of the tree of knowledge.

Cain, the man of the animal nature with the primal instinct, a hunter and a murderer, man of the flesh, bearing the evil seed, intentionally marked by God so that no one could kill him, while the blood of Abel whom Cain slayed was crying from the depths of the earth. And it was the blood of Abel which offer grace to Cain, because Cain and Abel not only are one man but also the two seeds, the two brothers warring against one another and both within Adam.

Abel as the righteous man put his life down for Cain the unrighteous.

The mark of God on Cain referred to the grace-reconciliation, which prophetically was to be made possible by Christ Jesus, since Cain broke the Law, killing his own brother, you shall not kill and you shall not quench the Spirit, which were shadow of things to come.

Denoting the wrestle between the two opposing seeds.

It is written that the natural man cannot accept the things of the Spirit of God, he is irrational, he considers the spiritual knowledge of the Logos to be utter foolishness.

The world of sight is his prison house, referring to the darkness which is in the world.

The lack of knowledge concerning the existence of God and the very purpose for our temporary existence while hunted by death, walking in the valley of the shadow of death.

The two seeds revealed by the Hellenic text, the one born after the flesh persecuted the one born after the spirit.

Our natural man of the animal nature bears enmity, hatred, therefore, he cannot surrender or repent, as long as he bears the evil seed, the reason why the crucifixion of the flesh is so important to grasp and not to become an enemy of the cross.

Then He said to them all: If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow Me. Luke 9:23

And whoever does not bear his cross and come after Me cannot be My disciple. Luke 14:27

Abel, the rational "the human" side of Adam meaning breath, refers to the psyche and to the Logos inspired by the Spirit of God in his mind and heart.

Abel the one who offers living sacrifices unto God.

The commandment you shall not kill points to the two opposing seeds, therefore, the Law it is spiritual and holy and not physical.

Romans 7:2 figuratively presents the fleshy seed as a married woman bound by her husband and pointing to the Law-Moses.

For the woman who has a husband is bound by the law to her husband as long as he lives. But if the husband dies, she is released from the law of her husband.

As soon as the flesh is crucified, freed from the Law, one is allowed to marry another, pointing to Christ. The two seeds the scriptures command to love one another, love your enemy, love your brother, love your pleesion, the one nearest to you.

The reason the sixth step of spiritual enlightenment and increase of Knowledge of the true Ecclesia is Philadelphia=brotherly love, leading to the seventh step which is Laodicea=righteousness, justice of the people. Justice and equality being created into the image and likeness of Christ Jesus who is the exact image and likeness of God.

Christ Jesus, who in the form of God lowered-emptied Himself...

How many times must I forgive my bother Lord? Seven times? Not seven times but 70x7, the seventy-seven generations from Adam to Christ. The 490 weeks until the sanctuary is cleansed.

Numbers are corridors of time, regeneration of spiritual age and maturity.

Prophetically, Cain and Abel, also portray the two goats, Abel is offered as a living sacrifice unto God, while Cain as the scape goat is the one led into the wilderness to be taught by God. God marked Cain. Cain, while in the wilderness found a wife, figuratively signifying that he found wisdom, he discovered, he identified himself and built a city, he became a city. Man is equated as a city, even as a stubborn fortified city.

The (fortified) walls of partition Jesus the Logos of God comes to demolish.

Wherefore, in place of Abel who was quenched by Cain, God gave Adam compensation in the face of Seth. Abel in Seth revives, becomes alive again. The Logos of God does not return void while the righteous falls seven times whom God raises up again.

As it has been already mentioned, the Genesis creation of Adam and Eve, Cain, and Abel, prophetically depicts the spiritual creation of the man of the biological evolution, the man of dust who already existed on the planet.

The reason Adam is the figure, the type, “the prototype” of him who was to come “the future man”, the Homosapien, (designated as the wise man) and who also is our human side; who from nature is a mortal soul with a mortal body and bears the seed of evil, which he must crucify, undress his old man. The man who from the beginning, God created “formed” from the dust particles of the earth, the man of the mortal body and of the mortal soul, whom the Lord God wants to create into a Living soul and adopt him, as His own son, a son of the Living God. For Jesus to be the Firstborn among many brothers. The God of the Living souls and not of the mortal and corrupt.

All they who received him, to them He gave the authority to become the children of God, those who believed in his name: John 1:12 (Orig. Hellenic text)

The above refers to all those who receive the Logos of truth, the embodiment of the Logos in the face and flesh of Jesus, bearing the exact image of God’s own Son.

The question now is this, why do we have to bear the two opposing seeds?

The issue which we will expound as we advance.

The issue of our duality of characteristics, the designated by Jesus, two masters and the theme of this present edition which up until now hasn’t even been touched. never considered, never debated.

For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies: Mat.15:19

Evidently, no one asks why out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, and how do these evil thoughts enter the heart of everyman, if man did not inherit the evil seed from nature, since birth?

The natural man branded by the Logos that he is a child of wrath.

Everyone up until now has completely ignored God’s decrees and instructions, concerning our human condition, even God’s offer of eternal life. Although everyone knows that we all are fellow travellers to the grave and slaves of the same destiny, and unless we truly seek the life giver and creator of all things, we are doomed.

The Evangelion, the good news:

The Evangelion of Christ “the good news of salvation” was prophetically proclaimed and promised to Abraham and his seed, the seed which descended from Adam.

Προ-ευηγγελίσαστο τῷ Ἀβραάμ=proclaimed the good news εὐαγγέλιον to Abraham. (Gal.3:8)

Illustrating that the Gospel of Christ begins from the Hebrew text.

The good news of salvation specifically designed to free man from the bondage of death, freed from him who has the power of death that is, the devil. Salvation of the mortal soul through the death of the flesh to regenerate-create the mortal soul into a living soul.

Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death (of the flesh, death of the evil seed) He might destroy him who had the power of death, that is, the devil, and release those who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage. Heb.2:14-15

Him who had and still has the power of death, and the only way to get rid of him is to crucify his seed, within us, depicted as undressing the old man.

The reason why we need salvation, we need freedom from the bondage of death, form mortality and corruption. Our flesh is ever so weak and prone to do evil, rather than good. Give someone an inch and he will take a mile, prone to the deceitfulness of riches and the love of money.

Therefore, through the death of the flesh, referring our animal nature with the primal instinct, the seed of the devil, the liar, we become free. The very reason the understanding of the cross is ever so essential to understand. The cross, not two planks glued together but the two branches of the tree of knowledge, crossed, come into conflict.

(Remark: even though there is so much evil in the world, still, the majority especially the so-called atheists, refuse to accept that there are spiritual powers within our universe, and beyond which infiltrate the mind of those who are prone to evil and to convey hatred and to commit evil deeds. Those biblically designated as the sons of disobedience, the one percent which rules the entire world, today, the creators of Babylon the harlot, the confused, and guilty of corruption dystopian culture. The true slaves of Babylon, the rich merchants. Bearing in mind that, what were written earlier were written on a prophetic scale and were pointing to us today).

The two seeds:

The case scenario of Cain and Abel which must happen in reverse, because at the end it is Abel who quenches, undresses his animal nature in Cain. Abel who becomes alive in Seth, God's compensation to Adam.

Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin. Rom.6:6

Jesus the way, the truth, and the life, gives us the weapons of knowledge, weapons of light, how to escape from the bondage of death by crucifying the lusts of our flesh, which are only temporary, just as temporary as our vacation is on this planet.

Our old carnal man, nominated as the flesh, which is the seed of the devil in us, (filled with all the desires of the material world), that bears enmity towards God and towards our human side, the biblically designated seed of the woman and the son of man. Referring to our humane side, our human characteristic, the rational seed.

Jesus nominates His own self, as the son of man, even though He is the Son of God, because He portrays the earthly Adam, who is the tabernacle of the flesh of Jesus. The reason why we must bear Adam's image, and if we do, we also bear the image of Jesus and who portrays the earthly Adam. Denoting the mysteries of the Kingdom of God.

The Logos of God sharper than a two-edge sword in the face and flesh of Jesus comes to cause division between the two seeds.

It is Jesus the Logos of God through the Law who exposes the seed of the devil in us, (Moses wrote about me) and who breaks down the middle wall of partition and separates our soul from the spirit of our mind and discerns the thoughts of our heart.

Do you think I came to bring peace on earth? No, I tell you, but division. Luke 12:51

For the Logos of God is Zōv=alive and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. Hebrews 4:12

Jesus the Living and powerful Logos of God on earth and Christ the Living and powerful Logos of God in heaven. And it is the Christ the Living Logos of God, the Logos which proceeded out of the mouth of God, who descends on earth and in the face and flesh of Jesus.

The mystery hidden in God even before the foundation of the cosmos.

The Lord said to my Lord sit at my right hand, sums it all up.

It is the Lord Christ (while in the form of God) who says to the Lord Jesus to sit at His right hand...

Revealing that it is the Lord Jesus who portrays the earthly man Adam, and it is the Lord Christ who portrays the heavenly man, Adam. Christ Jesus in the form of God, as the One and only God the creator. The two, God commanded to make man in their image and likeness, even though they are one, they portray a double role.

Christ the Logos of God in heaven and Jesus the Logos of God on earth. Christ Jesus, who is the exact image and likeness of God, revealing that He is God, God who is One.

I am the Lord and there is no other God besides me...Isaiah 45.

And if we bear the image of the earthly, in the flesh of Jesus, we will also bear the image of the heavenly, the Christ, the Life-giving Spirit.

The prophetic Logos was specifically intended for us today. The Lord was looking into the future of mankind, when knowledge was greatly increasing. All things written earlier were written for our admonition today.

Since the medieval times religious despots have hijacked the bible and all its titles making themselves kings and priests, and without the consent of the Author, the one and only mediator.

The Lord's answer to those who falsely claim (even up to this day) that their father is Abraham, Jesus said to them: If you were Abraham's children, you would do the works of Abraham. John 8:39-43

You are of your father the devil, and the desires of your father you want to do.

He was a murderer from the beginning, and does not stand in the truth, because there is no truth in him.

When he speaks a lie, he speaks from his own resources, for he is a liar and the father of it. John 8:44

Jesus' decrees prove beyond doubt that no man was ever created in the image and likeness of the Living God, the God of knowledge and of wisdom, for Jesus to accuse them that their father is and was the devil.

The above also reveals that most of the religious militants, the designated scribes and Pharisees, they who have cunningly hijacked all the biblical titles, despite their false claims, God has nothing to do with them.

By their fruits you shall know them. The medieval hell raisers, they are still around.

If a man cannot discern his evil side from his good side, that man does not know himself.

Evidently, three of the mainstream religions today not only claim that their father is Abraham; but also confess that they believe in the very same God, who also read the same book of instructions, but somehow, they cannot accept one another, because they cannot understand what they are reading. The evidence: the three of them have been at war and for many centuries now, which continues, despite all their hypocrisies and self-righteousness.

Making statements, such as, we invite all the "different" faiths to come together, which in reality is a travesty.

The Lord's question to all those who claim that they are the eunuchs for the kingdom:

Do you understand what you are reading?

Obviously not! By the fruit of their mouth, you (shall) know them, because they haven't the testimony of Jesus, the faithful witness, and neither of Moses nor of the Prophets.

Apparently, these three mainstream religions want to divide the so-called holy land, the land which has never seen a day's peace, and always has been a war zone since the dawn of time.

So much for the fantasy holy land which theoretically was to flow milk and honey, but instead famine, wars and riots, raining missiles from rocket launchers and plagued by unrest, fear and confusion.

God's graceful offer of salvation applies to all the nations impartial of nationality, the Evangelion, the good news proclaimed by Christ Jesus applies to all mankind, and much more to those who want to hear.

It is the Christ, the Living Logos of God in heaven who appears on earth in the flesh and face of Jesus; and offers salvation to man's soul "psyche" according to His divine instructions in order to defeat him who had the power of death, that is the devil and Satan.

To defeat the devil who has the power of death and overcome the inevitable sting of death of our mortal soul. The reason why we must be created first, into living souls, and after to be transformed into living spirits. Which means only the Living soul is entitled to be dressed the spiritual body, already prepared by Christ in heaven, in His Father's many mansions.

The question now is this:

Why has God allowed the devil to meddle with God's creation? The devil who boasted to Jesus that all the kingdoms of this earth were given to him. They were and still are under his power.

This concept illustrates that it was necessary for man to inherit the two opposing seeds, opposing forces of nature "positive and negative" in order to defeat the evil one, by the knowledge of the good.

Which means that without the knowledge, the awareness of good and evil, we would have been very stupid. We would have been able to make choices, no resistance or objections, no acceptance, no denial.

The victory of one's lifetime journey:

For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. So, when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, death is swallowed up in victory. 1Cor.15:54

The will of God and the very aim of His divine instructions are to make us aware of our death sentence, while walking in the valley of the shadow of death.

But without the death "the crucifixion of the flesh", depicted as undressing the old man, undressing our animal nature which bears the primal instinct, characterized as the child of wrath, carrying the seed of the devil, which bears enmity towards our human side.

The one born after the flesh persecuted the one born after the spirit.

The spiritual seed not as many seeds, but as one seed that of Christ.

Every natural man, the descendant of the biological evolution, despite ethnicity and colour bears the two opposing seeds of good and evil. The two which only manifest when one receives the Living and powerful Logos of God together with the knowledge of the Law. The Logos equated as sharper than a two-edged sword comes to expose and to divide the two.

The Logos which becomes flesh and anchors the Tabernacle of His flesh inside us in the image of Jesus. Jesus becomes man within a man, within His true disciple.

And unless the seed of the serpent, the seed of Satan is raised "exposed" within us, which is the very purpose of the Law "Moses", because without the Law the evil seed, the sinful nature of man will never be exposed; and neither will the son of man be raised.

But I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members. Rom.7:23

The very reason Jesus the Saviour (and the law giver) comes not to establish peace but rather to cause division, to break down "to demolish" the wall of separation between the two seeds, who are under two different Laws, designated as two masters.

Then, and only then, the confrontation begins.

I do not come to bring peace but to put a sword and to cause division...

Depicted as the wrestle between the flesh and the spirit. The spirit of our mind, our inner conscience against the evil seed.

And be renewed in the spirit of your mind; and that you put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness. Eph.4:23-24

For I know that in me that is, in my flesh, dwells nothing good: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not. Rom.7:18

The very purpose and necessity for the crucifixion of our flesh (and not our physical body) is to undress our evil nature and reject the primate with the primal instinct and lusts of the flesh.

That through death He might destroy him who had the power of death, that is, the devil, and release those who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage. Heb.2:14-15

That I may know Him and the power of His resurrection, and the fellowship of His sufferings, being conformed to His death if, by any means, I may attain to the resurrection from the dead.

Phil. 3:10-11 9

And as Moses lifted-up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of Man be lifted-up
John 3:14

Through the death of our sinful flesh and not through the death of our natural body, the issue which the vainly puffed-up fleshy minded religious despots, they, who raised themselves exercising worship of angels, have intruded into those things which they have never understood, and who have confused the biblical flesh with our natural body, and just the same with the flesh of Jesus.

They who pretend that through a theatrical ritual, they eat Jesus' flesh in the form of a wafer-thin biscuit and also drink His blood in a sip of sweet wine.

Many criminals took the so-called holy communion, but it did not stop them from carrying out their criminalities.

Despite the Lord's commandment to leave behind the first teachings, such as baptisms and laying of the hands and so forth, which only paint a natural picture, but go beyond the natural, see and enter the spiritual.

Jesus who is without sin manifests in the likeness of the sinful flesh?

Jesus the embodiment of the Logos of God, becomes flesh and pitches the Tabernacle of His flesh inside us, according to John 1:14

Original Hellenic text:

Καὶ ὁ Λόγος σὰρξ ἐγένετο καὶ ἐσκήνωσεν ἐν ἡμῖν, καὶ ἐθεασάμεθα τὴν δόξαν αὐτοῦ, δόξαν ὡς μονογενοῦς παρὰ πατρός, πλήρης χάριτος καὶ ἀληθείας. John1:14.

English translation:

And the "Logos" word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we beheld His glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth. John1:14

The Logos became flesh καὶ ἐσκήνωσεν ἐν ἡμῖν, it means that the Logos became flesh and pitched His σκηνή=His Tent, the Tabernacle of His flesh inside us, inside our heart, and not dwelt among us, sounding as if among different people different individuals.

Through lack of discernment of the divine literature, the translators have totally ignored that, what were written and spoken earlier were based upon a prophetic scale, expressed as shadow of things to come. Totally ignored that the entire scripture concerns and only applies to one man, the man who already bears; and who shall bear the exact image of God's own Son, Jesus who portrays the earthly man Adam and Christ the heavenly man, Adam.

The English translation omits the decree ἐσκήνωσεν=pitched His Tent, ἐν ἡμῖν=inside us and simply adds, that the Logos became flesh and dwelt among us. As if it was a physical occurrence and Jesus as a biological man came on earth at a bygone era and dwelt among the very few, yesterday's people. Therefore, it does not apply to us today, which is contradictory to the decree that whatever things were written earlier were shadow of things to come; and were written for our admonition today.

Jesus "the embodiment of the Logos" as He was yesterday, He is the same today and forever...

For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope. Romans 15:4

Many centuries have gone by and only now the correct interpretation it is given precisely according to the Hellenic text.

This means that Jesus, who is the embodiment of the Logos that proceeded out of the mouth of God comes and pitches-anchors His Tent, the Tabernacle of His flesh ἐν ἡμῖν=inside us, between the two seeds within us and suspends between the two. Jesus gets crucified between the two.

The Logos when accepted and received as the spiritual seed from above, "conceived" through hearing is planted inside our heart and mind.

The high calling:

Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hears my voice, and opens the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me. Rev.3:20

Today, if you will hear His voice...Jesus the only one who can explain the heavenly things, and “break-fragment” the bread.

But He answered and said, it is written, man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds from the mouth of God. Mat.4:4

Jesus playing with words unites the bread with the Logos as one and the same and illustrates that Jesus is the embodiment of Logos of God who is Spirit and life.

By reciting the Logos, we speak it, we hear the Lord’s voice through our own voice, we plant the Logos inside our heart, symbolically designated the garden with the good earth, the disciple’s heart.

The parable of the Sower of the good seed sums it all up.

The seed which falls onto the good ground, referring to the man who listens obeys and plants the spiritual seed inside his heart until it germinates and begins to blossom, until it brings forth the fruit of righteousness.

The seed is implanted until the Logos is personified within, the designated indwelling Logos, then we begin to bear the exact image of God’s own Son. We put on Jesus, we put on the Tabernacle of His flesh, for Jesus to be the Firstborn among many brothers.

The evidence it is clear that Jesus portrays the earthly Adam, Jesus who is without sin, manifests in the likeness of the sinful flesh, because He manifests inside us who bear the sinful flesh.

Jesus takes on the role of the first Adam, He bears Adam’s image, the man of dust and descends, walks from the Garden right through the entire scriptures and is personified as the city of Bethlehem, the House of the Heavenly bread.

Bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh. The concept which also gives more insights who does Eve really represents.

It is clearly evident that the Garden story is conceptual and represents the third platform “dimension” of spiritual enlightenment and therefore, the Paradise Garden never was a natural place, exposed by the Hellenic text which also designates it as the third heaven. The beginning of the spiritual creation of the man of God into a living soul, the man bearing the image of Adam; and just as Adam he eats of the tree of knowledge of good and evil. And just as Adam, God creates Eve from his bones and from his flesh. Adam and Eve as one person.

But I fear, lest somehow, as the serpent deceived Eve by his craftiness, so your minds may be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. 2Cor.11:3

For Adam was formed first, then Eve. 1Timothy 2:13

From Adam and the woman Eve, were born the two opposing seeds. Eve, formed from within Adam, she portrays various roles.

And so, it is written: the first man Adam became a living soul. The last Adam became a life-giving spirit. 1Cor.15:45

The written testifies of two Adams and not just one Adam. The First earthly and the Last heavenly, and it is the First who in reality becomes the Last and only through spiritual enlightenment. Denoting the transformation which happens through knowledge and wisdom, the earthly becomes the heavenly.

Jesus testimony: I am the way, the truth and the life, which means that we must follow Him, follow all His instructions, become co-planted with Him in His crucifixion, in His sufferings and in His death, that we might become co-planted with Him in His resurrection. We put on His image, the exact image of God’s own Son, as He puts on our image. For Jesus to be the Firstborn among other brothers.

It must be understood that the entire scripture is spiritual and only spiritually is discerned, and it must be given inspirationally by God.

Reciting the literal embroidery of any story:

When reciting any earthly story, we begin to paint a physical picture in our mind, even though, according to the testimony of Jesus, the story is conceptual “written in a figurative language”. Therefore, without spiritual discernment of the story, the picture which we have already painted in our mind, automatically we see it as a physical natural event, even though it is spiritual.

A good example is the crucifixion story:

When we begin to read the narrative of the crucifixion, we begin to visualize the whole scene, we see Jesus as a natural man carrying a massive wooden cross, being ridiculed by the Roman soldiers, and the religious crowds, the scribes and the Pharisees. Disgraced and badly beaten up, bearing a crown of thorns, covered in blood from His inflicted wounds and who is finally nailed on a wooden cross suspending between two other crucified men, nominated as two thieves.

It is an emotional scene, imprinted and framed in our mind. We see it and immediately consider it as an actual event, a historical occurrence, unaware of its spiritual implication and through lack of spiritual discernment, our senses are overwhelmed by heartbreaking emotion of such cruelty.

Unaware that the actual crucifixion must happen inside us, which is what the Logos is saying that we become partakers in the crucifixion with Jesus, the Logos suspending between the two seeds which we all bear.

Confirmed by the decree:

With Christ I was crucified... spoken by Paul who came years after Jesus, was crucified, taking the scripture from a literal point of view obviously.

How was Paul crucified with Jesus Christ, since he never saw Him physically? But only in a spiritual vision, while on his way to Damascus, which is the way God works, inspirationally, inspired, in the Spirit. Paul intentionally declares that with Christ he was crucified and not with Jesus, thus, to illustrate that the crucifixion is spiritual and not physical.

It is the Logos in the face of Jesus who knocks on the door (the high calling) of our heart, asking us to allow Him to enter, and suspend between the two opposing seeds inside us and become partakers of the same, co-planted with Him in His sufferings and in His death.

The very sufferings and death we have envisaged in our mind, that we might become partakers in the likeness of His resurrection, created from a mortal soul into a Living soul, the first death and the first resurrection.

Therefore, the actual crucifixion happens inside us, Jesus the embodiment of the Logos who is spirit comes and suspends between the evil seed and the good seed, the nominated our two masters, also the outward man and the inward.

The outward man, bearing the evil seed does not repent, while the inward man bearing the good seed repents.

If we allow ourselves to enter the spiritual implication of the crucifixion, hidden behind the literal narrative; and grasp why Jesus had to illustrate the crucifixion process in a physical way, suspending between two thieves, and understand what do the two thieves really represent; and specifically on a hill called Golgotha.

Golgotha, literally means “Skull” which refers to spiritual enlightenment, designated as the renewal of the mind. It is only then when we begin to grasp the spiritual relevance of the crucifixion and why the Lord commands us to be crucified with Him, even though He is not present as a natural person.

Lacking spiritual discernment of the Logos, we somehow forget the rest of Jesus’ commandments that we, just as He, must bear our own cross, and become co-planted with Him in His sufferings and in His death, and not questioning why we have to be crucified just as He did? The picture we paint in our mind when reading the earthly story.

But He had already paid the price for our redemption, or hasn’t He?

Then, why do we have to be crucified just as He did? And if Jesus’ crucifixion was a physical act; and if we were to do exactly the same physical act, surely, we will be committing suicide.

Illustrating beyond doubt that the crucifixion was not a physical act, since it has to happen inside us spiritually and not physically and externally.

Substantiating that the crucifixion is personal to each and every one of us, therefore, Jesus is crucified with each and every one of us, separately. Jesus dies and resurrects with every one of us, and we, die with Him and resurrect with Him. Suffering the death of the flesh, the death of sin.

Majority of the people today ignorantly, they are enemies of the cross, deceived by the spirit of error.

For I through the law am dead to the law, that I might live unto God. I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless, I live; yet not I, but Christ lives in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh (live in this body) I live by the faith (the way and the truth) of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. Gal.2:19-20

The man who uttered the above words, was neither dead nor buried. The physically crucified are dead, they no longer speak.

The point being made is this, we cannot take one story, one part of the scripture and separate it from the rest.

The entire scripture, Hebrew and Hellenic must be put together in order to form and to frame the full Mosaic for to absorb their spiritual essence.

The two men designated as thieves, were also condemned and crucified, and on the specific hill called Golgotha, which literally means “Skull”, which is the crypto key factor of the crucifixion story, illustrating its true spiritual significance?

The old man bearing the evil seed must die, for the new man to manifest and be renewed. Death of the flesh by the renewal of the mind.

The Skull-Cranium refers to the head of the old man bearing the evil seed being crashed (the skeleton in the closet of every man) which only happens by the renewal of the mind, undressing the old man of the sinful flesh, when crucified, quenched by the knowledge of the good.

The old head depicted as the old wineskin must be renewed, become strong enough to hold the new wine, referring to the new spiritual teaching and understanding.

As it has been already mentioned the natural picture we have had already painted on the canvas of our mind and heart and as an external physical event, is exactly the opposite, it's what must happen inside us, spiritually, through knowledge and understanding.

Jesus comes and pitches the Tabernacle of His flesh, between the two opposing seeds within us, which according to the written: He comes not to bring peace but rather to cause division and conflict, ἐν ἡμῖν=inside us.

We imagine Jesus on a wooden cross unaware that the actual cross are the two branches of the tree of knowledge of good and evil, the two branches being crossed ἐν ἡμῖν=inside us: and Jesus the embodiment of the Logos suspends between two thieves, between the two opposing seeds.

The Logos sharper than a two-edged sword divides the two.

And since the disciple has borne the image of the Son of God as in the flesh of Adam, he shall also bear the image of the heavenly Adam, who is the Christ.

Let the Logos of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord. Col.3:16

Jesus, comes and pitches the Tabernacle of His flesh inside us, for Christ to be formed, (until Christ is formed) for to obtain the mind of Christ, denoting the spiritual metamorphosis, from the natural and the mortal, onto the spiritual and immortal.

The very reason, Jesus who is without sin manifests in the likeness of the sinful flesh, because He manifests in the man who from birth already bears the sinful flesh, and the Logos is conceived to raise both seeds, the seed of “the serpent” and also the “son of man”, the seed of the woman which goes back to Abel, Seth, Isaac, Jacob onto David, Solomon, and Jesus the Christ to come.

The question now is this, how does the Logos of God become flesh today?

Reviewing the scripture for the here and now, because it concerns us today, the concept which clearly illustrates that all scripture was and still is prophetic. The Logos must become flesh today, as it was yesterday, therefore, it was and still is a continuous process.

Jesus the embodiment of the Logos of God on earth today since the Logos is Spirit, fulfills the written, My words they are Spirit, and they are life. And now the Lord is the Spirit. God who is the Logos, God who is Spirit.

We can only imagine Jesus as a man, we paint His face to our face while bearing in mind that in reality He is God and He is Spirit, the reason He comes and dwells in us but only in Spirit.

Whoever has been born of God does not sin, for His seed remains in him; and he cannot sin, because he has been born of God. In this the children of God and the children of the devil are manifest: Whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is he who does not love his brother. 1John 3:9-10

He shall be called Jesus, Emmanuel, God with us:

As God has said: I will dwell in them and walk with them. I will be their God, and they shall be My people. (2Cor.6:16. Orig. Hellenic text)

God is the Logos, and who is Spirit will dwell in us and walk with us.

It must be clearly understood that the Logos of God is given the name Jesus, Emmanuel, meaning God is with us. While the name Jesus literally means Saviour; therefore, it is the knowledge of the Logos which is our Saviour.

Jesus, the Logos becomes alive in us, until Christ is formed. Until we become the Temple of God and Christ the High Priest inside the Temple of God. The Temple not made with hands.

And let your ear receive (conceive) the word of His mouth... Jer. 9:20

Most assuredly, I say to you, he who hears My word and believes in Him who sent Me has everlasting life and shall not come into judgment but has passed from death into life. John 5:24

Jesus comes to put a sword and to cause division between the two opposing seeds.

The case scenario of the rich man (unnamed) and the poor man Lazarus. The two opposing seeds, the evil seed and the good seed, within one man figuratively presented as two different men. The proud rich man (his name blotted out) in hades, judged by the Law and the poor-humble man in the bosom of Abraham (who did the works of Abraham) and lived by the Law of faith in Christ.

The good news of salvation, were spoken to Abraham:

Προ-ευηγγελίσαστο τῷ Ἀβραάμ=proclaimed the good news εὐαγγέλιον to Abraham. (Gal.3:8)

This concept clearly reveals that God through Christ Jesus works from above, works inspirationally, in accordance with God's decree that, the spiritual understanding of all scripture is given inspirationally by God.

No man needs inspiration to recite the literal embroidery, the figurative language, but every man needs inspiration directly from God to reveal and clarify that which is hidden behind the figurative language.

Let the Logos of Christ through Jesus dwell in you, the two Adams in motion, whose mission is the commandment of the Father; Let us make "create" man in our image and in our likeness.

In the image of Jesus and likeness of Christ, who are exactly the image and likeness of God the Father. Jesus, the spiritual seed of God, through hearing is planted inside us, and as a seed, He must die first, until it germinates, makes roots, and begins to blossom and be transformed into the Christ.

And when I saw Him, I fell at His feet as dead. But He laid His right hand on me, saying to me, do not be afraid; I am the First and the Last.

Καὶ ὁ ζῶν=the Living One καὶ ἐγένεθον νεκρὸς=and became dead, and behold, I am alive forevermore. Amen.

And I have the keys of Hades and of Death. Rev.1:17-18 (Orig. Hellenic text)

Jesus the spiritual seed becomes dead, He is "crucified inside us" and then He becomes alive, He is the Living soul He becomes anointed and lives forevermore. He becomes the life-giving spirit, the Christ, He takes back His former glory, as the Omnipotent and eternal God, who emptied, lowered Himself to serve, to educate man.

Jesus Christ, the Logos confirms that He is not of this world:

And He said to them: you are from beneath; I am from above. You are of this world; I am not of this world. John 8:23

Isn't it odd? Jesus, who according to the general belief (they who take the scripture literally) was born on this earth and in the form of a natural man, to deny His earthly birth and declare that He is not of this world, even though He names Himself to be the son of man?

But why does Jesus' name Himself the son of man?

This concept can only be understood through spiritual discernment of the Logos, because it points to the "genealogy", the line from Adam, and as the seed of the woman, therefore, the seed and genealogy beginning from Adam, through Seth.

Jesus the good seed of the Sower. The Logos the heavenly and spiritual seed.

Wherefore, Jesus portrays the human soul, Psyche, the true Anthropos. Let's us make the Anthropos, in our image and likeness.

Let us make, create the human side, the Anthropos in our image and likeness by separating him from the animal, the primate, with the primal and killer instinct. The descendant of the natural evolution, who lived according to the Law of the jungle. Survival of the fittest, eye for and eye and tooth for a tooth.

The Law, Jesus annulled, replacing it with a floating statement.

And just as you want men to do to you, you also do to them likewise. Luke 6:31

It is obvious that no man wants to lose an eye.

Behold! Man (the human) has become like one of us, the prophetic declaration, shadow of things to come.

The prophetic Logos...Keep the Logos of prophecy until I come... We have the prophetic Logos confirmed as a light that shines in a dark place, which you do well to heed, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts.

Jesus the morning star, the root and offspring:

I, Jesus, have sent My angel to testify to you these things in the Ecclesias. I am the root and the Offspring of David, the Bright and Morning Star. Rev.22:16

Illustrating that Jesus is conceived and born inside the heart of man, the purified, circumcised heart.

He is the root and also the offspring. Of David, referring to the beloved son.

Only the human:

It is confirmed that only the human is entitled to be dressed the divine nature.

The flesh, nominated as the natural man, the man of dust who cannot accept the things "instructions" of the Spirit of God, because he cannot comprehend the spiritual, therefore, he considers the things of God to be utter foolishness, which is the mission of the wicked one within, who is a liar from the very beginning.

The above statement clearly confirms that it is the Logos which proceeded out of the mouth of God that is personified in the name, and face of Jesus, the bright morning star, and the Sun of righteousness.

God is Spirit and only in spirit and in truth is worshipped, understood, and accepted.

The Logos which becomes flesh and pitches, anchors His Tabernacle-Tent inside the heart and mind of the man who believes and accepts Him.

The Logos is conceived and is born inside the heart of the man bearing the image of Adam, the Logos, which is also designated as the bread from heaven and the spiritual seed. Therefore, the man in Adam by receiving "conceiving in his heart" the spiritual seed, the bread from heaven, becomes the House of bread, becomes Bethlehem.

Man is biblically compared to a city and not just one city, but as three cities, denoting three advanced stages, three spiritual levels of learning.

Bethlehem, where "Jesus, the embodiment of the Logos is born" and outside the inn, outside the carnal world's habitations, traditions, and rudiments, but among shepherds, among teachers.

And since He is not of this world, but from above, His teaching is also from above and only inspirationally is received.

All scripture is given inspirationally by God...

Jesus Christ teaches His true disciples inspirationally from above, because He is from above and not of this world. God who is Spirit and not a man magnified.

Jesus, the same yesterday, today and tomorrow.

Only by the spiritual discernment of the Logos interpretations will alter people's perceptions to set them free and break away from the conventional, the antique, the Stone Age religious ideologies.

Antique doctrines tailored for the museum only to remind everyone their times of ignorance.

It is written that all scripture is given inspirationally by God, revealing that to grasp the hidden behind the literal embroidery, the correct spiritual interpretation of the Logos, is God's work and it is given from above, God who is the Logos.

The evidence given by the Prophets, expressed as the word of prophecy, the Logos of God came to me, inspirationally, which was a shadow of things to come.

The Logos of God personified in the face and flesh of Jesus, who walks from the book of Genesis to the book of revelation.

My Father has been working until now, κἀγὼ ἐργάζομαι=and I am working, (today, right now) denoting a continuous nonstop process. John 5:17

They, who accept and "conceive" the spiritual seed of God in their hearts, Jesus manifests in them, Jesus the spiritual seed of God is personified, Jesus the Logos sharper than a two-edged sword.

The Logos, the discerner of the heart:

For the Logos of God is living and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the division of soul and spirit, and of joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

Jesus, the personification of the Logos of God, confirms:

Do you suppose that I came to give peace on earth? I tell you, not at all, but rather division.

(Luke 12:51) Man is equated as the earth, the man of the dust particles.

The Logos of God comes to us only when we seek God's Kingdom and righteousness, when we accept His offer of eternal life based upon His promise, therefore, a continuous process in every generation. Today if you will hear His voice...

And there is no creature hidden from His sight, but all things are naked and open to the eyes of Him to whom we must give account. Heb.4:12-13

The above refers to the two creatures, designated as the twain, both naked to the eyes of God, while in the Romans epistle 7:22 and 2Cor.4:16 the twain is designated as the outward and the inward man.

For I delight in the law of God according to the inward man. Rom.7:22

Therefore, we do not lose heart. Even though our outward man is perishing, yet the inward man is being renewed day by day. 2Cor.4:16

When our fleshy outward man is perishing, our inward man, the spirit of our mind is renewed.

For when I am weak, I am strong. When my fleshy outward man is weak, my inward man becomes stronger.

The above decree clearly reveals that our fleshy outward man has nothing to do with our physical body. Jesus speaks to the twain, also naming them as two brothers: Just like Cain and Abel, Ishmael and Isaac, Esau and Jacob. The two which afterwards continue as two Kings, as Saul and David, all the way to Saul the Pharisee renamed Paul who eventually become one new man.

The two opposing seeds within one man;

And why do you look at the speck in your brother's eye, but do not perceive the plank in your own eye?

Or how can you say to your brother, brother, let me remove the speck that is in your eye, when you yourself do not see the plank that is in your own eye?

Hypocrite! First remove the plank from your own eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck that is in your brother's eye. Luke 6:41-42

Jesus separates the man of the spiritual creation from the man of the world mainly referring to man's duality:

Do not be unequally yoked together with unbelievers. For what fellowship has righteousness with lawlessness? And what communion has the light with the darkness?

And what accord has Christ with Belial? Or what part has a believer with an unbeliever?

Or what agreement has the temple of God with idols?

For we are the temple of the living God; just as God said: I will dwell in them and walk among them; and I will be their God, and they shall be My people. 2Cor.6:14-16

The prophetic word (2Cor.6:14-16) is only fulfilled through Jesus, the tecton who lays the cornerstone and builds the Temple of God for Christ the High Priest to be formed.

(2Cor.6:14-16) substantiates the fact that the Logos who is God Himself dwells inside the heart of the man who has accepted to conceive the good seed of the Sower and in the face and flesh of Jesus, the true disciple and who bears the image of Adam, who is the Living soul and the Temple of the Living God.

Whereas the evil seed is the temple of idols. The temple and the countless temples in the whole world made by man. Know this, that the Living God does not dwell in manmade temples, but inside the Living soul of His adopted sons, for Jesus to be the Firstborn among other brothers.

I called my son to come out of Egypt, to come out of the world's vanities.

The temple of idols must be demolished for the temple of God to be formed.

We heard Him say: I will destroy this temple made with hands, and within three days I will build another made without hands. Mark.14:58

Jesus answered and said to them: destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up. John 2:19

The above decrees not only confirm that there are two temples: one made with hands "manmade" and the other made without hands "spiritual" built by God, but also confirm that the Logos was written in riddles "figurative language, as unknown tongues" and in many fragments.

Another riddle among many, is the scenario where Jesus visits the Temple and sees the money mongers and money chargers and accuses them that they've turned the House of God into a den of thieves; and takes a whip and begins to chase them all out of the yard and from inside the Temple.

Up to this day this conceptual story is still seen as a physical event, totally ignoring that behind the conceptual in a parallel dimension, lies spiritual knowledge.

It is Christ in the face and flesh of Jesus who grabs the whip and enters the Temple (not made with hands) referring to the true disciple and throws out the sons of Mammon, the deceitfulness of riches and the love of money, the Egyptian Pharaohs with their treasures and the temple of idols.

Jesus comes to throw out all the vanities, to uproot the evil out of man, adding that I come not to establish peace but to put a sword and to divide, with reference to the two opposing seeds within one man. I come to uproot the lusts of the flesh, by crucifying the fleshy man with me.

I, who has the keys of Hades and of death.

Illustrating that everyman from childhood has been intoxicated with the deceitfulness of riches and the love of money, by the corrupt ruling system of the world who has turned the Temple of God (referring to man himself) into a den of thieves.

Every man lives according to the rudiments of the carnal world, nothing new under the Sun.

The reason Jesus the Logos of God comes not to bring peace but to put a sword and to divide the two temples, the temple of idols from the temple of God.

The Temple of God which is the true disciple and not a stone building, because God does not dwell in buildings made with hands, for Christ the High Priest in the class of Melchizedek to be inside the Temple.

The Temple of God as it has been mentioned many times is the man bearing the image of Adam who is under the spiritual creation process to be created into a Living soul. To be fully furnished and prepared for the adoption for to put on the exact image of Jesus Christ, who is the indwelling Logos of God.

Jesus enters the strong man's house "temple" and ties down the strong man in order to free the human and build him into the true Temple of the Living God.

The temple made with hands is the temple of idols and the synagogue of Satan and not the Ecclesia.

It is written that the Lord God does not dwell in manmade buildings, then, why do all the religious despots since the beginning of time, their burning desire was to build temples according to their specifications to accommodate, obviously their own invented and imposter god.

Craftily to praise their own selves through their dysfunctional minds, no different to the Roman emperors and all other religious emperors and hierarchs.

Love your pleesion, was and still is wrongly interpreted as one's next-door fellow neighbour, ignoring that it is specifically expressed in "singular", and refers to one's other self, one's parallel character.

The two who are Pleesion, next to each other, as two occupants "tenants" inside the same house, inside the same body.

The two designated as the outward and as the inward man, who previously were separated by the middle wall of partition, but now, the middle wall has been demolished by the Logos sharper than a two-edged sword, brought the two into conflict, until the enmity is put to death and the two are reconciled to God through the cross. For the two to become one new man, according to Christ.

When the flesh, the evil seed is crucified, quenched, through knowledge and understanding, leaves behind only the human, the designated son of man, the one entitled to put on the divine nature.

Revealing that the crucifixion it is not a physical act, because if it was, every follower disciple of Jesus would have been forced to be crucified physically just as Jesus did, which is His commandment.

Any man who does not lift His cross and follows me, cannot be my disciple.

Wherefore, if your Jesus was crucified physically, you must also do the same. Nothing new under the Sun. Jesus is crucified with each and every one of His true disciples. Co-planted with Him...

Luke 6:41-42, uncharted territory:

The mystery hidden in God, the kept secret, which right now is being revealed, exposing our duality of characteristics, the two seeds of good and evil inside our heart, mind and body which we all inherit from nature.

Another decree is the case scenario of Simon-Peter, who asks the Lord, how many times must he forgive his brother?

According to the written, Simon-Peter's brother was Andrew. Did Peter and Andrew bare enmity towards one another?

There is no such evidence, but Peter obviously referred to his brother dwelling with him inside his body. The same commandment which applied to Peter, also, applied to Andrew, if we take the scripture on a literal point of view.

Do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing. Matthew 6:3

How is it that physically possible?

Left hand, right hand, obviously refers to the two sides and two seeds within every man.

Simon-Peter, the listener of the Spirit, who is being built upon the rock foundation doctrine of Christ, the example of the true disciple and the Ecclesia, as the man who has been called to come out of the world and enter the biblical and Godly arena, just as Paul, previously named Saul.

Through spiritual discernment we come to understand that Jesus is the Logos of God on earth and Christ, the Logos of God in heaven.

Jesus as the earthly man Adam and Christ as the heavenly man Adam, the two whose image we must bear. The two who in reality are One. As in heaven so on earth.

For verily He took not on Him the nature of angels; but he took on Him the seed of Abraham.

Heb.2:16

(The seed of the free woman, the actual human, the inward man and the spiritual seed which in Isaac was called-named. Isaac the one who offered himself to be sacrificed, but a ram took his place instead, prophetically pointing to Jesus).

Jesus' declaration: Before Abraham I am, declaring that before Abraham I stand right now...

Jesus, the Logos of God walks, right through the entire scriptures, after all, He is the Logos, what was written and what was spoken; and the man who follows Him, his name shall be written inside the book of life.

The righteous, Jesus who is without sin puts His life down to save the unrighteous. The very reason Jesus manifests in the likeness of the sinful flesh, because He takes on the carnal man's place. Jesus, the Firstborn among many brothers.

Jesus, the embodiment of the Logos must be conceived first, for Christ to be formed after.

Let us make man in our image and in our likeness... Let us make the human in our image and in our likeness by getting rid of the primate... undressing the old man with the primal killer instinct.

First, in the image of Jesus, the earthly Adam and after, in the image of Christ; the heavenly Adam; the double role of Christ Jesus and who is the exact image and likeness of God. Meaning, that He is the One and only God the creator of all things, seen and not seen.

We put on the image of Jesus, until Christ is formed in us, until we are transformed in the exact image of Christ, obtaining the mind of Christ.

We become co-planted with Him and bear His exact image, the exact image of the Son of God, and who is the exact image and likeness of God.

Image and likeness, denotes a mirror image, completely identical.

According to the written they who receive "conceive" the Logos to them it is given the authority to be called children "sons" of God.

We become adopted sons and in the exact image of God's own Son Jesus, we who accept Him, we are bought by an honourable price.

In other words, when we put on Jesus, we become saviours of our souls, through His instructions, the Logos becomes alive in us, the implanted and indwelling Logos which is able to save our soul.

He has pitched the Tabernacle of His flesh inside us. We eat His flesh and drink His blood. We accept His Laws and the teaching of His Spirit.

The Logos is embodied inside our heart and mind.

Jesus, the Living soul, and Christ the Life-giving Spirit.

Let us create man (the human) in our image and likeness, into a Living soul in the exact image of Jesus, and into a Living Spirit in the in the exact likeness of Christ.

In the exact image of God's own Son.

I and the Father are one...I am in the Father and the Father is in me...and who sees me, sees the Father...

And as we have borne the image of the earthly man, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly Man. 1Cor.15:49

Jesus portrays the earthly man Adam and Christ, the heavenly. Jesus works on the flesh and Christ works on the spirit of the mind.

Undress the old man and put on the new man, built according to Christ.

Jesus' decree:

Do you suppose that I came to give peace on earth? I tell you, not at all, but rather division.

Luke 12:51

Jesus the embodiment "the personification" of the Logos of God comes, after He is conceived as a seed, the seed of spiritual enlightenment to manifest and to divide the two opposing seeds inside the same body.

Jesus the light to the world, (I come to give sight to the blind) He comes to divide and to separate, by breaking down the middle wall of partition, that, which up to now has kept apart the two opposing seeds and now sets them up in conflict against one another.

The designated wrestle, the struggle between our flesh and the spirit of our mind.

I find then the law, the one who wills me to do good, that evil is present with me. Rom. 7:21

Romans 7:21, decree confirms the manifestation of the two opposing seeds.

Do not think that I came to bring peace on earth. I did not come to bring peace but a sword.

Mat.10:34

Up until now most people have been falsely made to believe by the vainly puffed up fleshy minded, and self-risen religious, who practice worship of angels and ignorantly have intruded into those things, which they had never understood, concerning the spiritual understanding of the divine Logos.

And furthermore, due to their lack of spiritual discernment of the Logos, they have persuaded and falsely made the majority to believe that Jesus came on earth as a natural man at some bygone era to separate the righteous of this world from the unrighteous; completely ignorant of the fact that God had subdued everyman, without exemption and branded everyman a sinner, sold to sin.

Meaning that there are no righteous and unrighteous in the natural world, since the righteous and the unrighteous, are within one man, referring to the two opposing seeds which are made manifest, after one accepts to receive the spiritual seed, the two-edged sword, the Logos from above.

The two, Jesus comes specifically to divide, and not to divide the world out there. The world who loves only its own.

Jesus' quest:

Father, I do not ask-pray for the world, but for those you have given to me, they who were yours from the very beginning.

The issue Jesus makes ever so clear, declaring that He does not come to save the masses, but those whom the Father had already given to Him.

Because it is the Father who invites the whole world to come out of the darkness "the dark cave", from the talons of the devil, (all the lies and deceptions) and to repent from their evil ways.

Revealing that the whole world is in evil as Jesus testifies, oppressed by devil through the flesh.

And while the crowds were thickly gathered together, He began to say:

This is an evil generation. It seeks a sign, and no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jonah the prophet. Luke 11:29

(Jonah, literally means dove, symbolically referring to the spirit of prophecy and the crucifixion of the flesh, for the testimony of Jesus is the Spirit of prophecy).

The kingdom of God does not come with observation... Luke 17:20

And,

It is God who has embedded the idea of eternity into our hearts.

A Michtam of David when he fled from Saul into the cave. Be merciful to me, O God, be merciful to me! For my soul trusts in You, and in the shadow of your wings I will make my refuge, until these calamities have passed by. Psalm 57:1

Saul and David as one man bearing the two opposing seeds. The one born of the flesh (Saul) persecuted the one born of the Spirit (David), the two which become one man revealed in the Hellenic text, as Saul renamed Paul.

It is essential for the reader to bear in mind that the entire scripture was always prophetic, therefore, all the things written were shadows of things to come, the reason the entire scripture was written in past tense. What God had already spoken and written were already predestined to be fulfilled, therefore, to God they had already happened.

The Logos which proceeded out of the mouth of God is established at the predestined time.

God is outside time and space, He is already in the future, He has already spoken. His word is now travelling and resonates in everyone's ears, head, mind and heart, strictly for those who have ears and want to hear.

History, since the dawn of man, clearly illustrates that the whole world was always controlled by the world rulers, the powers, and principalities of the air, who have waged war against all humanity by demonic methods, religious superstitions and deceptions. Illustrating that the wisdom from below is demonic, it is irrational, it is dysfunctional.

Powers and principalities of the air transforming themselves into aliens from other planets, the so-called ancient gods. Satan transforming himself into an angel of light, who from the beginning was a liar and a murderer.

And it was these demonic principalities of the air which have deceived mankind to believe that they were the gods of the heavens. While mankind was ignorant that the Godly heavens are outside time and space, outside mortality and corruption.

So, the great dragon was cast out, that serpent of old, called the Devil and Satan, who deceives the whole world; he was cast to the earth, and his angels were cast out with him. Rev.12:9 Therefore rejoice, O heavens, and you who dwell in them! Woe to the inhabitants of the earth and the sea! For the devil has come down to you, having great wrath, because he knows that he has a short time. Rev.12:12

Read all of chapter 12 in the book of Revelation, which exposes who the deceiver is, the designated god of this world, who has blinded them all, seeing they will not see and hearing they will not understand. The Lord God through Christ Jesus prophetically declared that all these phenomena will happen for man to be aware, but sadly the majority have ignored the warning.

The ecological system on our planet by itself alone proves the existence of the wise creator:

For since the creation of the world His invisible attributes are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even His eternal power and Godhead, so that they are without excuse, because, although they knew God, they did not glorify Him as God, nor were thankful, but became futile in their thoughts, and their foolish hearts were darkened.

Professing to be wise, they became fools, and changed the glory of the incorruptible God into an image made like corruptible man, and birds and four-footed animals and creeping things. Rom.1:20-23

Historical evidence substantiates the fact how chaotic, irrational and barbaric were the early inhabitants of our planet, our very own ancestors, the trade mark of the primate animal characteristic bearing the primal killer instinct. The biggest example with a bitter taste is the medieval hell raisers, heartless individuals, soulless religious despots driven by demonic powers were burning innocent people alive, and all for the love of their so-called god; and hatred for their fellow men?

Many years later and nothing new under the Sun. Today we have even a bigger and monstrous enemy, the nuclear and biochemical weapons threatening our very own existence, which they are in the hands of the so-called AI, artificial intelligence, at the mercy of soulless machines, run on electricity.

The other gods of this world:

The powerful ruling classes, the dynasty of the rich merchant bankers who control all the industrial cartels and consortiums, all the financial markets, the pharmaceutical companies and their secret laboratories. All the oil barons, and oligarchs, including all the religious despots, the mystic societies of this world (religion and state), have the means and the dysfunctional intentions to destroy all, including their own selves, always at the brink of a third world war. Dysfunctional minded men who are under the spirit of error by means of the demonic wisdom.

This wisdom does not descend from above, but is earthly, sensual, demonic. James 3:15

There are certain individuals out there who are willing and capable to annihilate all our entire species, and all the non-phonetic, non-talking species and for no particular reason, but only for their own dysfunctional, hateful ego-self, hiding behind religious and political dystopian ideologies, worship of angels, self-risen devil's angels.

There are people who are still under the strong delusion, deceived by the spirit of error totally ignorant of the fact that we all, are sold to sin, submerged, and subdued by our sinful nature, and without exemption of nationality.

God is not a respecter of persons and there is no nation favoured more by God, than any other.

Or is He the God of the Jews only? Is He not also the God of the Gentiles? Yes, καὶ τῶν ἔθνῶν=of the nations also, since there is one God who will justify the circumcised by faith and the uncircumcised through faith. Rom.3:29-30

Mutilation, circumcision of one's body parts is not done by faith, since nothing we offer commend us to God, but only the purification of our heart, designated the circumcision of the heart, which is spiritual and not physical.

Two world wars, millions from all nations have been slaughtered, and somehow one nation rose up as the favourite of God, who evidently were not protected by God.

The silly question, who won the second world war and who came second?

Evidence speaks loud and clear that the world's political, social and religious systems are entirely guilty of corruption and greed, full of injustice and inequality, by the deceitfulness of the temporary earthly riches. Ungodly irrational, denying the power of liberty, of brotherly love, the freedom of thought, and of speech, which are only achieved through knowledge and wisdom, peace and harmony.

They are trying to abolish Logocrisia, rational criticism for correction against all the wrongs of our society.

The biblical example of everyman's double mindedness, everyman's duality of characteristics:

Confirmed by Saul renamed Paul, who stands the example of the duality of the true disciple of Christ Jesus. Whose eyes have been opened to the reality of his own persona, and to the very purpose of his temporary existence but also of the world around him, through the divine unbiased objective, the spiritual instructions of the Logos of God:

I was alive once without the law, but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died.

And the commandment, which was to bring life, I found to bring death. Rom. 7:9

For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it killed me. Rom.7:11

Dead people do not speak...

For we know that the law is spiritual, but I am carnal, sold under sin. Rom.7:14

Paul, as the new man now speaks about Saul his old fleshy outward man of lawlessness, ignorant to the law of faith in Christ, which the majority haven't yet accepted that it is the ultimate Law and must be obeyed. The righteous shall live by faith in the Son of God and as the son of God for Jesus to be the Firstborn among His adopted brothers.

The two opposing characteristics: The one born after the flesh persecuted the one born after the Spirit. Saul, the persecutor of Jesus and His Ecclesia. Saul, as the enemy of the cross, whereas Paul preaches Christ and Him crucified.

Saul stands as the fleshy evil seed with the primal killer instinct, the old man; and Paul stands as the seed of the woman, the son of man, the good seed and the new man.

Saul as "the flesh" and the one with the mortal soul and Paul, now the living soul and the spiritual seed.

Adam on the sixth day became a living soul, characterizes the first resurrection.

A man walking the six-day spiritual creation to be created from a mortal soul into a Living soul, which is the first resurrection; and blessed is the man who does not taste second death, since the first death, is the death "crucifixion" of his flesh.

The man, the true disciple who has had his upper room fully furnished and fully prepared for the Passover.

Saul after his encounter with Jesus, after his personal spiritual experience on the road to Damascus, after he humbled himself, wore sackcloth, the literal meaning of Damascus, after he repented, He was renamed Paul. He was given a new name by Jesus; and was sent to the street called straight.

Saul and now Paul was guided onto the right path.

Saul, who previously sat at the feet of Gamaliel=reward of God, the teacher of the Law.

Saul, as the scribe and the Pharisee he is now converted into the true disciple of Christ, renamed Paul, the least, referring to the man who conceives the small mustard seed, the good earth.

Or do you not know, brothers for I speak to those who know the law, that the law has dominion over a man as long, as he lives? Rom.7:1

Romans chapter seven equates the fleshy man, “the flesh” as a married woman, married to the Law, the schoolmaster.

Married to Moses the Law of ordinances, therefore, she has to die to the Law “her previous husband” in order to marry another and pointing to Christ.

The above reveals that we must be married to the Law first, then be freed from the Law by the death of the flesh, before we become entitled to marry Christ.

When a man takes a wife and marries her, and it happens that she finds no favour in his eyes because he has found some uncleanness in her, and he writes her a certificate of divorce, puts it in her hand, and sends her out of his house, and if after she leaves his house, she becomes the wife of another man. Deut. 24:1-2

This is a great mystery, but I speak concerning Christ and the Ecclesia. Eph.5:32

The conversation between Jesus and the Samaritan woman married to five husbands and one which was not, referred to Christ, which was not yet her husband. The woman asked Jesus if He was the Christ she was waiting to come. Jesus replied, I am He.

Five husbands, referring to the Pentateuch the first five books of the Hebrew writings, the Law-Moses, who eventually passes the anointing onto Jesus-Joshua on the sixth book.

Jesus, the Law giver, the fulfillment and the end of the Law. And it is the Law-Moses who takes the man in Adam (Jacob-Israel the man of God) out of Egypt, signifying the corrupt and confused worldly system, full of idolatries and obsessions. It is Moses the Law who leads one into the wilderness of God to build one’s tabernacle according to the pattern God showed Moses on the Mount.

We must bear in mind that in the Lord there is neither male nor female.

The Samaritan woman was drawing water from the well of Jacob, as the true disciple learning the Law of ordinances first, (equated as five husbands) for to enter the Law of the Spirit after, the reason Jesus told her that He had living waters (the waters turn red) to give her instead, never to thirst again, according to the law of faith in Christ, the law of the Spirit of life.

The Samaritan woman stands as the true disciple of Jesus, living under the Law eagerly waiting for Christ to come, her future husband to be. The marriage of Christ to the Ecclesia.

She purposely asked Jesus if He was the Christ to come, and Jesus replied, yes, I am He.

Revealing that Jesus Christ is the embodiment of the Logos of God, as on earth also in Heaven, His double role in order to create the man bearing the image of Adam into God’s image and likeness.

God emptied Himself to take on the form of man, in the face and flesh of Jesus, the Living soul, and in the face of Christ, the Life-giving Spirit in heaven. Christ Jesus, the One portraying the two Adams.

Referring to the flesh, bound by the law of her husband:

Question: what is the law of a husband? Since man and woman are bound by promise to each other, for better for worse, an equal partnership, an equal union with equal rights.

This is a great mystery, but I speak concerning Christ and the Ecclesia. Eph.5:32

For the woman who has a husband is bound by the law to her husband as long, as he lives. But if the husband dies, she is released from the law of her husband. Rom.7:2

Therefore, my brothers, you also have become dead to the law through the body of Christ, that you may be married to another, to Him who was raised from the dead, that we should bear fruit to God. Rom.7:4

The so-called Evangelical and Pentecostal denominations by taking the above scripture literally, and wrongly interpreting it, they do not allow a person male or female to remarry, no matter what the circumstances may be, causing grief and hardship to thousands of vulnerable people, even ruining their lives.

They present God as a heartless tyrant.

The reason why, no one must take the conceptual embroidery of the Logos, literally, it is unethical and dangerous.

Militant religious despots vainly puffed up by their fleshy minds, they intrude into things which they have never understood.

However,

Unless we gather the (600) fragments of the barley bread first, the scattered fragments of the knowledge of the Law-Moses, will never grasp the hidden (350) fragments of the seven wheat loaves, the Spirit of the Logos, the hidden manna. The 600 and 350 fragments of spiritual age and maturity which in reality are received simultaneously, taught by God. All scripture is given by God inspirationally.

The three-dimensional spiritual knowledge and understanding, substantiated by the Testimony of Jesus, that which is hidden behind the figurative language, the designated unknown tongues.

Jesus testifies:

This is the third time I am coming to you. Jesus appeared to His disciples for the third time when Simon Peter who portrays "the listener of the Spirit" the true disciple being built upon the rock doctrine of Christ Jesus. Peter the one who drew the net and gathered 153 fish. Referring to the 51 generations, the spiritual knowledge from Noah to Jesus, three times. 3x51=153 on a three-dimensional scale.

While in a different form of story lining, Jesus goes to the wedding on the third day, Jesus' first sign. Jesus comes with the three-dimensional knowledge. The very sign at His birth, given three gifts.

Peter's mind began to elevate, he began to grasp the testimony of the resurrected Jesus, (now the Christ) concerning Moses, the written Law and of the Prophets, the oral Law.

Jesus was purposely standing on the Seashore, exactly 200 "measures" from the floating boat. The 200 measures refer to the two thirds of the ark, 300 cubits long, and relate to Moses and the Prophets, who also are the two measures of water (two thirds) and the two witnesses of Jesus, who is the third measure and the faithful witness.

Illustrating that only through Moses, the Prophets and Jesus' testimony, the three anointed witnesses, the Christ is formed, the entire knowledge of all scripture becomes established.

One must bear in mind that without the help from God no man will ever be able to grasp the hidden, the things not seen.

Saul, the outward man and Paul, the inward man continues to testify to both, the Jew and the Greek, who in reality are one man.

What then? Are we better than they? Not at all.

For we have previously charged προητιασάμεθα-declared-accused beforehand, both Jews and Greeks that they are all under sin. Rom.3:9

As it is written: There is none righteous, no, not one; There is none who understands, there is none who seeks God; They have all turned away; They have together become worthless; there is none who does good, no, not even one. Rom 3:9-12

The above confirms that there isn't one nation on Planet Earth (and never was) which is not under sin, under the death sentence no matter what their religious hierarchs tell them.

We all bear two seeds, good and evil, and we all are capable to do both good and evil.

Good and evil our inheritance from nature, the nature God created.

Jew and Greek are spiritual titles and have nothing to do with ethnicity.

Most of the epistles are directed to the Greeks. One epistle also to the Hebrews, but no epistle to the Jews, since the biblical Jew is not one outwardly, but one inwardly, the man of the circumcised heart, circumcised the lips and ears. The Jew is the Spiritual heart-soul of the Greek, and the Greek is the wisdom of the Jew.

First to the Jew and also to the Greek, as to the Jew also to the Greek, the Jew and the Greek as one and the same man. Inward and outward man, bound down by the two covenants.

Disturbing statements in the book of Revelation, 2:9 and 3:9.

I know your works, tribulation, and poverty but you are rich; and I know the blasphemy of those who say they are Jews and are not but are a synagogue of Satan.

Indeed, I will make those of the synagogue of Satan, who say they are Jews and are not, but lie. Indeed, I will make them come and worship before your feet, and to know that I have loved you.

The prophetic revealing decrees were directed to the Ecclesia of Smyrna=Myrrh and of Philadelphia=brotherly love. Sweet aroma unto the Lord is the brotherly love, pointing first to the twain and after to all mankind.

The two prophetic decrees were made by the First and the Last, who is none other than Jesus Christ, the personification of the Logos of God.

Also, the One who told the scribes and the Pharisees, the militant religious hierarchs, that their father was not Abraham but the devil. They, who falsely claimed then, that their father was Abraham.

The same claim still is being made today by the three secular and assumed monotheistic religions, while the two of the three do not even accept Jesus Christ to be the Logos of God or even the Messiah and who stand as enemies of the cross.

The actual cross where the two opposing seeds meet to confront each other and to be judged, where one must die by crucifixion. The righteous is sacrificed for the unrighteous in all repentance.

Whereas the other secular religion has imaginatively created the Lord of glory into a natural man, a man magnified, even though He claims that He is not from beneath earthly but from above heavenly, the Logos who is God Himself.

The mystery hidden in God since the foundation of the cosmos.

The only way to understand the divine literature, the Living and powerful Logos which proceeded out of the mouth of God is through spiritual discernment by the renewal of the mind and purification of the heart, for to be declared righteous by God and not by man, because self-righteousness is of the devil.

Jews from every nation under heaven?

And there were dwelling in Jerusalem Jews, devout men, from every nation under heaven. Acts 2:5

Acts 2:5 mentions only devout men but not devout women.

3000 (carnal men, the flesh) were slain by the Law, and the equivalent 3000 (devout, spiritual men) were saved by the Spirit. 3000 the flesh and 3000 the spirit.

Samson slain 3000 Philistines=immigrants the seed of the devil after He brought down the pillars of their temple.

3000 men saved, the Temple of God; and 3000 men perished, the temple of Satan.

3000 referring to Tabernacle in the wilderness which eventually at the mouth of the two and three witnesses, Moses, the Prophets and Jesus, equated as three Tabernacles, become the Temple of God. The Tabernacles measurements: 20x10x10=2000 the volume of the Holy Place and 10x10x10=1000 the volume of the Holiest. 2000+1000=3000 refers to the man who pitches the three Tabernacles mentioned by Simon-Peter on the High Mount.

And it is Jesus who sets up the three Tabernacles through the knowledge of Moses, of the Prophets and of Himself.

Paul shipwrecked three times and at the end of his journey, before he gave testimony to Caesar, first, he arrived at the three Taverns, referring to the three Tabernacles.

Simon-Peter the true disciple of Jesus and the teacher to the Jews and Paul, the true disciple of Jesus and the teacher to the Greeks.

Peter and Paul, the two disciples who speak about the three Tabernacles.

Biblical Jews and Greeks refer to all the true disciples of Jesus from every nation alike, who are bound by the two covenants, despite colour and ethnicity. This illustrates that the biblical Jew is the spiritual and inward man to be formed, the inward Jew with the circumcised heart, scourged and chastised by the Law, despite nationality.

All mankind, all "men of dust" are descendants of the natural evolution, and bear the same sinful nature, the same evil seed, the seed of the devil, which bears enmity towards his human counterpart, the designated seed of the woman, and the son of man.

By undressing our sinful nature, the evil seed, we become living souls, therefore, entitled to be dressed the divine nature, a spiritual body in the image, and likeness of God.

The very purpose of the symbolic six-day spiritual creation. Adam, the very example of the earthly man, became a Living soul and only on the sixth day, after God took him into the Paradise Garden and the third heaven, when God elevated his mind to spiritually enlightenment.

But the scripture has confined all under sin, that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe. Gal.3:22

Might be given only to those who believe in the Logos of God. God who is the Logos.

Gal.3:22 clearly confirms that we all are confined under sin, slaves of the same sinful nature, co-travelers to the grave and slaves to the very same destiny, while walking in the valley of the shadow of death, hunted by death which is indiscriminate.

Inasmuch then as the children have partaken of flesh and blood, He Himself likewise shared in the same, that through death He might destroy him who had the power of death, that is, the devil, and release those who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage.

Hebrews 2:14-15

It evident that not many, have understood the purpose for our temporary existence yet; and that we all are subjects to bondage, sold to sin, therefore, destined to die.

For this reason, the Lord gave us His book of instructions, how to obtain His divine nature, His eternity, in order to escape the inevitable Law of nature, saying, death, where is your sting?

This mortal shall be dressed in immortality...

People must stop believing that the Bible is a book written by mere men and accept that it is the book of divine instructions to show us the way out of corruption and mortality, offering us eternal life, promised by God through Christ Jesus that we shall become partakers of His divine nature.

It is the Logos of God which tells us to invest for the salvation of our souls, and not to listen to the self-risen religious despots, who only work for their own belly.

The reason why the divine Logos must be read and studied independent of any manmade religious ideologies, especially from Stone Age beliefs and traditions, what the hell raisers of the medieval times did, whose inhumane militant inquisitions and dysfunctional beliefs caused the death by burning, beheading, cruel persecutions and torture of millions of innocent people.

The militant religious who are afraid of their own shadow, filled with dysfunctional beliefs which still linger on to this very day in all religions, the militant evil skeleton in the closet.

History proves the carnal man's state and frame of the mind, the carnal mind of our predecessors, subdued by their primal and killer instinct inherited from the biological evolution, all mankind biblically defined as children of wrath.

The same carnal frame and state of mind which continued through the ages and still carries on today.

History is mainly the study of the world's criminalities, our history, has always been guilty of hatred, corruption and greed, stained with the innocent blood, even the future history which hasn't yet been written.

Historical events of atrocities should have been lessons for us today to turn the page from all the evil deeds and errors of the past, and not be repeated yet again and again.

The evil never sleeps, the irrational seed within each and every one of us influences the way we think, which is the whole aim of the divine instructions, how to get rid of the evil seed, the seed of the devil, which we all inherit from our animal nature. The primate with the primal killer instinct.

Even the recent pandemic has the fingerprints of corruption all over it, caused by the greedy and dysfunctional minded few, they who for centuries have been scheming how to create the dystopian society, which will give them satisfaction and joy to see their fellow humans suffering.

The writing is on the wall...

Those, whose dream is and was to own and to rule the whole world with absolute control, baptized as totalitarianism and globalization, vainly puffed up by their fleshy minds, totally ignoring the unforeseen consequences which would follow the entire human race including their own selves.

That, which the scripture expresses as the apostacy, the so-called apocalyptic rebellion and mayhem, which will cause the fall of Babylon the great harlot, the corrupt and confused system which has been ruling the world and for many centuries now.

Extremists seeking to form authoritarian states under strict, tyrannical inhumane laws, ready to use biochemical weapons to achieve their dysfunctional aim, playing god, who want to reduce the human population by such appalling means. Even to make sterile most humans.

However, the responsibility and recklessness for the increase of the human population lies upon the shoulders of the incompetent religious despots.

Do not touch, do not taste, do not handle, which all concern things which perish with the using, according to the commandments and doctrines of men? Col.2:21-22

History repeats itself today but in a different form:

The medieval hell raisers have come out of their closets once again. They are back but this time with biochemical weapons?

Today is the time that the statue of Nebuchadnezzar is being built, Nebuchadnezzar as the god of this world, because what were written earlier were shadow of things to come, and only for our admonition today.

The statue which was built in Dura which has various meanings, such as dwelling, and cycle.

Dura according to the Cambridge dictionary is the top of the three layers of membranes that cover the brain and the spinal cord. Which figuratively points to the head and mind of man.

The statue (head and mind of evil) will be crashed into dust and ashes, same as the golden calf, same as the idolatrous Babylon the great harlot, referring to the corrupt and confused ruling system of this carnal world, created by the carnal world.

Orbiting the Sun once a calendar year, while celebrating with alcoholic beverages the decline of one's natural life, measured in years, hunted by death, which is really, not much of a celebration.

Having said that, is to make people see the reality of our temporary existence and that there is a way to escape our death sentence, based upon Godly promises written inside the book of life, which up to now the majority hasn't taken it seriously.

If we understood that we are not alone, and we weren't randomly created and now lost inside the vast oceans of space, the belief of the majority, the concept which makes us the most pitiful creatures from all the rest. By considering the tyrannical way of life, the struggle for survival, until death do us part, conveys a totally pointless existence.

A quote from Thomas Paine.

Tyranny like hell is not easily conquered, yet we have this consolation with us, that the harder the conflict. the more glorious the triumph.

Referring to the suffering of the cross for to undress the old man, the wrestle against the powers and principalities of the air, the biblically designated world rulers. The battle for eternal life.

For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the “κοσμοκράτορας=world-rulers” of the darkness τού αἰῶνος τούτου of this eon, against spiritual wickedness in high places. Eph.6:12

Food for thought.

The whole world is ignorant to the reality, that we all, despite ethnicity and culture, we all are descendants of the natural evolution; and we are all fellow travelers to the grave and slaves of the same destiny, walking inside the same valley of the shadow of death, trudging upon the same dust particles from which we were created.

John 1:14

Clearly confirms that, Jesus is the embodiment of the Logos of God on earth, and manifests within the man who receives, “conceives” the Logos the seed of spiritual enlightenment as Adam (bearing the image of Adam) and who is portrayed by Jesus the Saviour, the living Logos of God, who is not of this world, but from above as He clearly testifies.

For He whom God has sent speaks the words of God, for God does not give the Spirit by measure. John 3:34 (God who is the Logos and the Spirit).

Jesus the Firstborn:

For there is born to you this day in the city of David a Saviour=Jesus who is Christ the Lord Luke 2:11 (Jesus, means Saviour)

Luke 2:11 clearly confirms that, the Saviour is Jesus, the one who is the Logos of God, the one who must be born, pitch the Tabernacle of His flesh inside us, confirmed by the decree ἐσκήνωσεν ἐν ἡμῖν.

The Logos of truth, until He is anointed, until He fulfills His mission, (for every word to become established, my Logos shall not return void) and becomes the Lord Christ.

The Lord said to my Lord, (Christ the Lord from above who is in the form of God), said to my Lord Jesus below...

Jesus is born until Christ is formed, denoting the metamorphosis within us, within the true disciple, from the earthly is transformed into the heavenly. Dressed in the brilliant white garments, referring to the Spiritual body, already prepared by Christ.

It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body. 1Cor.15:44

The reader must always bear in mind Christ Jesus' double role. As in heaven so on earth.

Jesus' mission is to create the man of the mortal soul into the man of the living soul; and Christ is to transform the Living soul into a Living Spirit as in the image and likeness of God.

Christ Jesus who is the form of God, of the one and only wise God. The kept secret hidden in God since the foundation of the cosmos.

The city of David, Bethlehem=House of bread, Ephphatha-Ephratah=to be opened:

The city of David first, refers to Bethlehem, the open House to receive the heavenly bread, which relates to the true disciple, the one who eats of the heavenly bread.

Jesus declares, I am the bread from above, and who eats my flesh and drinks my blood has life in him. He has My life in him.

The true disciple equated as the little (small among the thousands of Judah) city of Bethlehem, free, wide open to receive the heavenly bread, since previously he was the city of Jericho, demolished by the Laws of God, by the two spies sent by Joshua-Jesus.

Jesus who breaks down the middle wall of partition, equated as fortified walls, after Joshua-Jesus the Saviour, takes over the anointing from Moses, the law.

Jesus "the way" and the only one capable to guide the true disciple, the new man, into the promise Land.

Literal meanings of names as they have been mentioned are key factors concealing spiritual knowledge and understanding.

To bear the image that of Adam, we also bear the image that of Jesus, who portrays the First and earthly Adam. This means that we put on the exact image of the Son of God, (the reason Luke 3:38 designates Adam, as the son of God) who is the Living soul.

The one who will open the spiritual gate for us to enter and be transformed into the image and likeness of the Last and heavenly Adam, Christ, the Lord, the Life-giving Spirit.

The two Adams portrayed by Christ Jesus, onto whom God said: Let us "create" make man in our image and in our likeness.

Create him first, into a living soul and after into a living spirit, "denoting exact image and likeness", in the image of Jesus and in the likeness of Christ, the transformation from the natural to the spiritual, and from the temporary to the everlasting.

More confirmation of the two opposing seeds which dwell inside us:

Then Jesus said to His disciples: If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me. Matthew 16:24

The self-denial refers to one's fleshy self, the denial of the seed of the devil.

Paul, who stands the role model of the true disciple and mimicker of Jesus Christ, and as the man who has conceived the spiritual seed became aware of his duality of characteristics and now able to discern the two seeds inside him, the enmity between his fleshy man "Saul" and his human, inward man Paul, clearly testifies:

For I know that in me, that is, in my flesh, nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. Rom.7:18

Saul, as the man with the stone heart and the persecutor of Jesus, the persecutor of the truth.

The truth is, nothing good dwells in all our flesh, despite nationality and status. Our flesh which has nothing to do with our natural body, our body which will eventually become the Temple of God.

The biblical flesh, therefore, has nothing to do with our natural body, but with our invisible thoughts and vain desires, depicted as the lusts of the flesh, the conceptual thoughts when put into action become tangible.

The flesh is of the devil, egoistic and only seeks the materialistic and temporal things of the world, totally ignoring the value of his God given soul-life. Live and let die.

As Socrates described it, many centuries ago, the world of sight is everyman's prison house.

For those who do not accept the biblical truth.

Questions:

How do evil thoughts are born inside the heart of man, inside the heart of all of us, if we did not bear the evil seed within?

Why do the scriptures designate us as children of wrath?

The Logos which proceeded out of the mouth of God in the face of Jesus comes to cause division between the two opposite seeds depicted as separating the goat from the sheep. However, we need the guidance and spiritual food from the good shepherd to become like sheep (innocent as lamb)

And we know that we are of God, and the whole world lies in the power of the evil one. 1John 5:19 (The whole world, without exemption of nationality.)

However,

If to crucify our flesh was to nail our physical body on a wooden cross, it would have made us rather suicidal and therefore, dysfunctional minded, and God to be cruel and heartless.

The cross which hasn't yet been understood, are the two branches of the tree of knowledge of good and evil, and when crossed become engaged in conflict, warring against one another.

The two branches of spiritual knowledge are the cause for the death of the flesh, for the undressing of the old man.

As the free woman rejected the son of the slave woman.

The main reason why we have to bear the image of Adam and as Adam ourselves, we eat the fruit of the tree of spiritual enlightenment by the same disobedience of covetousness to come under the power of the Law and under grace.

Jesus' commandment was and still is the same today, if we do not bear "lift-up" our own cross and follow Him, and become co-planted with Him, not only in His sufferings, but also in His death, we will never become His true disciples, His legitimate "adopted" brothers.

For Jesus to be the Firstborn among many brothers, the sons of God whom the whole creation is eagerly waiting to be made manifest.

For whom He foreknew, He also predestined to be conformed to the image of His own Son, that He might be the firstborn among many brothers. Rom.8:29

Whom He foreknew, implies, and points to the man who bears and shall bear the image of Adam.

God knows one and only from Adam, and who is portrayed by Jesus, the earthly Adam.

The issue confirmed by the old saying, I do not know you from Adam... (read Luke 3:38).

That He might be the Firstborn among many brothers... suggests adoption, putting on the exact image of God's own Son=Συμμόρφους τῆς εἰκόνης τοῦ υἱοῦ αὐτοῦ=identical "mirror image" of God's own Son. Rom.8:29 (Hellenic text).

Confirming that no natural man, (referring to all the descendants of the natural evolution) was ever created in the image of Jesus Christ who is the image and likeness of God.

If we were already created in the exact image of God's own Son, there was no need for the crucifixion of our fleshy man with the primal instinct, who from nature bears the evil seed.

There would have been no need for all the biblical instructions, no need for the Law, no need for the Logos of God to be given to us, we would have been already living spirits.

The Logos which becomes flesh and anchors His Tabernacle inside our soul-heart-mind.

The religious excuse that man fell from grace is only a fallacy, scraping the barrel for excuses, due to their lack of spiritual discernment of the divine literature, are trying to cover up their evil deeds of the past.

All they, who are forever learning but never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.

The mystery of the Kingdom:

Now when He was asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God would come, He answered them and said:

The kingdom of God does not come with observation; nor will they say, see here! Or see there! For indeed, the kingdom of God is within you. Luke 17:20-21

The Kingdom of God "within you" is only directed to the true disciples they, who can observe and experience the divine nature by the teaching of the Holy Spirit, through the elevation and opening of the mind, understanding the spiritual knowledge of the divine Logos.

The designated indwelling Logos, pointing to the personification of Christ Jesus within the heart, after one is born above, awakened in the spirit of his mind, born of water and Spirit.

Most assuredly, I say to you, unless one is born above=γεννηθῆ ἄνωθεν, he cannot see the kingdom of God; and unless one is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God. John 3:3-5

The kingdom of God, which is built according to the testimony of Christ Jesus, through the prophetic word.

Keep the word of prophecy until I come... Christ Jesus, the Logos of prophecy.

The Logos who in the beginning was with God and God was the Logos.

The Logos which proceeds out of the Mouth of God is personified, becomes a person; and since it is prophetic is a continuous process.

As His divine power has given to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge τῆς ἐπιγνώσεως=of perfect knowledge of Him who called us by glory and virtue, by which have been given to us exceedingly great and precious promises, that through these you may be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust. 2Peter 1:3-4

The above proclamation makes it clear that the will of God for us, is to escape the corruption, which is in the world by His divine power given to us, all the things "all the instructions" that will pertain to life and Godliness, based upon God's promises through Christ Jesus.

And if we bear the image of the earthly, we will also bear the image of the heavenly, which is the fundamental theme of this manuscript, concerning our duality of natural characteristics, designated by Jesus, as our two masters.

Everyman's duality of characteristics:

ἔλυσε τὸ μεσότοιχον τοῦ φραγμοῦ=He has demolished and still demolishes the middle wall of partition to cause dichotomy, division between the two. Eph. 2:14

As was the man of dust, so also are those who are made of dust; and as is the heavenly Man, so also are those who are heavenly. 1Cor.15:48

1Cor.15:49 is an intricate and rather alien statement to the majority.

As it has been mentioned many times, the man of dust not only refers to Adam but also to the descendant of the natural evolution, the unique primate who eventually stood up on his own two feet and begun to utter words.

1Cor.15:49 also reveals that all scripture applies and only concerns the true disciple of Jesus Christ, the one man willing to bear the image of both Adams, of the earthly and of the heavenly, of the first and of the Last, of the Alpha Adam and of the Omega Adam.

Clearly illustrating that it is God in man (the Living Logos) who does all things, and unless man accepts "receives" the divine Logos, nothing will ever happen, man will carry-on wandering and wonder.

It written that God only dwells in the humble man's heart...

Only the man who truly seeks God will bear the image of Adam, he becomes as the Adam of Genesis himself, otherwise God will never know him. Adam, the one who eats of the tree of knowledge and of wisdom.

But why do you call Me, Lord, Lord, and do not do the things which I say? Luke 6:46

When once the Master of the house has risen up and shut the door, and you begin to stand outside and knock at the door, saying, Lord, Lord, open for us, and He will answer and say to you, I do not know you, where you are from... Luke 13:25

Therefore, whoever hears these sayings of Mine, and does them, I will liken him to a wise man who built his house on the rock: Mat.7:24

Adam, the only man whom God takes "snatches", elevates his mind onto the third heaven and Paradise Garden, and whom God teaches good and evil, tempted by the seductive fruit of the tree of knowledge, by seeking spiritual enlightenment. Adam, the preordained conceptual role model who has been called to come out of the world to be taught by God. Adam (Luke 3:38) portrayed by Jesus the personification of the Son of God, the Logos of God, God who is the Logos.

Behold! The man (Adam) has become like one of us knowing good and evil, he is able to discern good and evil.

Implying that only the man who has borne the image of Adam is the one who recognizes his duality of characteristics, portrayed by Cain and Abel. Cain as the evil seed of Adam and Abel as the good seed of Adam.

Cain and Abel the personification of good and evil within Adam, the two conceptual characters.

The two seeds "fruit" Adam ate of the tree of spiritual enlightenment. Behold! The man Adam now knows good and evil.

Who at the moment he is like one of us, but he will eventually become like the two of us, to bear our image and our likeness. First, as the earthly and after as the heavenly.

There is a natural body and there is a spiritual body. First, the natural and after the spiritual.

The man bearing the image of Adam is the one who obeys the high calling and leaves behind him all the vanities of this world, while walking in the valley of the shadow of death, trusting in God's promises (the Logos of truth) that he will overcome all evil, overcome the sting of death.

The man designated as the Ecclesia, the called out of the world, the obedient and humble man, who values his God given soul, God given Life-Psyche.

Blessed are the poor in Spirit (the humble) for they shall inherit the Kingdom of God.

The case of Cain, one of the biggest mysteries of the scriptures:

Cain, after he was evicted from the Paradise Garden and the third heaven, he ended up in the land of Nod=wandering, the land where he found a wife. The Hellenic text establishes that the Paradise Garden and the third heaven are (is) one and the same place, a spiritual platform, a conceptual setting and not a utopian garden here on planet earth, since every forest and jungle on our planet are full of many dangers, full of carnivorous animals, since the time of the Dinosaurs and beyond.

Now the intricacy, how did Cain arrive on earth in order to find a natural earthly woman?

Did he land on earth in a spacecraft? There is no evidence, no spaceship has ever been found, unless he was flown here and was abandoned.

However, in order for Cain to find an earthly woman, planet earth must've had many inhabitants, also, he must have been able to speak the woman's language.

The written does not mention what colour and tribe was the woman or even her age?

Things do not add up. They who are trying to interpret the Logos without spiritual discernment, they have more chance to find a needle in a haystack.

The moral of Cain's intricate story is that we cannot take the literal embroidery the conceptual and twist it into a physical occurrence, due to the lack of spiritual discernment of the divine Logos.

There are several flaws, red herrings within the literal mainly due to the wrong translations and incorrect interpretations.

Adam, just as Eve, Cain and Abel and the majority of the biblical characters were conceptual (spiritual) and not real people. Just as conceptual as the flood in Noah's biography, proven by the Australian continent and Australian Aboriginals, whose origins go back over sixty thousand years.

The Australian Aboriginals who weren't drowned neither were the Australian animal species (all flesh perished) such as the Kangaroos, Koalas and wallaby's and all others by the conceptual flood.

Ignorant of the fact that Spiritual things only spiritually are discerned. No man can interpret the hidden of the biblical figurative language without the help of God, thus, rightly to interpret and to fulfill the Logos of prophecy that, they shall all be taught of God.

It is God through Christ Jesus that rightly interprets the spiritual implication of the Logos of truth, the concept depicted as breaking the bread.

All scripture, all spiritual knowledge and understanding of the Logos is given inspirationally by God.

The spiritual knowledge, the discernment of the hidden manna which has never been given to the self-risen religious despots, who vainly puffed up by their fleshy minds intruded into the things which they'd never understood and twisted the conceptual of the Logos into physical realities. They are described as clouds without water, they are forever learning but never able to come to the knowledge of truth.

The message to the Ecclesia to come.

Now, a mediator does not mediate for one only, but God is one. Gal.3:20

One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all. Eph.4:6

Since there is one God who will justify the circumcision by faith and the uncircumcision through faith. Rom.3:30

Or is He the God of the Jews only?

Is He not also the God of the nations? Yes, of the nations also. Rom.3:29

Romans 3:29 is a specific Godly message to the fundamentals of Judaism, they who live according to the Babylonian Talmud, which is based upon rabbinical opinions and not upon the Logos of God.

They, who have never understood why the Lord God did not allow Moses, His chosen servant to enter the Promised Land, together with the old generation.

Romans 3:29 also confirms who actually is the biblical Jew, the man whose faith is in Christ, the inward man of the circumcised heart.

Confirmation that God is One and not a threesome.

Testified by Jesus, I and the Father are One, (One entity, One Spirit) and he who has seen me, has seen the Father, establishes that Jesus Christ is God Himself who purposely lowers Himself and takes on the form of man, as equal to man; and who testifies that He is from above and not of this world.

It becomes obvious that the religious haven't yet understood the solidarity, the uniqueness and harmony of God.

The issue God Himself in the face of Jesus who walks right through the entire scriptures, confirms in the book Isaiah 45:5-7.

I am the Lord, and there is no other; there is no "other" God besides Me.

That they may know from the rising of the sun to its setting that there is none besides Me.

I am the Lord, and there is no other; I form the light and create darkness, I make peace and create evil; I, the Lord, do all these things.

God does not mention Christ Jesus my son, who sits beside me, as another entity or even mentions the devil, but clearly declares that He is the only One who does all things. God, who is the Logos, and also the Author of salvation in the face of Jesus Christ and who is God's signature, and His royal seal.

Therefore, it is God the Father (the creator) who emptied "lowered" Himself in the face of Jesus Christ to communicate with man, as a man.

The Logos which proceeded out of the mouth of God even though is Spirit, takes the form of man, is personified in the face of Jesus Christ. Jesus as the Saviour who works on the flesh (sinful flesh) and Christ who works with the Spirit of man's mind. Crucify your flesh and be renewed in the spirit of your mind.

He also testifies that He is Spirit and only in spirit and in truth is approached and esteemed.

What hasn't been understood yet, is that it is Christ Jesus who speaks prophetically in Isaiah 45:5-7 Christ Jesus, the Logos that proceeded out of the mouth of God.

Jesus Christ the Logos of God is personified, becomes a person within a person.

Confirmation of the written, how the Logos in the face and flesh of Jesus enters the heart of man:

Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in him (inside his heart) and dine with him, and he with Me. Rev.3:20

The Logos is conceived through hearing and once is conceived, Jesus is born inside his heart; therefore, the birth of Jesus is an "unnatural" birth.

The tiller of the land is God the Father, that is the tiller of the heart of man Jesus, He is also the Sower the Sower of the good "spiritual" seed, which is Jesus Christ, the embodiment of the Logos of God. The spiritual seed which eventually becomes bread, becomes spiritual food.

The teaching of God the Father it is the "preparation by the high calling" that drives one to Jesus, reveals who Jesus truly is.

Jesus, the bread from heaven, the spiritual food, inspirationally given and inspirationally received from above.

My Father has been working until now, and I am working... a continuous process...

The Father works for six days and rests on the seventh day, then Jesus, our Passover takes over the seventh day, the day of adoption; and Christ the one who is to come, takes over the eighth day, the resurrection day.

The day of Metamorphosis, from the natural to the spiritual, from mortality to immortality.

The bread from heaven must be broken, referring to the fragmentation of the heavenly knowledge, the revelation and understanding of the Law according to the Spirit.

Spiritual things only spiritually are discerned.

Wherefore, only through the spiritual discernment of the divine literature, we begin to understand that Christ Jesus is the personification of the Logos, the Logos that proceeded out of the mouth of God which takes on the form of man within man, a continuous process. Jesus manifesting in the likeness of the sinful flesh. He puts on the exact image of the earthly man, the descendant of the natural evolution in the face of Adam. Whom God takes, snatches and elevates his mind onto the third heaven and Paradies Garden where the two trees are for teaching.

Jesus, the Saviour, Emmanuel God with us, God in us.

As God has said: I will dwell in them and walk with them. I will be their God, and they shall be My people. 2Cor.6:16 (Orig. Hellenic text)

God who is the Logos in the “image” and flesh of Jesus also, in the image “likeness” of Christ.

2Cor.6:16 refers to all those who bear and who shall bear the image of Adam and who is the image and likeness of Jesus Christ.

Christ Jesus the sword of the mouth of God (Rev.2:16). The Logos of God sharper than a two-edged sword. I come not to bring peace but to put a sword and cause division.

The Logos as the spiritual seed figuratively takes the form of a man in the face and flesh of Jesus, even though He is Spirit and invisible, testifies that He is from above and we are from below, He is not of this world as we are from this world.

The same with the evil seed, the seed of Satan depicted as a serpent “canny” and as the flesh, is also the personification of the knowledge of evil.

The spiritual world and spiritual knowledge are the things not seen, and it is through discernment, knowledge and understanding they become visible.

I have heard of You by the hearing of the ear, but now my eye sees You. Job 42:5

One sees God with the eyes of his mind. God is Spirit and only in Spirit and in truth one sees God.

My Logos=words, they are Spirit, and they are Life.

The Logos sharper than a two-edged sword, divides the soul from the spirit of the mind.

The Logos is Spirit, the Logos of truth the Logos of eternal life.

He was clothed with a robe dipped in blood, and His name is called The Word-Logos of God.

Rev.19:12-13

The written confirms that Christ Jesus’ name is the Logos of God. He is the personification of the Logos of God which becomes flesh and anchors the Tabernacle of His flesh inside the heart of the man bearing the image of Adam. The man who truly seeks God and spiritual enlightenment. The man who seeks to find out the very purpose for his temporary existence, while walking in the valley of the shadow of death, corruption and mortality.

Outward and inward man:

Both opposing seeds, good and evil are personified, the evil, as the outward man; and the good as the inward man, the two seeds-genes which “all men and women” inherit from nature, the two seeds-genes that bear enmity between them. The seed of Satan and the seed of the woman, the male child, the son of man.

Jesus as the male child at twelve years old preaches inside the Temple of God, the Temple which is man. Jesus, the spiritual seed grows inside the heart of man, until Christ is formed. Fulfilling the written, and they shall all be taught by God, and that Christ is your teacher.

The enmity between the two manifests and only when the middle wall of partition is demolished by Jesus; and brings the two into conflict.

The one born after the flesh persecutes the one born after the Spirit. The son of man seeks the things of the spirit of God, whereas the seed of devil (the natural man of the animal nature and primal instinct) rejects the things of the spirit of God and considers them to be utter foolishness.

The animal nature ruled by the devil, the liar and the murderer who knows God, since he is God’s servant.

Away with you, Satan! For it is written: You shall worship the Lord your God, and Him only you shall serve. Mat.4:10

It is good for me that I have been afflicted, That I may learn Your statutes. Psalm 119:71

Curds and honey He shall eat, that He may know to refuse the evil and choose the good.

Isaiah 7:15 (The milk and honey of the Logos of God).

Jericho the carnal man, the seed of the devil:

The case scenario of Jericho, equated as a fortified city and as Rahab the harlot, referring to the carnal man with the primal instinct, who stands against the teachings of Christ. He cannot allow his counterpart to enter the Land who is under the Law contained in ordinances and not under the Law of the faith in Christ. Therefore, Jesus in the face of Joshua takes over, Jesus the fulfillment and the end of the Law, sends His two witnesses Moses and the Prophets equated as the two spies.

It is written that God searches and exposes the intents of man's heart, which is filled with all evil thoughts, from fornication, adultery unto murder.

Jesus comes to put a sword and to kindle a fire, the carnal man must be reduced into dust and ashes, and to liberate the son of man.

As Moses lifted the serpent in the wilderness so must the son of man be lifted up.

Jesus in the face of Joshua takes over the anointing of the Law and sends Moses and the Prophets, presented as two spies, who are also the two measures and the two witnesses of Jesus, while Jesus is the third measure, the third and faithful witness.

Thus, to fulfill the written that, at the mouth of two and three witnesses every word, the Logos becomes established. No man can enter the Land unless the Logos is established within himself and at the mouth of two and three witnesses.

Moses, the Prophets and Jesus, for Christ to be formed. For the spiritual transformation to be established, to crossover (Passover) from mortality onto eternal life .

The only way to empty ourselves from all wickedness is by demolishing the fortified walls of our carnal man. Humble ourselves into dust and ashes.

Therefore, lay aside all filthiness and overflow of wickedness, and receive with meekness the implanted Logos, which is able to save your souls. James 1:21

Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ: Eph.4:13

When the Logos becomes established and we measure up to the stature of the fulness of Christ, the gates of the Promised Land become wide open. The Christ is formed within us, we become the image and likeness of God's own Son.

The Logos, the excellency of the knowledge of Christ, for whom I have considered all things as rubbish to gain Christ.

At the mouth of Moses, the written Law, at the mouth of the Prophets, the oral Law, and at the mouth of Jesus (the testimony) Christ is formed.

Moses, the written Law contained in ordinances was not allowed to lead the younger generation into the Land. Jesus prophetically in the face of Joshua takes over. Declaring that no man comes to the Father, but only through me. Jesus the Law giver filled with the anointing, sends Moses and the Prophets (as two spies) His two witnesses to test, to scourge and to chastise the carnal man designated as Rahab the harlot, as the one who fornicates with the world, living according to the rudiments of the world.

In the book of Joshua, Jesus demonstrates how the Lord God teaches and works on a single man from above inspirationally and that single man is Israel but not of nationality, but the man who rests His head on the rock doctrine of Christ Jesus. The man Jacob as the example, the man who was of no nationality, the man given a new name, the man and seeker of God's Kingdom and righteousness. Jacob's counterpart, Jacob's old man was Esau, (equated as his twin brother) and it was Esau's birthrights Jacob had stolen.

And it is Jesus, who is the fulfillment and the end of the Law, the one who portrays Joshua, and who takes over the anointing from Moses; and who is the personification of the written Law contained in ordinances.

For what the law could not do in that it was weak through the flesh, God did by sending His own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, on account of sin: He condemned sin in the flesh, that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us who do not walk according to the flesh but according to the Spirit.

For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit, the things of the Spirit.

For to be carnally minded is death, but to be spiritually minded is life and peace. Rom.8:3-6

Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law but by faith in Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Christ Jesus, that we might be justified by faith in Christ and not by the works of the law; for by the works of the law no flesh shall be justified. Gal.2:16

Jesus in the face of Joshua takes the anointing from Moses and sends Moses together with Elijah-the prophets as the two spies to enter Jericho, who were kept hidden in the upper room=head and mind of Rahab the harlot, who was spared and as a sign "as a mark" she was given a red cord and told to wait by the walls. Jericho as the city, and as the sinful world Rahab lived in, which keeps and prevents the spiritual seed to enter the Land, therefore, it must be destroyed.

The two Laws, the written and the oral are used by Jesus to take over and to destroy Jericho the carnal world into dust and ashes.

Jericho the carnal world was hounded for six days and on the seventh day fell, the evil was completely demolished, and Rahab washed and cleansed by the two witnesses and the two measures of water (Moses and the Prophets) she was spared. She was given a red cord, as a sign pointing to the blood of the New Covenant and to the "grace of God". Prophetically indicating the renewal of the mind and the purification of the heart.

Shadow of things to come. Whatever things were written earlier, were written for our admonition today. All scripture is given inspirationally by God... God who is the Logos.

Jericho in reality represents the flesh, designated as a harlot and fornicator with the carnal world, equated as a city, was cursed by Joshua never to be rebuilt.

But we see Jesus in the New Testament purposely telling the parable of a certain man descending to Jericho, the city that was already destroyed, burnt into dust and ashes, which was a prophetic declaration, shadow of things to come. Bearing in mind that, whatever things were written earlier were written for our admonition today.

Jesus was obviously referring to Himself as the kind Samaritan, while the certain man attacked by thieves, was the true disciple of Jesus, who was not killed, but only left half dead.

Whereas the Old Testament referred to Moses and the Prophets, as the two spies, sent by Joshua portrayed by Jesus. The New Testament presents them as thieves, (as two thieves). Jesus telling the parable and points to Himself as the "kind" Samaritan who anoints the half dead man with oil and wine and raises him up. The Samaritan gives him hope of life, He even gives him two denarius, yet again pointing to Moses and the Prophets, He even pays the innkeeper to take care of him, pointing to Christ. We observe Christ Jesus working from above with the mind of the true disciple, anointing him with oil and wine, anointing him with the Holy Spirit, the Spirit of wisdom and revelation, the Spirit of gladness and of joy that anointed the spirit of his mind.

The certain man in reality was descending into hades where he was attacked by the thieves to crucify his flesh into dust and ashes.

The Samaritan took the man to the inn, referring to the tabernacle of the flesh of Jesus bringing healing to his soul.

To become co-planted with Jesus in his suffering and his death. As we share in His sufferings we also share in His comforts "When the Comforter comes" ...

Co-planted with Him, because He is the implanted Logos, which is capable to save one from the bondage of death, to save one's soul, one's humanity

Jesus, as the son of man is crucified among two thieves, taking "in his flesh" all the accusations of the laws condemning sin in the flesh. The thieves beat the man up and stripped him of his clothes, referring to the undressing of his old man, left him half dead.

The thieves that attacked the man were none other than Moses and the Prophets, the written Law and the oral Law that lifted up the evil seed and crucified "the flesh of the old serpent, of the old nature" in order to save his soul (half dead).

Moses and the Prophets the two who also portray the two witnesses of Jesus and the two measures of water, while Jesus is the third witness, the third measure, the fulfillment and the end of the Law into righteousness by faith. The Law as the schoolmaster to drive us onto the faith in Christ.

Jesus the one who gives the Spirit without measure. The one who baptizes with spirit and fire.

Wherefore, Jesus was telling the parable in order to illustrate that one's plesion (nearest) is neither the priest nor the levy, but Jesus Christ Himself, the only One who can save us from all evil and death.

Illustration of the conceptuality of the literal embroidery.

Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross; and having spoiled stripped-naked the powers and principalities, he made a shew example of them openly, triumphing over them in it.

Col.2:14-15 (Orig. Hellenic text)

Two seeds bearing diverse opinions, "double mindedness", as two opposing forces, and as two masters inside the same body.

Two men, outward and inward man inside the same body:

Two men will be in the field: the one will be taken and the other left.

The two men in the same battlefield, inside the same body.

And they answered and said to Him, where Lord? So, He said to them: Wherever the body is, there the eagles will be gathered together. Luke 17:36-37

The two seeds also equated as tares' and as wheat they become separated only at the time of harvest, when full of age and spiritual maturity.

But when the grain had sprouted and produced a crop, then the tares also appeared.

By receiving-accepting-conceiving the spiritual seed, the Logos is implanted, therefore, one gathers spiritual enlightenment, gathers the heavenly bread, only then, the evil begins to manifest, the devil attacks.

Apparently, the devil will not try to sift any disciple who is totally ignorant to the spiritual knowledge of the Logos. One must understand what one is reading.

The Lord's commandment:

Let both grow together until the harvest, and at the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, First gather together the tares and bind them in bundles to burn them but gather the wheat into my barn. Mat.13:26-30 (Burn the wheat of the Philistines, the seed of the devil)

Denoting that both good and evil walk next to one another.

Evidently, it is after the teaching of Jesus, after spiritual enlightenment the devil follows.

Jesus commanded the devil and Satan to go behind Him, that is to follow Him. Satan is used as the sifter of the true disciple; he plays with man's conscience, and he uses the Law, the accuser.

Every man's experience ought to be a lesson for others, the bad and the good things one does, but because of the corrupt system created by the very few, the good and the bad deeds remain rather conceptual and not as the reality of our natural behaviours, our carnal state and frame of mind.

God is God of knowledge and of wisdom and the aim of His divine Logos, is to give us spiritual enlightenment which will give birth to wisdom "Awakened to righteousness" become aware of the existence of God. Beginning of knowledge and wisdom is the fear of God.

For it is God who commanded light to shine out of darkness, who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. 2Cor.4:6

We were aliens and strangers to God:

According to the written, we, the mortal world, men of dust, in the beginning we are aliens towards God. Therefore, the grace made possible by Jesus, if we call upon the name of the Lord, and want to follow God's instructions. God through Christ Jesus pays the ransom to redeem us from him who has the power of death, that is the devil.

For you were bought at a price=τιμῆς=honour ἡγοράσθητε, therefore, glorify God in your body and in your spirit, which are God's. 1Cor.6:20

You were bought at a price=τιμῆς=honour; do not become slaves of men. 1Cor.7:23

Christ Jesus who in the form of God emptied "lowered" Himself in order to serve us and to save us.

The two opposing seeds live along side of one another and inside the same body; the man of lawlessness and the man who delights in the Laws of God.

So, the servants of the owner came and said to him: Sir, did you not sow, good seed in your field? How then does it have tares?

He said to them, an enemy has done this. The servants said to him, do you want us then to go and gather them up?

But he said: No, lest while you gather up the tares you also uproot the wheat with them.

Let both grow together until the harvest, and at the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, First gather together the tares and bind them in bundles to burn them but gather the wheat into my barn. Read Matthew.13:1-30

Therefore, God through Christ Jesus buys us with honour from the devil, from him who has the power of death for to create us first, from mortal souls into living souls, in order to be entitled not only to obtain the certificate of adoption “being renewed in the spirit of our mind”, as legitimate sons of God, but also entitled to obtain the spiritual body promised and prepared by Christ Jesus in His Father’s mansions.

Become adopted by God for Jesus to be the Firstborn among many brothers, the way, the truth, and the life...

There are many mansions in My Father’s House, I go and prepare a place for you.

Since the very beginning the Logos manifests the two seeds of good and evil:

And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your seed and her seed; he shall bruise your head, and you shall bruise His heel. Gen.3:15

The two seeds inside the same body, inside one man.

God begins with two trees, the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, and finishes with one tree, denoting the death of the flesh, the undressing of the old man who bears the evil seed, which gives freedom to the seed of the woman, gives freedom to the human, because only the human can receive the good seed, which is Christ Jesus.

The evil and abominable branch is cut off and thrown into the fire, and only the good, the beautiful branch remains which is the tree of life. The family tree of God, of God’s adopted sons and daughters. And each and every adopted son is designated as Jesus’ brother, sister and mother.

Fulfilling the written that in God there is neither male nor female but all one in Christ.

Mother of Jesus refers to the heart of the man who conceives the spiritual seed, the Logos which proceeded out of the mouth of God, designated as the implanted Logos that becomes flesh. The Logos becomes personified in the face name and flesh of Jesus and who pitches the Tabernacle of His flesh inside his heart.

Jesus the Logos who knocks on the door of man’s heart; and the man who opens the door of his heart to Him, Jesus enters into his heart in order to break the heavenly bread, the hidden manna which He shares with him. The only way man receives spiritual enlightenment, God inspired.

It is God who commanded the light, the light of the Gospel of Christ to shine into our hearts, the good news of salvation, the victory over death.

It is God the Father “the existent One” who has no beginning or ending who emptied “lowered” Himself to take on the form of man in the image of Jesus and in the likeness of Christ.

Jesus in the face of Joshua takes the anointing from Moses, for Jesus to reveal not only that He is the Law giver, but also that He is the end of the Law.

Moses is cut off; he is not allowed to enter the Promised Land together with the old generation.

They, who lived according to the Law of ordinances, the works of the flesh, self-justification; and not by the works of the faith in Christ Jesus in the spirit who leads the new generation into the Land, which is only a symbolic parallel to the kingdom of the heavens, which is not of this Earth.

The natural land of Palestine renamed Israel has always been a war zone, raining arrows and rockets and not flowing milk or honey, proving beyond doubt that the earthly land is only figurative and not holy whatsoever.

Is Jerusalem the place of peace? When did the city of Jerusalem see or enjoyed peace?

Jesus the Saviour, the name which is above every other name given from heaven; Jesus, the embodiment of the Logos that proceeded out of the mouth of God, God who is the Logos.

Jesus Christ, whose name is called The Logos-Word of God.

No man comes to me unless he is drawn by my Father, and no man comes to the Father, but only through me.

I and the Father are one, I am in the Father and the Father is in me, and who sees me sees the Father. The Logos of God in the face of Jesus manifests and walks right through the Hebrew writings.

The Word-the Logos of the Lord came to Ezekiel...Ezek.1:3

The Word-the Logos of God came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying...1Kings 12:22

Shemaiah translates as “the man who hears the voice, the Logos of God”

Judaism ignorantly and stubbornly continues to reject the Messiah in the face of Jesus Christ, as also the Hellenic writings.

Judaism rejects the Logos who in the beginning was with God; and God was and still is the Logos today, the Logos which manifests in the face and flesh of Jesus, the Christ to come.

Certain partial and rather scandalizing aspects of Judaism, based upon rabbinical opinions:

Let no Greek wisdom tempt you, for it bears flowers only and not fruit.

Furthermore, the Hellenistic outlook leads to a ratification of the spiritual as pertaining only to the soul (or mind) and not to the body.

It divorces God from the world of the here and now.

Evidently, the Greek writings do not divorce God from the here and now but on the contrary, they unite not only the two testaments into one, but also the two opposing seeds.

Jesus the Messiah brings the past and the future to the present, to the here and now.

Today if you will hear His voice...

Jesus, the One who is, the One who was, and Christ the one who is to come.

The Logos who in the beginning was with God, and God was the Logos. God who is the Logos right now and in the face of Christ Jesus, the embodiment of the Logos which proceeded out of the mouth of God.

Jesus testifies that He is the Logos of God:

Jesus said to them: If God were your Father, you would love Me, for I proceeded forth and came from God; nor have I come of Myself, but He sent Me. John 8:42

This is the intricacy of the Logos of God, the mystery hidden in God, who right through the entire scriptures He uses a figurative language to simplify concepts. And the biggest concept, is that the Logos becomes a person, becomes a man and in the face of Christ Jesus.

Please note: Jesus does not say He was born from God but that He proceeded forth and came from God, the Logos who is God. Jesus the Christ names God to be His Father, just as we the believers do.

Jesus' birth, just as our birth, is unnatural, not physical it is spiritual.

Every follower, every disciple taught by Christ Jesus becomes a legitimate son of God.

For whatever is born of God overcomes the world. and this is the victory that has overcome the world, our faith. 1John 5:4

Having been regenerated, not by corruptible seed but incorruptible, through the Logos of God which lives and abides forever...1Peter 1:23

In Him was life, and the life was the light of men. And the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. John 1:4-5

And Jesus was the true Light which gives light to every man coming into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made through Him, and the world did not know Him. John.1:9-10

And the world still does not know Him...

All they who received Him, to them He gave the authority to become children of God, to those who believe in His name: John 1:12

They, who believed, received and planted the Logos (the spiritual seed) inside their heart are born of God. Born above, born of water, born of the Spirit. Because only they, can see and are allowed to enter the Kingdom.

For man to need adoption by God, reveals that the natural man, we all, natural men are strangers and aliens “Nothos” nothoi=not pure towards God. Even our blood types varied and divided into different groups.

Only through spiritual discernment of the Logos, we come to understand that it is God the one who lowers “empties” Himself (God who is One) and takes on the form of man in the face of Jesus Christ and who brings the message of the good news of salvation to us according to the will and works of God. Jesus, the Saviour of man’s soul and Christ the life-giving Spirit.

Christ Jesus’ dual role:

Jesus stands as the Living soul and Christ as the Living Spirit. The two to whom God said: Let us make man (the man of the natural evolution) into our image and our likeness, in other words, God said, let us make create man into a god, the definition of the term image and likeness, mirror image, exact likeness. God is and was the Logos, also the Author of salvation. By the Logos of God all things were created, through Christ Jesus, the Royal Seal of God. The name, which is above every other name, in heaven, on earth and beneath the earth.

Wherefore, since Christ Jesus is the supreme name everywhere, reveals that He is the One and only true God and creator, testifying that whoever sees me, sees the Father.

All things were made through Him, and without Him nothing was made that was made. John 1:3 Evidently the Gospel of Christ begins from the book of Genesis and does not divorce God from the here and now but on the contrary unites God with man through Jesus Christ the embodiment of the Logos of God, designated as the implanted Logos, and who is the only mediator between God and man.

No one can come to Me unless the Father who sent Me draws him; and I will raise him up at the last day. John 6:44

I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through Me. John 14:6

Apparently, the Hellenic writings are as “the Rosetta stone” to the Hebrew writings, as it were to the Egyptian, which clearly confirm that the Holy Spirit, is the gift of love from God, for those who truly seek Him and His heavenly Kingdom. Since without God our temporary existence serves no purpose, because everything that lives and is subdued by mortality and corruption has an ending.

It is also written that no religion can commend any man to God, because God is personal to each and every man who seeks Him and who is free from religious beliefs, based upon manmade ordinances.

God works with the spirit of our mind, our intellect, the Psyche inside our body, the house of our soul-heart-mind, and by receiving the divine Logos becomes the House of God, not only for the here and now but also forever.

The Spirit, soul heart and mind will eventually, when of age and spiritual maturity, grow to the same measure and stature of Christ Jesus, who is the image and likeness of God. The God who is One.

Every man is an individual entity in the eyes of God. Eight billion individuals on this planet and not two of us are alike, not even our fingerprints.

It is written in the Law, that God does not dwell in manmade buildings, but inside the humble man’s heart. God in the face of Jesus is the same yesterday, today and forever.

As God has said: I will dwell inside them Ἐνοικήσω=dwell ἐν αὐτοῖς and walk among them. I will be their God, and they shall be My people. 2Cor. 6:16

Then, how does Judaism, based upon Judaic myths and rabbinical opinions referring to the Babylonian Talmud, concluded that the Hellenic writings, written by the One and only true God, the Author of salvation, the God who did not allow Moses-the Law together with the old generation (the old man, who lived according to the Law of ordinances, and not according to the Law of faith in Christ) to enter the Promised Land.

Ignoring that just as Jesus the Messiah, Moses, also is the personification of the written Law who passes on his anointing to Joshua-Yeshuah-Jesus, (the fulfillment and the end of the Law) the one capable to guide the new generation, referring to the new man (the man being renewed in the spirit of his mind) to enter the Land, which is only a symbolic parallel to the spiritual Land.

The Hellenic writings make it crystal clear concerning the figurative language, the allegorical parallelism of the divine literature.

If I have told you earthly things and you do not believe, how will you believe if I tell you heavenly things? Joh 3:12

The Lord God puts a division between the literal embroidery “the figurative language” the nominated earthly things from the spiritual and heavenly knowledge, reassuring that behind the earthly stories lies hidden spiritual knowledge.

Jesus, the implanted, indwelling Logos, the voice of God.

Behold, I stand at the door (of your heart) and knock. If anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him (inside his heart) and dine with him, and he with Me. Rev.3:20

The above decree illustrates that the Lord works on man inspirationally from above, since only the Logos, which is the voice of God, can enter our heart, enter through hearing.

Illustrating that Jesus is the embodiment of the Logos of God.

Today, if you will hear His voice... He who hears, let him hear...Ask, seek and knock...

Therefore, the Logos is Spirit, My words they are Spirit, and they are life, not only to pertain and to relate to our soul and spirit, but also to relate to our physical body, if we bear the image of Adam.

The answer to Judaism’s non-sensical beliefs:

Proving beyond doubt that without the blossom, without flower, there will never be fruit, and it is from the flower the fruit grows. Referring to the fruit of righteousness obviously.

However, the only tree which bears fruit without flower is the fig tree, the tree Jesus cursed, pointed to the scribes and the Pharisees, all the religious bigots who bear no fruit of righteousness, full of leaves and no fruit, external appearances only.

Judaism, through lack of discernment of the divine Logos, hasn’t whatsoever understood that mind-heart-soul are one, and it is everyman’s God-given intellect and inner conscience. While man’s natural body is the house of his mortal soul, which needs to be created into a living soul, for the mortal to be dressed immortality the very aim of the Logos. Man’s body becomes the Temple of God, yet again referring to the man bearing the image of Adam, bearing the flesh of Jesus.

Adam became a living soul and only on the last day of the symbolic six-day spiritual creation.

Romans chapter seven exposes and at the same time divides the two seeds equated as two men inside the same body. The “twain” which bear enmity between them.

The one born after the flesh (firstborn, outward man) is offered as a living sacrifice and receives the curses “the righteous judgements of the law” and the one born after the spirit (the inward man) and freed from the Law, receives the blessings.

The one born after the flesh persecutes the one born after the Spirit.

The two seeds which bear enmity between them. The seed of the devil and the seed of the woman.

The case of Cain and Abel, Ishmael and Isaac, Esau and Jacob, the twins (Jacob the one renamed Israel) and onto Saul and David, Nathan and Solomon, all the way to Saul and Jesus, Saul renamed Paul. Denoting the two which become one new man. I no longer live but Christ lives in me, refers to the death of Saul, the fleshy man who bore the evil seed.

Saul the old man of Paul bears the seed of the devil; and Paul the new man bears the seed of the woman, designated as the son of man, referring to the seed of Adam, the seed of God which is Jesus.

The recognition of one’s duality and human condition:

Wretched man that I am, who will deliver me from the body of this death? Rom.7:24

The body of this death, the man under the curses of the law and of nature, despite ethnicity and religion.

He who has received His testimony “the testimony of Jesus” has certified “ἔσφράγισεν=has sealed” that God is true. John 3:33

No man can receive the testimony of Jesus and all because he belongs to a certain religious cult, it is a personal achievement through perseverance, and must be earned, independent of all religions. The very reason why the holy scriptures should be read, studied and reviewed totally independent from all the manmade religions and dogmatic doctrines.

The solo aim and purpose of our temporary existence is to fulfill the will of God:

And moreover, because the Ecclesiastes was wise, he still taught the people knowledge; yes, he pondered and sought out and set in order many proverbs.

Ecclesiastes, the man who feeds (the shepherd) the Ecclesia, the preacher=Qohelet=Kohélet.

The Ecclesiastes sought to find acceptable words; and what was written was upright words of truth.

The words of the wise are like goads, and the words of scholars are like well-driven nails, given by one Shepherd.

And further, my son, be admonished by these, of making many books there is no end, and much study is wearisome to the flesh.

Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God and keep His commandments, for this is man's all. (Man's purpose of existence) Eccl. 12:9-13

By the fruit of their mouth, you shall know them, points to the fruit of spiritual knowledge, the fruit of righteousness, the Ecclesia, the man called to come out of the world's vanities, out of the Stone Age and pagan traditions.

The man who shall become the Temple of God for Christ to be his High Priest.

Our duality consists of two opposing forces, positive and negative, rational and irrational.

One that accepts and one that rejects, the one who loves and who bears the flesh of Jesus with the fleshy heart; and the other with the stone heart, the seed of the devil, who hates.

The one who is generous and kind and the other who is greedy and envious, the one compassionate and the other cold hearted. The one nominated as the wise and the other as the foolish.

The aim of the divine Logos is to make us understand the depths of our soul, our humanity, our inner conscience and subconscious mind, which manifest our animal instincts able to discern between the two, especially grasping the reason and purpose for our temporary existence.

Reaching the understanding that we are not alone, therefore, we did not randomly happen, but we were specifically created to serve God's purposes.

The human soul and conscience: We bear the impressions and the attributes of God the creator, because we are just as creative as He is, physically that is, and waiting to be dressed the spiritual creation.

Through God's Logos we become aware of His existence and will; and when of age and spiritual maturity we begin to obtain His mind, the mind of Christ and His spiritual eternity. We become His image and likeness, fully furnished and prepared to obtain His life of perfection, immortal and incorruptible.

From the Tabernacle of the flesh to the Temple of the Holy Spirit.

The spiritual creation always was and still is prophetic, shadow of things to come, for the man who obeys and shall obey today the voice of the Lord, referring to the creation of the mortal soul into a Living soul, the merit of the true human receiving the good seed, according to the Logos that proceeded out of the mouth of God, and who said:

Let us make man in our image and in our likeness.

As it has been mentioned many times, the commandment was pointing to the man who already existed on the planet, the Homo-Sapient, the descendant of the biological evolution.

It was and still is God who says, let us educate and create the human by getting rid of his evil primal instinct, his flesh, because only the human can be regenerated and created from a mortal soul into a living soul. Therefore, only the human with the Living soul is entitled and worthy to put on the divine nature, to put on the brilliant white wedding garments. To be dressed immortality and incorruption.

(Please note: the original Hebrew text clearly says, Let us make man, and not let us make a man, according to certain wrong interpretations of various bibles, as if man did not exist, which is the strong delusion of the majority who take the scriptures literally and believe in an instant with a magic wand creation.

Let us make the human side of man in our image and in our likeness, by crucifying first his flesh, the resident evil within himself. The very mission of the divine Logos in the face and flesh of Jesus, who comes not to bring peace, but rather to put a two-edged sword and cause division between the two.

The resident evil seed and the resident seed of the woman, the son of man, the human built according to Christ Jesus who portrays the two Adams.

Breaking down the middle wall of partition for to separate the designated sheep from the goat, the good from the evil.)

Let us make man, first, in the image of Jesus who is the Living soul and after in the image and likeness of Christ who is the Life-giving Spirit. Which is the double role of Christ Jesus, who is the exact image and exact likeness of God the Father.

The everlasting and omnipotent Spirit, the unapproachable light and consuming fire, without father, without mother, without genealogy, and without beginning or end. The ancient of the days, the Lord of Hosts.

The unfathomable knowledge and wisdom of God; much more unfathomable than the existence of the natural universe.

The God who brought things into existence, things which did not exist before, turning energy into solid matter.

By crucifying the flesh, one gets rid of his evil seed, one quenches the seed of the devil which he inherits from nature.

Wherefore, without the evil seed, the good seed, which is the human side of us, our human becomes free, free from accusations and judgements, the curses of the Law of ordinances because of the evil.

Only the human can reach the full measure of spiritual age and maturity of Christ, to become as the Christ himself, in the exact image of the Son of God.

Evidently, only the human is adopted by God, the one entitled to put on the divine nature, as in the image and likeness of God Himself.

Co-heir of Christ and heir of God.

For Christ Jesus to be the Firstborn among many brothers.

And Jesus as the Firstborn offers Himself to be sacrificed with each and every disciple separately, the spiritual sacrifice until Christ is formed, for Christ to be formed. I no longer live but Christ who lives in me.

And if we bear His image, just as He bears ours, and as the Firstborn, He offers Himself for us, the way, the truth, and the life, therefore, we also offer our firstborn "our outward old man, the flesh" to be sacrificed with Him, for our "inward the new man, the son of man" to be molded, the one being built according to Christ.

The true disciple is equated as a city under siege, fighting against the powers and principalities of the air, the world rulers, the dark evil spirits of the heavenlies.

Our wrestle is not against flesh and blood (against our fellow humans) but against our adversary, the seed of the devil.

Evidently, the man of God is equated not only as one city, but as three cities. He begins as Jericho, who portrays the carnal man's stiff-necked characteristic. Depicted as a city with fortified walls which must be demolished, turn into dust and ashes "humbleness" scourge and chastised by the Laws of God, Moses and the Prophets (as the two spies) to allow the spiritual seed to enter. And after the seed, the Logos of God in the face and flesh of Jesus "Joshua" entered he becomes Bethlehem the house of bread, the heavenly bread which gives birth to Jesus, the implanted Logos; and finally, he becomes Jerusalem. After all the struggles he becomes a place of peace.

The commandment: remain in Jerusalem, remain as Jerusalem until you are dressed with power from above, dressed the New Jerusalem, the heavenly city, the spiritual body for the new man who has been built according to Christ.

Wherefore, from Jericho, to Bethlehem and to Jerusalem; and finally, onto the new Jerusalem, the heavenly city.

Demolish the walls of Jericho and build the walls of Jerusalem, for the new Jerusalem to descend from heaven. Whatever you bind on earth is bound in heaven.

Mimickers of Christ:

According to the Excellency of the knowledge of Christ, we, just as Paul, we mimic Christ, considering all transitory things as rubbish to gain Christ. The riches of the glory in Christ Jesus.

Therefore, we do not lose heart. Even though our outward man is perishing, yet (our) the inward man is being renewed day by day. 2Cor.4:16.

Denoting increase in spiritual knowledge and stature.

The perishing of our outward man happens through perfect knowledge and understanding; therefore, it is not a physical death, just as the crucifixion is not a physical act, but the undressing, the defeat of the evil seed within.

The transformation from the natural to the spiritual is the fulfillment of God's will, the victory over death, since God is God of the Living soul. Death is man's last enemy.

The phenomenon seeing by the religious despots, who have always been accusers of their fellow men, false accusations such as heretics, blasphemers, sinners, possessors of demons even non-believers. Believers in what?

The very words the religious bigots used against Jesus.

Evil men who do the works of their father and master, the devil.

The Lord God in the face of Jesus, beginning from the Old Testament all the way to the New, always confronted and rebuked the religious bigots for their heresy, hypocrisy and evil deeds.

Professing to be wise, they became fools, and changed the glory of the incorruptible God into an image made like corruptible man, and birds and four-footed animals and creeping things. Romans 1:22-23

Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil walks about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour. 1Peter 5:8

If I have rejoiced at the destruction of him who hated me; or lifted myself up when evil found him. Job 31:29

My heritage is to me like a lion in the forest; it cries out against me; therefore, I have hated it. Jer.12:8

Every man must question himself, what is my heritage and my reward on this planet at the end of my days, including all my fellow humans?

Referring to the permanent death and oblivion or the reward of eternal life, which God will give what He has already promised.

Then I hated all my labour in which I had toiled under the sun, because I must leave it to the man who will come after me. Eccl. 2:18

This is what makes us the most pitiful from all the rest of the mammal species on planet Earth, which the greedy rich have managed to steal, the land barons, who confiscated the land from their rightful owners the poor, the farmer and the tiller of the land. The man of dust, greedy to own the dust of the earth, in which he will eventually return to.

We toil all our life, drowned by the cares of this temporary life and all for nothing, many walk even over corpses to appease their ego, which becomes more greedy by the deceitfulness of riches.

Appeasing one's ego never stops, it becomes an addiction.

Designated by the Living Logos as the deceitfulness of riches and the love of money, the root and the cause of all evil.

It is our way of life, our behaviour towards others, our state and frame of mind that manifests the evil seed in us.

Even though we adore and boast about democracy, true democracy has never been employed, but it has been arranged with many loopholes to suit the accomplice.

There are millions who insist that there is no God, even though they know that there is evil everywhere, within each and every person, young and old, the evidence that they all like to keep hidden. Many have had confessed that there is no God, but not many have ever confessed that there is no evil.

The purpose of the Law:

It is the Law that manifests and exposes the evil within us, our sinful nature, our outward man.

A continuous process in every generation, just as yesterday, today, tomorrow also.

And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have eternal life. John 3:14-15

A great offer through promise, to become a Living soul through the regeneration process and divine instruction (spiritual creation by the renewal of the mind) in order to defeat death.

To overcome him who has the power of death (that is the devil) by trusting Jesus, the embodiment of the Logos of God. Designated as the beloved Son, putting on His exact image in all obedience of His instructions, thus, fulfilling the will of God.

It is Moses, (the personification of the written Law) who raises the seed of the serpent, the evil seed within our natural man, the man of lawlessness who has been called to come out of the world and wander in the wilderness prepared by God.

Moses, the Law, the accuser who is against the Lawless man.

And unless the seed of the serpent is raised, neither will the son of man be raised, the seed of the woman. Yet again referring to the two seeds.

Jesus born of a woman and under the Law sums it all up. Jesus takes on man's sinful flesh, which must be crucified. Suspending between the two branches of the tree of knowledge of good and evil, the equilibrium and symmetry of reason.

And as the just scale, the good must outweigh the evil.

The two branches of the tree, yet again pointing to man's duality of characteristics, man's two masters. The son of man refers to the seed of the woman, as the human side of us, our intellect and soul, "our Psyche".

The reason why all the divine instructions concern the salvation of our soul, our Psyche, our mind, our humanity.

According to the old saying: the devil is in the detail...

Now to you I say, and to the rest in Thyatira=the afflicted as many as do not have this doctrine, who have not known the depths of Satan, as they say, I will put on you no other burden.

Rev. 2:24

Thyatira refer to those who are under affliction, (odour of affliction) under the judgements and chastisements of the Law, under the persecution and sifting of the evil one.

Wherefore, the only one who gets to know the depths of Satan, is the man who seeks God, seeks spiritual enlightenment, eats of the tree of knowledge, therefore he comes under the judgements of the Law and of death.

He becomes Adam himself; he comes under the creation and adoption process; while Satan is used as the sifter, he uses the Law, the accuser.

The two opposing seeds, ruled by two different Laws:

But I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members. Rom.7:23

Paul as the true disciple refers to his two members: the two opposing seeds within himself, good and evil, rational and irrational, wise and foolish, sane and insane.

Paul now, as the new man and new creation" speaks about Saul, his old man who was ruled by the evil seed, depicted as his flesh. It was Saul who persecuted Jesus.

The one born after the flesh persecuted the One born after the Spirit.

Romans 7:23 is the proclamation and testimony of the true disciple who has discerned his two "members" within himself.

Paul as the man who begun to know himself, and who recognized the true character of Saul, his old man.

Paul, as the new man who has all his senses exercised able to discern good evil not only within himself, but also in the world.

And that He might reconcile them both to God in one body through the cross, thereby putting to death the enmity. Eph.2:16

X marks the spot, the cross, the focal point, where the two seeds meet to confront one another, depicted as two thieves who want to steal each other's birthright. The epicenter where the flesh is being judged and crucified, becoming co-panted with Jesus, and the son of man "the seed of the woman" is set free.

The one who repented and to whom Jesus said: today you are with me in Paradise (and the third heaven) where the tree of knowledge with its two branches is, where the actual crucifixion begins, because the crucifixion is a long process, long until repentance.

And when of age and spiritual maturity, until perfection in knowledge and understanding having one's senses exercised, able to discern good and evil, able to reject the evil by the knowledge of good. Meaning that, he has crucified the flesh, undressed the old man, God puts to death the enmity between them. The enmity vanishes, and both are reconciled, and the two become one new man. Because in all reality, it is only one man divided between two opinions, ruled by two Laws.

Crucifixion of the flesh, is achieved through the renewal of the mind, designated as crushing the head of the serpent, the evil seed within, despite the wound of one's heel, referring to all the sufferings, curses, temptations and tribulations, overcoming the sting of death.

Because the first death is the death of the flesh.

He, who overcomes shall not be hurt by the second death. Rev.2:11

Wherefore, the man of God becomes double ash heap, dust and ashes, referring to humbleness and repentance, he becomes double fruitful in knowledge and wisdom. Therefore, forgetful, since the old has passed away and all things have become new.

The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, and the knowledge of the Holy One is understanding. Pro.9:10

Therefore, both are reconciled to God and the two become one new man, inside the same body.

The son of man (the seed of the woman) is raised as the new and spiritual man. One of the great mysteries of the creation of the spiritual man hidden in God which is now being revealed.

Only through spiritual discernment we begin to see the two branches of the tree of knowledge of good and evil as the actual cross, by the inspirational elevation and opening of the mind

Lift up your own cross and follow me, all the way up to Golgotha.

Follow me inside the Paradise Garden and the third Heaven, where the tree of knowledge is planted. Bearing the two opposing seeds, which become crossed and exposed.

Jesus said to the repentant man, that is, the seed of the woman: today, you are with me in Paradise, where Christ takes over and leads the repentant man, and now the adopted son of God. Therefore, as a living soul now, he is entitled to eat of the tree of life. Being dressed in his spiritual body already prepared, in God's many mansions.

Remark,

We were created evolved by the Laws of nature, according to the Laws of nature; therefore, it was necessary for us to bear the two opposite seeds of good and evil. We did not just randomly happen, we are part of nature, which is feral, our animal side is feral, the reason the Logos nominates us children of wrath. And it is the good and the evil the two opposites which has driven us to take decisions and to make choices.

We gained the mental ability to accept but also to refuse, to discern, to love and to hate. Therefore, good and evil became the symmetry for reason, forcing us to choose, obtaining the freedom of selection, freedom of thought and of expression. The good seed spreads-teaches knowledge and wisdom, the foundation of life and peace, even life eternal. Whereas the evil spreads confusion, destruction and death.

Knowing that the natural world, within time and space, is made of positive and of negative forces, not only to create life, but also to sustain life. Two opposites depicted as light and darkness.

The voice of the creator, the Law maker and the Law giver:

I am the Lord, and there is no other; there is no God besides Me. (I will gird you, though you have not known Me).

That they may know from the rising of the sun to its setting that there is none besides Me.

I am the Lord, and there is no other; I form the light and create darkness, I make peace and create evil; I, the Lord, do all these things.

Rain down, you heavens, from above, and let the clouds pour down righteousness; let the earth open, let them bring forth salvation, and let righteousness spring up together. I, the Lord, have created it. Isaiah 45:5-8

The decree: if there is no resurrection of the dead, let's eat and drink, because tomorrow we will die.

Therefore, our biggest choice lies between life and death, life eternal or permanent death, oblivion.

From the earthly body of sin and death to the heavenly body of Christ which is life giving Spirit.

From the sinful nature to the divine nature, overcoming the negative force.

From the curses of the Law to the blessings of the Spirit; and from death onto life.

Unless we accept to bear our own cross, putting on the exact image of Jesus, the Son of God, we become enemies of the cross, therefore, enemies of God, by the denial to crucify our flesh, to undress the evil seed within.

It is the knowledge of the cross, designated as the two branches of the tree of spiritual enlightenment, which opens our eyes to discern good and evil and to crucify the evil, depicted as the sinful flesh.

But for us there is one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we for Him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, through whom are all things, and through whom we live. 1Cor.8:6

The lack of discernment concerning our duality of characteristics is subject to review, subject to scrutiny, subject to interpretation.

Furthermore, since all scripture was written and spoken in a figurative language, all scripture is subject to review to scrutiny and correct interpretation, reaching the understanding that spiritual things only spiritually are discerned.

Wherefore, only the discernment of the Logos will enable all readers to absorb the spiritual implications and concepts behind the figurative language, and totally independent of all the traditional religious doctrines.

The truth is this, up until now no man has been able to enter fully into the spiritual understanding, the nominated by Jesus, heavenly things, the Excellency of the knowledge of Christ, which was hidden behind the ambiguous embroidery of the literal narrative. Concealing spiritual height, depth, length, and width.

The four dimensions of the divine Logos. Three spiritual levels against the literal level, understood by the elevation "Godly inspiration" of the mind, thus, to fulfil that, all scripture is given inspirationally, by God.

Illustrating that it is a gift from God to absorb and rightly interpret the divine Logos.

But you, do not be called 'Rabbi; for One is your Teacher, the Christ, and you are all brothers. Mat.23:8 (And Jesus, the Firstborn brother and beloved Son).

Do not be like those who love the best places at feasts and love the best seats in the synagogues and greetings with respect in the market places; and to be called by men, rabbi, rabbi.

The Prophetic Logos of truth, the Logos of Honour, concerns our human condition that gives meaning to the very purpose for our temporary existence and for the planet that we live on.

The living planet which was specifically and purposely prepared with all the essential elements and ingredients, the right conditions and nourishments to sustain not only the human life, but also to sustain all the rest of the animal species and microbes.

The mystery hidden in God:

Christ Jesus, the personification of the Logos of God in heaven and on Earth:

God empties Himself and takes on the form of a man, as in the flesh and Living soul of Jesus, the one who is and was (Jesus, Emmanuel, God with us, and in us) also, in the image of Christ the one who is coming, the Living Spirit.

Jesus Christ who is the image and likeness of God the Father. I, and the Father are One.

Jesus clearly testifies, I, and the Father are one, naming Himself first, as the One and only God.

I am in the Father and the Father is in me, revealing that they are only one entity, a mirror image and not two different entities.

What were written and spoken earlier concerning Jesus Himself and the Christ to come, were based upon a prophetic scale.

And since there is only one God “God is one” it is God who offered to empty Himself and to take on the form of man in the image of Christ Jesus and who in continuation portrays the two Adams, Jesus as the earthly Adam and Christ as the heavenly, revealing that the man Adam is and was a conceptual character. From within Adam, Eve was born, the woman was created. Bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh.

It is written that in the Lord, there is neither male nor female, which means Eve portrays several roles, apart from being the flesh of Adam and his wisdom, she is the Ecclesia and the bride to be.

Therefore, I have said to you that no one can come to Me unless it has been granted to him by My Father. John 6:65

I know your works, that you are neither cold nor hot. I wished you were cold or hot.

Thus, because you are lukewarm and neither cold nor hot, I will spue you out of My mouth. Rev.3:15-16

It is the Logos of God which proceeds (is spat) out of the mouth of God, is nominated the Son of God. Therefore, Jesus is the embodiment of the Logos of God, spat-proceeded out of the mouth of God, and if we bear His yoke and exact image, we become co-planted with Him, we become one with Him. Only then, Jesus becomes the Firstborn among many brothers.

For whoever does the will of God is my brother and my sister and (my) mother. Mark 3:35

Mother of Jesus are they, who conceive the spiritual seed and give birth to the Logos, through regeneration they give birth to Jesus, they become Living souls, in the exact image of Jesus.

Brother and sister are they, who have been adopted, and they who will be adopted, will be given the authority to be named children of God.

But as many as received Him, (received the Logos) to them He gave the authority to become children of God, to those who believe in His name: John 1:12

And His name is Jesus Christ=the Saviour to be Anointed and Christ Jesus=the Anointed Saviour. The Saviour has been anointed, has fulfilled the will and works of the Father. My Logos shall not return empty...

Therefore, the Saviour becomes Anointed when the Logos which proceeded out of the mouth of God is fulfilled, then, the Christ, the Anointed Saviour is formed. The Logos is established in the life of the man bearing the image of Adam.

The concept which must be grasped by everyone who wants to be the disciple of Christ:

My little children, for whom I labour in birth again until Christ is formed in you... Gal.4:19

I travail that you will give birth to Jesus, for Christ to be formed in you. Jesus is conceived “the implanted Logos” is regenerated (germinates) until Christ is formed, is anointed.

For whoever does the will of God is My brother and My sister and mother. Mark 3:35

And if we bear the image of Jesus, we shall also bear the image of Christ, we shall bear the exact image of God's own Son.

Fulfilling the decree, Let us make man in our image and in our likeness, revealing the double role of Christ Jesus, spoken in plural, even though He is One entity, unto whom the Father gave all authority. Christ Jesus the one who portrays the two Adams, even though Adam is one.

If we put on the exact image of God's own Son Jesus, we also carry the death of Jesus, until Christ the Life-giving Spirit is formed in us.

God puts a distance between Jesus and the Christ to come, the Christ to be formed.

God, therefore, separates Jesus the Saviour, and only within the biblical settings, since God is One and as God He cannot be divided, therefore, He empties-lowers Himself and takes on the form of man in the face and flesh of Jesus, who is the embodiment of the Logos which proceeded out of God's mouth. The mystery hidden in God, before the foundation of the cosmos.

The ways and wisdom of God without spiritual discernment of His Logos is hard to grasp. It is hard to grasp the demands of God, especially the suffering of the cross.

For my thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways my ways, says the Lord. Isaiah 55:8

He is formed in us and we in Him, obtaining the same mind, we become sons of the Living God.

Denoting the final transformation from the natural to the spiritual, in the exact image of Jesus the Christ which He illustrated on the high Mount, in front of His two witnesses, Moses-the written Law and Elijah-the oral Law, the Prophets. The Law of faith in Christ, and Jesus Himself (the illustrator) who is transformed into the Christ and in front of the three chosen disciples and Apostles.

He put on the brilliant white garments of eternity, His heavenly and spiritual body of holiness, of purity, and perfection.

Be of the same mind until Christ is formed in you.

The Lord said to my Lord!

Christ the Lord in heaven, said to my Lord Jesus on earth, sit at my right hand...

It is essential to understand that it is God, the One and only God the Father who does all things through Christ Jesus.

Denying Jesus Christ, the Messiah, is denying God and the two Covenants.

Christ Jesus the embodiment of the Logos of God, not only in heaven but also on earth, the Logos who in the beginning was with God and God who was and still is the Logos today.

Jesus the one who is, and Christ the one who is to come, the one to be formed by fulfilling the will of God the Father. As in heaven so, on earth.

Obtaining the mind of Christ, the Anointed of the Father, who will eventually submit, surrender all back to the Father to obtain His former glory as God.

We do not look at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen. For the things which are seen are temporary, but the things which are not seen are eternal. 2Cor.4:18

Only a spiritually enlightened man would have been qualified and confident to make such a declaration Cor.4:18

Everyman knows that all things visible, referring to all the natural things are only temporary, since all nature is under corruption and mortality.

The Excellency of the knowledge of Christ,

Which for many centuries now, has been kept hidden from the self-risen religions, who since the beginning without spiritual discernment have taken the Logos literally and ignorantly twisted all the prophecies and conceptual stories, the parables into physical realities.

They have cunningly hijacked the entire scriptures, together with the names “titles” of their conceptual characters, defiling Christ’s Excellent knowledge.

An example,

An epistle was written and addressed to the Hebrews, but oddly enough, no epistle has ever been written and addressed to the Jews, especially by Paul, the previously Saul who claimed that he was a Jew from the tribe of Benjamin, a scribe and a Pharisee, as also a puppet of religious Judaism, therefore, a persecutor of Jesus and the Ecclesia.

Strange that Paul didn’t write an epistle to the Jews, his own people, if the Jews were a separate race from the Hebrews?

To become a Hebrew must understand the Hebrew writings, bound down by the covenant of water; and to become a Hellene must understand the Hellenic writings and bound down by the eighth covenant of blood. Which means that you have obtained the testimony of the three witnesses: of Moses, of the Prophets and of Jesus.

To fulfill the written that, at the mouth of two and three witnesses every word, the Logos which proceeded out of the mouth of God shall become establish, the Logos who is Christ is formed. Christ Jesus the High Priest of God formed inside the Temple of God.

Who is the true Jew?

The answer:

For he is not a Jew who is one outwardly, nor is circumcision that which is outward in the flesh, but he is a Jew who is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the Spirit, not in the letter; whose praise is not from men but from God. Rom.2:28-29

To become a true Jew, one must gather all the fragments of the twelve loaves, the fragments of the five barley loaves and the fragments of the seven wheat loaves, which become one single loaf in Judah, who is portrayed by Jesus, the lion of Judah, the praised one. As one loaf and as one seed who is Christ.

The nomadic Canaanites who spoke the Hebrew-Aramaic language became Israelites and Jews, even though Jacob (renamed by God as Israel) was neither a Canaanite, Hebrew nor a Jew, since Abraham came from Mesopotamia. From the middle of the River, from the middle of two currents of water. The waters from above and the wates from below, the waters God separates.

Prophetically referring to the former rains-waters and to the latter rains-waters, diving the natural from the spiritual, the Law and the Spirit.

According to Romans 2:28-29 the Jew is a biblical title and refers to the spiritual man to be formed and who is hidden, designated as the one inwardly, therefore, the inward new man to be formed.

The reason Paul testifies that he is a Jew from the tribe of Benjamin, literally meaning=son of my right hand. And the son of God’s right hand is Christ Jesus.

For I delight in the Laws of God according to the inward man.

As I have already stated the Hellene is designated the outward man, wherefore both Jew and Hellene in reality represent one man. One man bearing the two seeds as from a higher level of understanding, the man of the two covenants, of water and of blood; the man of the Law and of the Spirit.

First to the Jew and also to the Hellene, refers to the biblical Jew and the biblical Hellene, which means that both are interchangeable and since both are conceptual and not people of ethnicity, both are together inside the same body and as one man.

The two as the two covenants, the one of water and the other of blood. The Law of ordinances and the Law of faith in Christ Jesus.

Both, the Hebrew and Hellenic texts are the testimony of Jesus and the Evangelion, good news of Christ, the only one who takes us back to Moses and the Prophets, the written Law, and the oral Law; that, which were written and spoken earlier (concerning Jesus Christ Himself) for our admonition today.

Jesus, the voice of God and the embodiment of the Logos, the only one who has been speaking to us from the very beginning until today, concerning not only the past but also the present and the future. Jesus the fulfilment of Moses and of the Prophets, and the three witnesses of Christ, establishing that only through them Christ is formed. Denoting the actual metamorphosis from the natural to the spiritual. It is the Christ from above who makes the decree: where two and three are gathered together in my name, I am there, I am in their midst.

Where the knowledge of Moses, of the Prophets and of Jesus, are gathered by one man, the three that bear witness to Christ, only then Christ is formed. The Logos becomes established, one reaches the three Taverns, the three Tabernacles which become, establish the Temple of God.

The Logos which becomes flesh and anchors the Tabernacle of His flesh inside our heart.

Jesus who testifies that: Moses wrote about me, and all that the Prophets have spoken concerning myself.

Jesus testifies that He comes to fulfill and not to annul Moses, the written Law and the Prophets, the oral Law, what were written and spoken earlier, were shadow of things to come and specific lessons for us.

The written Law and the oral Law, counterfeit Christianity totally rejected and still rejects, as they have rejected and replaced Jesus the only mediator between God and man with Mary and their imaginary, invented dead saints, due to their lack of discernment of the divine Logos. Insisting that they are under grace and the Law was for them yesterday, whoever yesterday's "them" were.

But for whom was the Law written?

Obviously for the designated lawless man, the Law breaker, the man of perdition, which includes every person in the world, from every nation on the planet without exemption, since we all, are descendants of the natural animal evolution, God's natural creation evolution, who set the laws of nature into motion.

However, for God to give mankind a set of Laws, reveals that the man of the animal nature bears the evil seed, therefore, a Law breaker, clearly conveying that no man of the animal nature with the primal killer instinct was ever created in the image and likeness of God.

And if we were created in the image and likeness of God already, why do we carry an expiry date? Since God is immortal and incorruptible.

The seed of the devil stand as the bad branch of the tree which must be cut off and allow the good branch to thrive.

Rom.2:28-29 clearly confirms that the Jew is not a person of ethnicity "outward in the flesh" but a biblical title given to the spiritual man to be formed, therefore, the true Jew "is one inwardly", the designated inward man and who is obedient to the Laws and to the Spirit of God through Jesus, the Lion of Judah, the praised One.

Thus, to illustrate that the Jew is not a natural individual of ethnicity but the new man to be born. Born above, born of water and born of the Spirit.

Salvation is of the Jews...According to the purification of the Jews... the spiritual man.

Wherefore, the Jew and true Israelite is the disciple of Jesus, the overcomer as Jacob.

Philip found Nathanael and said to him: We have found Him of whom Moses in the law, and also the prophets, wrote, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph. John 1:45

Jacob, the overcomer is the one renamed Israel, the man who rests his head upon the rock, prophetically pointing to the rock foundation doctrine of Christ Jesus despite nationality.

The man who shall follow Jesus' instructions as given to Him by the Father.

Israel-Jacob as the man born above, born, renewed in the spirit of his mind able to see the stairway to heaven. Jacob-Israel the over-scaler of the chasm between the natural and the spiritual, the climber on the heavenly stairway, able to see and to enter the kingdom of God.

The man baptized in water and in Spirit, washed and cleansed, renewed in the spirit of his mind and purification of his heart, he can see to enter the Kingdom.

It is essential to unite, to infuse the Hebrew writings with the Hellenic.

The Hebrew writings purposely end with a curse, while the Hellenic end with a blessing, referring to the righteous judgements of the Law and the grace and power of the Holy Spirit.

Lest I come and strike the earth with a curse. Mal.4:6

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen. Rev.22:21

(The earth refers to man, the man of dust, while grace is made possible by Jesus because of the righteous judgements of the Law, which carries the sword of justice. God overlooks the days of our ignorance and lack of discernment).

Hebrew, Israelite or Jew? Judaism gave preference to the biblical title Jew. But the Jew is the man to be formed, the man to be created by Jesus into a living soul, the son of man. Jesus the Lion of Judah, literally meaning the Praised one. Judah, the first name on the high priest's breastplate and the one who portrays all the major biblical characters. Jesus the exalted One.

As it has been already mentioned, there is an epistle addressed to the Hebrews, but no epistle was ever addressed to the Jews, since the Jew is one inwardly, the man with the circumcised heart, ears and lips and not of the foreskin, according to the Law of ordinances, which is for self-righteousness.

Moreover, He rejected the tent of Joseph, and did not choose the tribe of Ephraim, but he chose the tribe of Judah, Mount Zion, which he loved. Psalm 78:67-68

You worship what you do not know; we know what we worship, for salvation is of the Jews.

John 4:22 (The Jew you do not see).

The Jew of the circumcised and purified heart, the inward and spiritual man to be formed.

For if that first covenant had been faultless, then no place would have been sought for a second. Because finding fault with them, He says: Behold, the days are coming, says the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah Heb.8:7-8

The house of Israel is every true disciple of Jesus, the man bearing the image of Adam, the man who ate and eats the fruit of the tree of knowledge of good and evil. The man who truly seeks spiritual enlightenment, the man who relies upon the rock foundation doctrine of Christ Jesus. The man who overscale the chasm between the natural and the spiritual, the man who sees and climbs the heavenly stairway.

That fault and confusion still carries on today, by those who reject the eighth and blood covenant, reject the Law-Torah and the Messiah, the Law giver. They, who reject the teaching of the Holy Spirit, they who from birth falsely named themselves Jews. The spiritual title which has to be earnestly earned, through scourging and chastisement in all obedience to the Law of faith in Christ and reverence to God. Through the crucifixion of their fleshy man, undressing the old man of the animal nature with the primal instinct, the killer instinct.

The Lord speaks prophetically to the Jew and to the Greek, the true Ecclesia:

For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who suppress the truth in unrighteousness, because what may be known of God is manifest in them, for God has shown it to them. Rom.1:18-19

And you He made alive, who were dead in trespasses and sins, in which you once walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit who now works in the sons of disobedience, among whom also we all once conducted ourselves in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind, and were by nature children of wrath, just as the others. Eph 2:1-3

For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ, for it is the power of God to salvation for everyone who believes, for the Jew first and also for the Greek. Rom.1:16

For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek, for the same Lord over all is rich to all who call upon Him. Rom.10:12

Do not lie to one another, since you have put off the old man with his deeds and have put on the new man who is renewed in knowledge according to the image of Him who created him, Where there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcised nor uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave nor free, but Christ is all and in all. Col.3:9-11

The Samaritan woman calls Jesus a Jew. The Jew who is one inwardly, in the image of Christ to come.

Our fathers worshiped on this mountain, and you Jews say that in Jerusalem is the place where one ought to worship.

The same belief ignorantly still carries on today, nothing new under the Sun.

Jesus said to her: woman, believe Me, the hour is coming when you will neither on this mountain, nor in Jerusalem, worship the Father. John 4:20-21

If you are the Temple of God, the Father dwells in you, God who is the implanted Logos in the face and flesh of Jesus.

And that hour is right now, God is Spirit and only in Spirit and in truth is worshipped, anywhere and everywhere the man in Adam happens to be.

It is also written in the Law, that God does not dwell in manmade buildings, therefore, God could be worshipped anywhere, since man, the true disciple is the House and Temple of God.

The humble man, the human, the true Jew and the Greek, the one who chooses the good seed and rejects the evil seed. The man who truly seeks God's everlasting Kingdom and righteousness.

Jew and Greek the one man who receives the two Covenants.

From within Israel-Jacob, the Greek and the Jew are born, the spiritual seed and genealogy from Adam...the son of God (Luke 3:38)

Both texts contain the spiritual knowledge and understanding of the twelve loaves, also equated as twelve tribes, which eventually through spiritual age and maturity become one in Judah, the praised one, and pointing to Jesus, the nominated Lion of Judah.

All twelve tribes must become one in Judah, which was a shadow of things to come, just as the twelve loaves become one loaf in Christ Jesus, and as one seed, who is the Christ.

Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He does not say, and to seeds, as of many, but as of one, and to your seed, who is the Christ. Gal.3:16

Προ-ευηγγελίσαστο τῷ Ἀβραάμ=proclaimed the good news εὐαγγέλιον to Abraham. (Gal.3:8)

The question is, why those who claim their father is Abraham cannot and would not accept the good news of the evangelion of Christ as Abraham did?

No man is physically a Jew, if he is not formed-created spiritually by Jesus, the tecton=the builder, the rock foundation and the cornerstone, the law giver and the fulfillment of the Law, and at the same time, the rock of scandal and the stumbling block; and blessed is the man who does not get scandalized in Him.

The Lord speaks to the Ecclesia concerning those who falsely claim that they are Jews:

Indeed, I will make those of the synagogue of Satan, who say they are Jews and are not but lie, indeed, I will make them come and worship before your feet, and to know that I have loved you. Rev.3:9

I know your works, tribulation, and poverty, but you are rich; and I know the blasphemy of those who say they are Jews and are not but are a synagogue of Satan. Rev.2:9

Do not think that I shall accuse you to the Father; there is one who accuses you, Moses, in whom you trust. John 5:45

The above illustrates that the spiritual Jew is the one man who has already received circumcision of the heart and not of his foreskin outwardly in the flesh, who cannot be justified by the law of ordinances, which is only conceptual, shadow of things to come, but through the Law of the faith in Christ the circumcision of the heart referring to the death of the flesh. Changing the stone heart into a fleshy heart, the flesh of Jesus.

“Cutting off” the part of the procreation organ of the animal nature is conceptual stands as a parallel. Cutting off the source of the evil seed.

Searing with a hot iron the evil thoughts of the heart derived from the evil seed, for to become sterile to the evil thoughts, designated as the purification of the heart. Overcome evil by the knowledge of the good.

Mutilating, cutting off one’s foreskin is spiritually pointless, neither does it renew the mind nor circumcises, purifies the heart.

In the beginning man (the earth) is spiritually barren, he is an alien towards God, nothos=impure but at the end, through knowledge and wisdom, by learning good and evil, man’s way of thinking is reversed, he becomes barren to the evil, and only fruitful towards God.

But solid food belongs to those who are of full age, that is, those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil. Heb.5:14

From the beginning the commandment of God was, Go forth and multiply, referring to knowledge and wisdom. Go forth and become fruitful in spiritual knowledge and understanding and not go forth multiply and overpopulate and pollute the Planet.

Only the pure in heart are the ones who shall see God inside them, and only in the face and flesh of Jesus, the Logos which becomes flesh and pitches the Tabernacle of His flesh inside the heart of the man bearing the image of Adam.

Thus, to fulfil the written: the old has passed away and everything has become new.

As it has been mentioned many times, we cannot take the conceptual and ignorantly turn it into a physical reality.

Wherefore, leaving behind the early teachings we begin a new and living way of thinking obtained by the spiritual understanding of the Excellency of the knowledge of the real Christ, the embodiment of the Logos of God, and not of the invented religious Jesus, the assumed natural man.

But the real Jesus who purposely testifies that He is from above and not of this world, clearly revealing that the biblical Jesus was never a natural man.

The begotten of the Father, the Logos which proceeded out of the mouth of God. Words of spiritual knowledge and wisdom. My words they are Spirit, and they are Life.

Jesus, as the prologue and Christ as the epilogue, the First and the Last...God who is the Logos...

Before Abraham I am. I am standing...

Evidently, we cannot disregard or dismiss the written because we are not able to understand its spiritual implication and message, or because of religious fluctuation of ideologies through brainwashing. Vainly puffed up by their fleshy minds.

As it has been already mentioned the divine literature must be read outside and totally independent of all religious doctrines.

Reciting scripture without spiritual discernment and correct interpretation is like playing a musical instrument completely out of tune.

Circumcision of the heart is not a physical act:

Is the circumcision of the heart a physical act, and how does one receive it in order to become the biblical inward Jew and also Greek?

And is the biblical heart (Rom.2:28-29) our natural organ, our natural heart?

Obviously not!

Mind, heart, and mortal soul inside the same mortal body, according to the Lord’s decree, the mind needs to be renewed, and the heart needs to be purified and the mortal soul needs to be created into a Living soul, what is defined as the salvation of the soul, the resurrection “transformation” from mortality. The Living soul no longer dies, enters the perfection of eternity.

Therefore, from mortality and corruption onto immortality and incorruptibility, from the natural and ephemeral to the spiritual and everlasting, which is not only the will but also the gracious offer of God to us the humankind.

The whole essence and purpose of the divine Logos, sharper than a two-edged sword, is to pierce even to the division of soul and spirit, and of joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, (the implanted Logos) and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness, that the man of God may be complete, thoroughly equipped for every good work. 2Tim.3:16-17

Three members mentioned: first, the soul-Psyche which means life, our humanity, our personality, our inner conscience. Second, spirit-mind, refers to our intelligence, our understanding, and finally our heart, the treasury where good and evil thoughts are born and kept.

A good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth good things, and an evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth evil things. Mat.12:35

The good man and the evil man refer to the two opposing seeds-characteristics inside the same body. Concerning man's goodness, Jesus testifies that only God is good.

Informally the heart has been designated to be foolish and deceitful, and ruled by two masters, two laws.

Most times the heart is in conflict with the mind.

Every man suspends between his two opposing masters of good and evil and it is by receiving the divine Logos "two-edged sword", referring to the knowledge of the Law and the Spirit that exposes the two.

Breaking down the middle wall, between the seed of the serpent and the seed of the woman.

The above happens to be one of several principles of the truth, finding out: who we are and what we are, who created us and why?

Learn the truth and the truth will make you free:

The truth which is inside the Logos of truth.

What is the truth and the very purpose for our temporary existence, and why are we the crown of the natural creation?

Why, we are mortal and need to be dressed immortality?

How shall we gain immortality and who is the one, which will dress us with immortality?

What is our psyche made of that it is so valuable to God that He wants to save it?

Why all of us, without exemption of nationality and colour we have to bear two seeds, two genes, with two opposing characteristics.

Who is God and who is the devil?

The greatest truth to learn is this, what is the purpose of our ephemeral existence?

The commandment of the Lord is to learn the truth and the truth will make us free, which He also promises that we will learn the truth.

The truth which the self-risen religious "the lawyers" vainly puffed up by their fleshy minds have prevented and carry-on preventing people to learn.

But Jesus, knowing their thoughts, said: Why do you think evil in your hearts? Mat.9:4

The above decree reveals that man bears the evil seed inside him. To think evil, one must carry the evil within one's own self. We can think good, and we can think evil.

The prophetic decree against the self-righteous:

Woe to you lawyers! For you have taken away the key to knowledge. You did not enter in yourselves, and those who were entering in you hindered. Luke 11:52

The key to the spiritual understanding of the divine Logos has been taken away through the brain washing by the religious imposters, they, who since the dawn of man imagined themselves descendants of Adam. Totally ignorant that Adam was a conceptual man, and doubly ignorant that Adam was and still is portrayed by Jesus Christ.

Self-risen imposters, worship of angels, vainly puffed up by their fleshy minds, they who love to play god, love the best seats, love to be called rabbi, also love to be called holy fathers, all dysfunctional concepts which are against the commandments of the true God.
Do not be called rabbi, do not be called father...

Do not be a fool like some and say that there is no God... but instead look how the young eagle opens his mouth and cries out to God for his food?

Who decides who shall be born, who shall live and who shall die?

Who gives talent to each and every man? And mainly only the wise invest their talent...

Can the accurately balanced ecological system, based upon preordained Laws, say that there is no Law giver, there is no God?

The greatest thing for all mankind is to learn that we are not alone and wandering inside the vast ocean of the vacuum universe "space-time" and just orbiting the Sun, while each orbit, first, increases the number of our years and after it decreases our life span, and our only accomplishment is to descend into the depths of the earth.

The Law and the Spirit:

The knowledge of the five barley loaves, 600 fragments and the knowledge of the seven wheat loaves, 350 fragments, the heavenly bread, the hidden manna are only gathered by the true disciples of Jesus.

Jesus teaches His disciples, the very purpose of the Law according to the Spirit of the faith in Christ, the only gatherers of the surplus-leftovers, referring to the spiritual knowledge, the hidden manna from within the broken bread.

Fragments and leftovers refer to the spiritual essence of the divine Logos. Equated as breaking the bread.

It is essential to accept the Lord's decree that, we suspend between two opposing seeds, the designated by Jesus two masters. The cause of our double mindedness and split temperaments of good and evil.

To do or not to do, to touch or not to touch, to handle or not to handle, to taste or not to taste, to be (daring) or not be (daring), which according to Shakespeare, that is the intricate question.

To be or not to be "awaken" to righteousness, in order to grasp the very purpose of our temporary existence...And it is up to every individual to decide his and hers, own destiny, to choose one's portion while alive and walking in this ephemeral life.

God gives us enough time to learn of Him and of His Logos of truth.

Our heart is polluted by the evil seed which dwells inside us, which puts our soul, our life, our humanity in danger, because evil only breeds evil.

The evil seed which we must get rid of, must crucify, designated as the flesh, by allowing the Logos to penetrate and pierce our heart. Sharper than a two-edged sword.

Therefore, only by the Logos of truth, depicted as the washing and the cleansing, the Lutron-head-bath, pure water, referring to the Laws of God through the Spirit of wisdom and revelation, we can receive renewal of the mind and purification of the heart, which will free our soul from the bondage of evil and death.

For I, through the law died to the law that I might live to God.

I have been crucified with Christ; it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself for me. Gal. 2:19-20

Now, I live by the faith in the Son of God Christ Jesus, who loved me; and who in the form of God emptied, lowered Himself and took on the image of the man Adam, whose image I bear...

Jesus as the First and earthly man Adam and Christ as the Last and heavenly man Adam.

It is the scripture which contains all the divine instructions how to save our soul, our life from this temporary existence while walking in the valley of the shadow of death, which we must leave behind and move onto the promised and eternal life of God.

Beginning to understand that our existence is to serve the purposes of God the creator, who promises unimaginable rewards for those who get to know Him and love Him.

Circumcision:

As we were on the subject of circumcision, what about the circumcision of the lips?

Does one cut off part of his lips, mutilates and disfigures himself, with the excuse that he is obedient to the Law of ordinances, which according to the Lord, cannot justify any man?

What does one prove, by exercising such dysfunctional acts? It is a ludicrous action.

Since only knowledge and understanding can educate and reform a person and not cutting pieces off one's body and even one's private parts.

Neither food, nor drink or clothing could commend us to God, not even if we were to offer our body to be burnt.

The written confirms:

I desire mercy and not sacrifice, for I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners, to repentance. Mat.9:13

Jesus yet again puts a division between the righteous and unrighteous which dwell inside the same body.

Refusing to accept the Lord's decree, the testimony of Jesus, and become aware that all the things written earlier were specifically written for our admonition today, illustrating that all things written, were prophetic, shadows of things to come.

Wherefore, they were intended for us today, at these modern times where all knowledge has tremendously increased, but also the increase of many pestilences, pandemics, and unresolved problems.

Most common are the pandemics of avarice for world domination, globalization, absolute control of the poor and the vulnerable, which has been the psychopathic epidemic of the certain few who always dreamed of a dystopian, unequal and unjust society, since the creation of the cosmos. Revealing that our world is ruled by the cosmocratoras=world rulers, the evil spirits, the powers and principalities of the air through the sons of disobedience, who love to play god.

The inward Jew:

And since the Jew is the one inwardly and not outwardly and the circumcision is that of the heart in the Spirit, and not of the letter, therefore, circumcision of the foreskin is totally unnecessary, especially the mutilation of women.

Surely in the twenty first century, common sense must overcome Stone Age beliefs and dysfunctional pagan traditions.

Another important factor is the physical stoning of a man or a woman and only for some petty thing due to an unavoidable circumstance, a moment of weakness of ignorance.

Bearing in mind that God gave us His Logos to teach us, to give us spiritual enlightenment to forgive and to forget and to save us and not to kill one another for our mistakes. Love even our enemy?

The days of our ignorance the Lord turns a blind eye... so must a brother towards his brother.

Hatred is like gangrene.

Paul the example of the true disciple was stoned, but he did not die, the written does not mention that Paul was fatally wounded, because the stoning is of the Law, refers to conviction of the subconscious mind and heart, therefore, it is conceptual, it is spiritual and not physical.

Stoning a person, it is cruel, it is evil, and should become globally illegal and punishable and no religion should be above the law, no religion should have license to kill.

You shall not kill is the global law.

Blind guides, who strain out a gnat and swallow a camel! Mat.23:24

No man has the right to take the scripture literally and use the letter of the Law to harm another.

It is the Law which draws us out of the devil's den, out of slavery to lead us to the gates of the Promised Land, preparing the way for Jesus (Joshua) to take over.

It will be Moses, the personification of the Law who will be the accuser of every man, including all the religious hierarchs.

The Biblical stoning refers to the Law, it is the Law which does the stoning, judgement, and conviction, for reproof, for correction, for instruction into righteousness; and not physically stoning some wretched man or woman.

No man should judge another concerning spiritual things, since vainly puffed up by his fleshy mind has intruded into those things which he had never understood, totally ignoring that spiritual things only spiritually are discerned.

The biggest example are the religious hell raisers of the medieval times, especially the notorious witch hunt, torturing and burning alive innocent and totally ignorant and uneducated people, who knew nothing of the Logos of God and God's offer of salvation.

Blood thirsty, malicious persons tried to force their dysfunctional beliefs upon the biblically ignorant Populus, and all for the love of their god.

The Lord God is God of order, respect and mercy and not of disorder and anarchy, the concept which He proves by emptying, lowering Himself, taking the form as of the natural man within the biblical environment and in order to give man spiritual enlightenment concerning His divine eternity.

No man is entitled to take the scripture literally and twist the spiritual and transcendent into a physical reality, the reason Jesus purposely puts a division between the earthly things and the heavenly. John 3:12

This proves the apostasy towards God by the manmade militant religions on the planet since the dawn of man which continued through the medieval times, including the crusades, persons who took the name of God in vain and slaughtered millions worldwide.

The assumed God loving religions who built their wealth upon the tears and the blood of slavery.

The calamity of errors... by the spirit of error, they who imagine themselves to be gods, to be worshipped, the ungodly, immoral roots of counterfeit Christianity including all the religious militants worldwide. They, who play god and whose dysfunctional desire is to rule the world.

Do not touch, do not taste, do not handle...

I will certainly touch; I will most definitely taste, and I will thoroughly handle...

False religious doctrines of the self-righteous, who strain the gnat and swallow the camel, are always ready to shed blood, thirsty to taste "the sweet" revenge against the man who disagrees and does not follow their paradox doctrines.

The self-righteous, the wicked rulers whose loving god by some incomprehensible reason turns into a punisher and a killer.

Like a roaring lion and a charging bear is a wicked ruler over poor people. Pro.28:15

The reason why, no part of the scripture for any paradox reason should be taken literally and turn the love of the true God into hate and revenge, the God whose solo aim is to save man's soul from the evil and permanent death; and not to destroy it.

Inviting man and freely offering him, His divine eternity, against the defiance of him who has the power of death.

The Lord's decree to all those who obey the evil and practice it:

You are of your father the devil, and the desires of your father you want to do.

He was a murderer from the beginning, and does not stand in the truth, because there is no truth in him.

When he speaks a lie, he speaks from his own resources, for he is a liar and the father of it.

But because I tell the truth, you do not believe Me. John 8:44-45

Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil walks about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour. 1Peter 5:8

We live the beginning of the end, the beginning of pestilence, wars and tribulations caused by the dystopian society, who have been trying and for many centuries to abolish human rights and freedom of speech. Persons who have created AI, artificial intelligence, manmade soulless machines to think for the people, so that people no longer think for themselves, but become sheep driven to the slaughter, while Satan their father and master, like a roaring lion is seeking whom he may devour.

So, the great dragon was cast out, that serpent of old, called the Devil and Satan, who deceives the whole world; he was cast to the earth and his angels were cast out with him. Rev.12:9

Therefore rejoice, O heavens, and you who dwell in them! Woe to the inhabitants of the earth and the sea! For the devil has come down to you, having great wrath, because he knows that he has a short time. Rev.12:12

But even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled to those who are perishing, whose minds the god of this age (of this world) has blinded them all, who do not believe, lest the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine on them. 2Cor.4:3-4

God the Father:

God is the Father of the seed of the woman, the designated son of man, the human, whereas the devil is the father of man's flesh.

And it is the human God wants to create first into a Living soul and after into a Living Spirit and in His image and in His likeness.

Yet another concept which reveals that no man was ever created in the image and likeness of God, and if he was, God wouldn't have accused him that his father was the devil, which obviously refers to all those who are ruled by their fleshy side.

Evidently, the aim of the Logos is to free us from the devil, through the price of the crucifixion, obviously referring to the undressing of our old man who bears the primal and killer instinct.

The scripture clearly reveals who and what we are and also why we need salvation of our soul, and only if we so desire. He who wants to hear.

Jesus was speaking prophetically to the past generations and to those of today who make the same false claim that their father is Abraham.

Abram renamed Abraham, conquered the 5 and 4 kings and the 5 and 4 cities, which is a conceptual story, referring to the conquering of the knowledge of Moses and of the Prophets through the testimony of Jesus, and who declares that, before Abraham I am...

The 5 books of the Law, the Pentateuch and the 4 Gospels. The Law and the Spirit.

The 5 pillars of the holy-place and the 4 pillars of the Holiest, the Tabernacle in the wilderness. Which is built by craft, through knowledge and wisdom, also pointing to the feeding of the 5 and the 4 thousands with 5 barley loaves and 7 wheat loaves, 12 loaves in total, which contain all the spiritual knowledge, the true disciple needs to learn, yet again referring to the Law and the Spirit.

What the above is saying is this, if you deny God and His instructions, you are a son of the devil, since you reject the good and choose the evil. You must love, one of your masters and reject the other.

Illustrating the binary of man's natural characteristics.

The concept Jesus makes ever so clear, adding that no man can serve two masters and he who is without sin, let him cast the first stone.

Jesus explicitly exposes (from the foundation of the cosmos) that our world is ruled by the devil, he who has the power of death, while his entourage are described as the dark and wicked spirits of the heavenlies, the powers and principalities of the air, the world rulers.

That through death (the death of the flesh) He might destroy him who had the power of death, that is, the devil, and release those who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage. Heb.2:14-15

Through the death "crucifixion" of the flesh "undressing the old man" ousting the seed of the devil, the devil is defeated, death is defeated.

It is a must to defeat the evil seed which we all inherit from nature, the designated flesh.

He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the ἐκκλησίας-Ecclesias. He who overcomes shall not be hurt by the second death. Rev.2:11

Ecclesias=in plural, they who have been called and came out of the world's vanities, while the first death is the death of the flesh, the natural firstborn being crucified.
He who does not bear his own cross cannot be my disciple. Every true disciple, therefore, must undress his old man.

The majority through lack of discernment have misinterpreted the flesh with our natural body, which when we receive the spiritual seed becomes the Temple of God. Wherefore, God does not want us to destroy our natural body, it is only common sense.

Through the death of our flesh "lusts of the flesh" and not our body, he, who has the power of death is destroyed.

The very reason the Genesis six-day creation, refers to the spiritual creation of our mortal soul into a Living soul. Adam became a Living soul specifically on the sixth day.

Reference to the flesh:

For I know that in me, that is, in my flesh nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. Rom.7:18

For the good that I will, to do I do not do; but the evil I will, not to do that I practice Rom.7:18-19
In my flesh nothing good dwells, and not in my body, which keeps and protects my soul.

The above reveals how strong is the deception and temptation, and how weak and vulnerable we all are, and without spiritual enlightenment, without the Godly knowledge and wisdom obtained through Christ Jesus, the implanted Logos, we are lost sheep, destined to die.

Illustrating that there is much more to our existence, and only for God's plans and purposes, therefore, we have been explicitly created to defeat the evil and death.

If every man were honest with himself and admitted his weaknesses, his vain desires, caused by the evil within, this world would have been a better place, peaceful and harmonious, and without the self-risen religious Stone Age paraphernalia.

The accusers of heresy, discord, hypocrisy, and immorality due to the deformity of their fleshy mind. Like father like son?

Jesus Himself was accused by the religious despots, the scribes and the Pharisees to be a heretic, a blasphemer, even possessed by demons.

The duality of characteristics of all the descendants of the natural evolution, men of dust:

And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your seed and her seed; He shall bruise your head, and you shall bruise His heel. Gen.3:15

The Lord exposes and separates the two seeds which we all inherit from nature, "our two natural characteristics", our double mindedness, the seed of the devil and the seed of the woman.

The flesh "seed of the devil" comes under the judgements of the Law "curses" and the seed of the woman, the son of man, comes under grace "blessings".

The two who bear enmity towards one another, which will only manifest "show their true colours" when our heart conceives the spiritual seed, Jesus the embodiment of the Logos, sharper than a two-edged sword, who exposes and separates the two. The Logos, the discernor of our heart's thoughts.

The two seeds, the one nominated to be wise and the other to be foolish.

Do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing...Matthew 6:3

The above decrees confirm that we do have two different sides, two different characteristics. As the Jekyll and Hyde syndrome.

But I tell you not to resist an evil person. But whoever slaps you on your right cheek, turn the other to him also. Mat.5:39

When we are accused by our evil side "slaps our cheek", we offer him our other cheek also, which means we withstand the temptation. We do resist because our wrestle is not against flesh and blood, but against the dark evil spirits, the powers and principalities of the air.

The commandment of the Lord: withstand the devil and he will flee from you. Endure temptation.

But I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members. Rom.7:23
A double minded man is unstable in all his ways. James 1:8
Therefore, do not let your good be spoken of as evil... Rom.14:16

The above decrees apply to one man who bears two opinions, double minded, because he suspends between the two conflicting seeds. His two members warring against one another.

I find then the law, the one who wills me to do good, that evil is present with me. Rom.7:21

The Law of sin, which is in our members in plural, disturbs our human intellect, the spirit of our mind which the Lord offers to renew.

The evil seed which only the Law-Moses makes manifest, lifts up and exposes.

And as the evil seed is lifted up "exposed" so is the good seed, the seed of the woman, the son of man.

Both seeds are made manifest by the Law, Jesus the embodiment of the Logos comes and divides. Jesus, the indwelling Logos of truth.

The Logos which becomes flesh and anchors His Tent inside the heart of the true disciple (s) unto whom it is given to know the mysteries of the Kingdom of the heavens, in plural, referring to the three heavens.

The three stages of learning, divided into three Tabernacles, as three dimensional, which eventually become the three Storey Temple of God. Built upon the foundation of Moses, of the Prophets and of Jesus.

At the mouth of two and three witnesses every word becomes established.

The good seed that falls onto the good ground and brings forth fruit, after it has been watered "scourged and chastised" by the Law and begins to germinate, regenerate and grow, increased by God.

Even a child is known by his deeds, whether what he does is pure and right. Prov. 20:11

No one, up until now, has assessed in any way the purpose of our temporary existence or even what we are made of; and how did we appear on this planet?

Too many hypothetical suppositions concerning the beginning of our evolution, but not the reason why?

Even though the evidence is concealed within the biblical literature, the majority keeps on denying.

How, were we created and without a creator?

The creator whom all the religions on this earth have turned into a despot, a man magnified.

Whose divine power has given to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of Him who called us by glory and virtue. 2Pet.1:3

Professing to be wise, they became fools, and changed the glory of the incorruptible God into an image made like corruptible man, and birds and four-footed animals and creeping things. Rom.1:22-23

You shall not kill, was and still is a far cry, as far as the vainly puffed up fleshy minded religious...

Today, the stability of the world is threatened mainly by the religious extremists and fundamentalists through brainwashing, kamikazes wrapped up with explosives, who also carry bazookas and rocket launchers, the self-righteous who stubbornly deny the laws of God, deny God and His Christ.

Totally denying that they, just as everyone else bear the evil seed, which only the Living and powerful Logos of God can uproot, can crucify, beginning with the righteous judgements of the Law.

Totally ignoring the written:

Anyone who has rejected Moses' law dies without mercy on the testimony of two or three witnesses.

Of how much worse punishment, do you suppose, will he be thought worthy who has trampled the Son of God underfoot, counted the blood of the covenant by which He was sanctified a common thing, and insulted the Spirit of grace? Hebrews10:29

(Eating the flesh and drinking the blood of Jesus is spiritual, referring to the Law and the Spirit).

Moses, the embodiment of the written Law, also the first witness of Christ, (Moses wrote about me) while the other two witnesses are, the Prophets, the oral Law, the Prophetic word: and Jesus' testimony, “Jesus the faithful witness” and who is the fulfillment of both, Moses and of the Prophets for Christ to be formed.

At the mouth of two and three witnesses every word shall be established, every word that proceeded out of the mouth of God.

The Law carries the scales and the sword of justice, and when one of its decrees is broken, there are consequences, because all its decrees are broken.

Jesus the third and faithful witness, who makes possible the grace and truth, the Saviour, the fulfillment and the end of the Law.

And where the spiritual knowledge of the three witnesses is gathered by one man, the Christ manifests, He is in the midst of them, confirming that the Logos of God has become established, the Christ is formed in him and in His image and likeness.

All the spiritual knowledge of the Kingdom, every word is inside him, the Temple of God “the Ecclesia” is established.

Christ the King and the High priest of God in the class of Melchizedek is now inside the Temple of God; and they, “the true disciples” who bear His exact image, they become not only kings and priests with Him, but also sons of the Living God.

Christ is formed, denotes the metamorphosis from the natural to the spiritual that it has been accomplished, obtaining the mind of Christ and who is the image and likeness of God.

He is the Living God, the God who is the Logos.

And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to Myself; that where I am, there you may be also. John 14:3

Wherefore, the one man who comes under the Law, is the man who has coveted the fruit of the tree, (coveted spiritual enlightenment) because he decided to bear the image of Adam, and become as Adam himself, who was the first to break the commandment.

Adam who is portrayed by Jesus, the very reason Jesus manifests in the likeness of the sinful flesh, He carries the sinful flesh of Adam, which continues with Cain, the one marked by God not to be killed, referring to grace, which was to come.

Grace is given as soon as one comes under the power and judgements of the Law, preventing one not to be killed by the Law through reconciliation, until the enmity is put to death.

The enmity (the enemy) within every man is his own flesh.

Through faith, grace is established for being under the judgements of the Law, wherefore, without the Law there is no grace.

The outstanding example is Moses, who is the personification of the written Law, who was not allowed to enter the Promised Land, neither him nor the old generation, the old man singularly referring to the man, who previously lived according to the Law of ordinances who had to die, become dust and ashes in the wilderness for the new man to be born.

The new man built according to Christ steals the birthrights of the old man, the natural firstborn who offers himself to be sacrificed.

The new man being built according to Christ replaces the old man, totally renewed in the spirit of his mind, who previously lived according to the world’s rudiments, who eventually came under the Law.

The man under the Law, branded as the old man and as the old generation who is not associated with the faith in Christ, who cannot accept the things of the Spirit of God as the new man does, equated as the new generation, built according to the instructions given to the spiritual genealogy.

The evil generation of the flesh is blotted out.

Two parallel generations, one of the flesh and the other of the Spirit. The one born after the flesh persecuted the one born after the Spirit.

The new man is the one who went through the regeneration “spiritual creation” and adoption process, created into a Living soul and into a Living Spirit as in the image and likeness of his creator.

Moses, the Law, takes the man “Jacob=supplanter=overcomer” renamed Israel to the borders of the Promised Land (equated as seeing the Land from afar) but Moses-the Law cannot enter, revealing that no man is justified by the Law of ordinances, (self-righteousness) but only by the law of faith in Christ, therefore, Moses must be cut off and pass on the anointing to Joshua referring to Jesus.

Jesus, the Law giver and the end of the Law.

The only One capable to pass “to cross” over every new man, (a continuous process) into the Promised Land, that is, the spiritual Land, the Kingdom of the heavens and not the conceptual land in the Middle East, which is corruptible, a war zone since time and memorial.

Moses-the Law and Jesus-the Saviour by the Law of faith through grace.

Jesus in the face of Joshua takes over from Moses, Jesus testifies why Moses wrote about Him...

For if you believed Moses, you would believe Me; for he wrote about Me. John 5:46

But he said to him: If they do not hear Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded though one rise from the dead. Luke 16:31

The Law was given through Moses, but grace and truth were made possible by Jesus the Saviour:

Wherefore, without the faith in Christ Jesus, no man can be justified, saved by the Law contained in ordinances, because the Law carries the scales and the sword of justice, and the accused without a mediator (a Saviour) he will be judged and be condemned and without mercy.

Jesus’ crucifixion, the imaginative spectacle:

Reading the narrative of the crucifixion just as any other narrative, immediately we begin to paint the imaginative spectacle of the crucifixion. We paint a natural picture in our head-mind. We begin to visualize and also believe that the crucifixion was an actual occurrence, a physical event, unaware of its spiritual true significance and implication, unaware that the story is conceptual, is figurative.

The reason why spiritual discernment of the Logos is so important, it enables us to absorb and at the same time separate the spiritual from the conceptual, based upon the testimony of Jesus; that He is speaking to us of earthly things “figurative, conceptual things” while illustrating that behind the conceptual and hidden are the heavenly things.

The issue Jesus substantiates:

I will open my mouth in parables and utter things kept secret...

I speak to you in a figurative language now...

If I have told you earthly things and you do not believe, how will you believe if I tell you heavenly things? John 3:12

And He said:

To you it has been given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God, but to the rest it is given in parables, that, seeing they may not see, and hearing they may not understand. Luke 8:10

Jesus not only verifies but also endorses, “underlines” the prophetic Logos to His disciples that to understand the mysteries of the Kingdom of God, spoken in figurative language (as unknown tongues) must be given by God Himself.

Taught by God that which is hidden behind the literal embroidery, behind the conceptual stories, the parables.

Evidently, the spiritual knowledge of the Logos is a gift granted by God and only given to the true disciples, defined as God inspired, the Godly gift, which is not given to those who say, Lord, Lord...

The word inspires refers to the spirit, in-spirited.

Jesus’ confirmation to His true disciples:

He answered and said to them: Because it has been given to you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it has not been given. Mat.13:11

The question now is this: is God a respecter of persons? The answer is simple, God respects those who respect Him.

What must be understood is that without the help from God, no man is capable to discern and rightly interpret the spiritual insights of the Logos, which is the only way one recognizes the existence and presence of God. God becomes involved because only He can lose the seals of the book, the seals of His divine Logos.

Four thousand years of Judaism and two thousand years of Christianity proves the very point, both still take the divine literature literally, twisting the conceptual into physical realities. They still see Jesus as a natural man, and not as the personification of the Logos of God, the Logos which is Spirit. The same today, yesterday and forever.

If the written did not say, Καὶ ὁ λόγος σὰρξ ἐγένετο καὶ ἐσκήνωσεν ἐν ἡμῖν, and the Logos became flesh (becomes flesh) and anchors His Tabernacle inside us, inside the heart of the true disciple, they, would've been with excuse. (John 1:14)

The designated, implanted and indwelling Logos-Word, which is capable to save our soul. If the Logos dwells in us, so, does Jesus.

Remark:

The reader must understand that in order to interpret correctly, repetition of many passages is essential and unavoidable.

Evidently, the figurative language is also equated as the unknown tongues, the mysteries and the kept secrets.

Clearly, the majority lack spiritual discernment of the literal narrative and ignorantly believe that every story read, including the crucifixion were physical occurrences and not conceptual and prophetic concealing spiritual knowledge.

The reality is this, they follow the general belief according to their religious doctrines, they transcend the conceptual into a physical reality, totally unaware of its spiritual implications and principles.

The physical crucifixion:

Happens to be the most disputed issue, whether Jesus was physically crucified, which according to John 17:9 Luke 14:27 and 9:23 is contradictory.

But I make known to you, brothers, that the gospel which was preached by me is not according to man.

For I neither received it from man, nor was I taught it, but it came through the revelation of Jesus Christ. Gal.1:11-12

The Evangelion οὐκ ἔστιν κατὰ ἄνθρωπον· The evangelion=good news of salvation was not written according to man's ideologies and astrological beliefs.

Therefore, it is not the documentation of natural events, but conceptual, and prophetic, predestined to be fulfilled in the life of the true disciple, wherefore, a shadow of things to come.

If we take the above decree literally and analyze it according to the chronological timing of the Galatians epistle, Paul never met or saw the natural Jesus, but the Spirit of Jesus, the heavenly Jesus and who is the Christ and God Himself, who lowered-emptied Himself.

Then, how did Paul receive revelation directly from Jesus Christ?

This means that the revelation Paul received was given to him inspirationally from above, by the elevation "snatching" of his mind, outside the body, inside the body, only God knows.

Paul, the example of the true disciple of Christ, and just as every true disciple, Christ promises that He will open his mind to understand the mysteries and the kept secrets of the heavenly Kingdom.

The Prophetic promise of Christ through Jesus was a shadow of things to come.

According to the decree that, what were written earlier were specifically written for us, to learn today.

Fulfilling the written,

All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness, that the man of God (the true disciple, the man bearing the image of Adam) may be complete, thoroughly equipped for every good work.

2Timothy 3:16-17 (Adam, the son of God, Luke 3:38)

All scripture given inspirationally by God was and still is a continuous process, promised to the true disciples that only to them is has been given to know the mysteries of the Kingdom of God.

Receiving the spiritual interpretation “revelation” that which is hidden behind the figurative language, behind the ambiguous literal embroidery; given inspirationally by God from above. Taught by God.

Drawn by my Father:

He who hears and learns from the Father comes to me.

Revealing that the Evangelion of Christ is divine, therefore, spiritual, prepared and written by the author of salvation Himself, the Logos who in the beginning was with God; and God was and still is the Logos today. The Logos which proceeded out of the mouth of God and became flesh, took the form of a man in the face of Jesus. And since it is spiritual only spiritually is discerned.

Another big surprise, Jesus does not pray “ask” to save the whole world:

I pray (ask) for them. I do not pray (ask) for the world, but for those whom You have given Me, for they are Yours.

And all Mine are Yours, and Yours are Mine, and I am glorified in them.

I have given them Your word-Logos; and the world has hated them because they are not of the world, just as I am not of the world.

I do not pray (ask) that You should take them out of the world, but that You should keep them from the evil one. John 17:9-15

And whoever does not bear his own cross and come after Me cannot be My disciple. Luke 14:27
Then He said to them all:

If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his own cross daily, and follow Me. Luke 9:23

Take up your cross daily? Illuminating that the crucifixion of the flesh is a long process and not instantaneous.

Jesus endorses His promise by adding, whoever believes in me, I will raise him up on the last day. Referring to the seventh day, the day after the six-day spiritual creation. Substantiating yet again that the Evangelion of Christ begins from the book of Genesis, the six-day spiritual creation of the man bearing the image of Adam, bearing the image of Jesus.

And whoever believes in Him, refers to all those who were predestined to believe in Him. They, who were and still are willing to put on the image of Adam. They, who will bear the exact image of the Son of God. Jesus’ image for Christ to be formed in them.

The mystery:

According to the general belief, Jesus who was without sin, carried the cross for all of us, He took our place to deliver us from the curse of death. Then, why do we have to carry our own personal cross also? And suffer the same death as He did.

Become, co-planted with Him in His sufferings and in His death?

But He already did it for us, He already paid the price, so, we were made to believe...according to the letter, cursed is he who hangs on the tree...

Jesus said to the repentant man, today you are with me in Paradise, revealing, where the actual crucifixion happens, because it is spiritual and not physical, one is hanged on the two branches of the tree of knowledge, the actual cross.

And it is the risen Jesus who becomes the Christ, and if we die with Him, we will be risen with Him but as the Christ.

If the cross were two planks stuck together, confirms that the preaching of the cross is foolishness?

Because the cross is not two planks stuck together, but the two branches of the tree of knowledge, the tree of spiritual enlightenment and of wisdom.

Revealing that the knowledge of good and evil is the symmetry of reason, of wisdom.

The question now is this, does Jesus want to see all His disciples literally carrying a wooden cross and be nailed on it physically, that will be considered as suicide?

Where are they, who are willing to be crucified physically and become co-planted with Jesus; and up on their own cross? And how could any man bear the death of Jesus, unless one is crucified, co-planted with Him?

Co-planted with Him, because He is the implanted Logos, which is capable to save one from the bondage of death, to save one's soul, one's humanity.

Yet again revealing that Jesus' crucifixion was not a physical act, but psychological and spiritual, through knowledge "inspirational divine enlightenment-revelation" and understanding.

The disciple's own cross are the two branches of the tree, because he has accepted to bear the image of Adam, and as Adam himself eat of the tree of knowledge, given to him by the woman. But where is Eve the woman, to give him the fruit of the tree?

The answer: Bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh. So, Eve the woman manifests "is created" out of the bone of Adam, referring to one's own soul.

Eve, the woman dwells inside Adam Himself and it is the spiritual enlightenment which makes her manifest.

Eve, the woman-female as the "flesh" of Adam, his opposing and conflicting seed, also, as Adam's wisdom and future bride.

The creation of Eve from within Adam was a prophetic and spiritual declaration, a shadow of things to come. Everyman who bears the image of Adam has his own Eve, the woman to contend with.

It is written that in the Lord, there is neither male nor female...

And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your seed and her seed; He shall bruise your head, and you shall bruise His heel. Gen.3:15

Counterfeit Christianity considers the water baptism as the crucifixion, but the water baptism only stands as the antitype of the flood, the former rains, referring to the knowledge and judgements of the Law, when under grace, having built one's ark at 600. Who previously at 500 he has inspirationally and received the knowledge concerning the three witnesses. Moses, the Prophets and Jesus, designated as three gifts.

Noah, at 500 (spiritual age and maturity) gave birth to three sons, bore fruit. The three he takes with him onboard the Ark and who, two years after the flood remained 100 years old. One hundred-fold.

Floating, walking upon the waters, walking in the Laws of God, when 600, when of spiritual age and maturity, after eating the bread of sorrow, the 5 loaves of the barley bread.

If we put on the image of Adam, we also put on the image of Noah, we walk inside the book of life, gathering 12 baskets by 50 fragments, equaling 600 fragments.

The flood of the outpouring of God's Laws, for man to become submerged in the Laws, the former rains, the waters of judgement and of death, until the latter rains come, referring to the baptism of the Holy Spirit. Eating the wheat bread, the hidden manna, 7 wheat loaves broken into 350 fragments and gathered into 7 baskets, the concept which only concerns the true disciples of Jesus, those whom God foreknows, those whom He also invites and justifies...

As Noah reached the spiritual age and maturity of 950, also does the true disciple. Bearing in mind that only as Noah one could enter the rest of God. Noah literally means "rest".

God's calling and mercy have been echoing through the ages, concerning the salvation of the world, but not many of the world have been listening.

He who hears let him hear. He who hungers and thirsts, let him eat and drink... He who asks, seeks and knocks, he shall receive, he shall find and only to him the heavenly gate will open, after he knocks.

Now the rational conclusion:

According to the general belief, Jesus offered His physical body to be sacrificed, to be nailed on a wooden cross shedding His blood, clearly implying that He had already paid the full price of redemption for all.

That means, His physical sacrifice has already paid the ransom for all mankind, to save everyman from him who had the power of death, that is the devil. (Heb.2:14)

But not according to John 17:9 as it has been mentioned earlier, where Jesus prays and specifically only asks for those who truly seek God's Kingdom and righteousness, those whom God the Father already "foreknew", based upon the prophetic promise, those He foreknew, those He called...

Another vital issue and subject to interpretation for clarity, who are they, or who is the man that God already foreknew? Whether it is taken in singular or in plural.

According to an old saying, I do not know you from Adam! Sums it all up.

This means that God only foreknows, recognizes only those who bear and will bear the image of Adam, and who is portrayed by Jesus as the earthly Adam and Christ as the heavenly.

And if one bears the image of the earthly, he shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

Moreover, whom He predestined, these He also called; whom He called, these He also justified; and whom He justified, these He also glorified. Romans 8:30

Romans 8:30 even though it is written in past tense, still, it was prophetic, a continuous process, right through the centuries, shadow of things to come, because all prophesies were destined for us today, when knowledge is continually increasing.

It is written in the past tense, because God has already ordained His Logos and destined to be fulfilled, because for God, who is in the future (He is the future) has already been fulfilled. And we, are looking at all things written as in a mirror enigmatically... as time travelers.

Man becomes aware of the spiritual knowledge and implications of the divine Logos, when he seriously enters the biblical arena, puts on the armour of God to fight the spiritual battle for the crown of glory. The promised riches and glory in Christ Jesus, the prepared by Christ spiritual habitation.

What Jesus said to the repentant man, while they were both suspending on their own cross, the man who became co-planted with Jesus? Today you are with me in Paradise, (and the third heaven) suspending with me on the tree of knowledge.

Today you've crucified your sinful flesh with me, therefore, I have elevated your mind and spiritually enlightened. And as I have promised: I will raise you up on the last day.

And they who become like Adam are the ones called and predestined to be justified, those declared righteous and entitled to eat from the tree of life.

The above declarations they are clearly conceptual, is there a natural tree of knowledge and of wisdom; and is there a natural tree of life? Obviously not, because both trees are God Himself.

God of knowledge and God of wisdom. Beginning of knowledge and of wisdom, fear of God.

And since God emptied "lowered" Himself and took on the form of man, as in the form of Jesus Christ, therefore, the tree of knowledge is Jesus, and the tree of life is Christ. I and the Father are One.

Jesus prepares the way for Christ to come and to be formed. Christ Jesus who is the image and likeness of God.

Unless one eats from the tree of knowledge of good and evil and break the commandment, you shall not touch or eat of the tree, because you shall die, and come under the judgements of the Law, one will never come under grace, never entitled to eat from the tree of life.

The tree of life will remain guarded until one eats from the tree of knowledge and crucifies his sinful flesh first, only then the tree of life will be left unguarded, just as it was the tree of knowledge.

The two cherubs, the guardians of the tree represent good and evil. The two cherubs touch their wings as they are pictured on the Ark of the covenant, which symbolizes the heart of the man suspending, walking between god and evil, learning good and evil.

When one overcomes evil, one is entitled to eat the fruit of everlasting life, nominated as the fruit of the tree of life, with healing in its leaves.

Eating the fruit of knowledge, one immediately comes under the power of the Law; since it is the Law, the accuser who crucifies the sinful flesh. Crucifies the old man of the animal nature, the seed of the devil which is from nature embedded inside every man.

They, who eat from the tree will find justification, through the washing and the cleansing by the word “the Logos” of truth, the Logos of faith in Christ, equated as the pure water, depicted by the Hellenic writings as the Lutron, depicting a hot steamy bath, referring to a head bath, designated as the renewal of the mind.

Lutron not only refers to a head bath, and renewal of the mind, but also refers to the purification of the heart from all the evil. Not only washing, but also cleansing.

The Logos of truth washes and cleanses the soul and the heart from all impurities, from all the evil thoughts, caused by the evil seed within, the reason we must be renewed in the spirit of our mind.

Even though, our old man is perishing, our new man is renewed, the spirit of our mind is renewed...

They, who are willing to put on, bear the image of Adam and become as Adam themselves, they will covet the fruit of the tree of spiritual enlightenment in order to have their mind elevated and opened to the reality and purpose of their natural existence.

Become aware that the tree of knowledge is Jesus Himself. And the tree of life is Christ.

To obtain the promised riches in Christ Jesus, co heirs of Christ, and heirs of God.

They, who accept the Logos of truth inside their heart, the Logos becomes personified, becomes flesh, becomes a person, and anchors His Tent, the Tabernacle of His flesh inside their heart.

When we bear the image of the earthly Adam, we also bear the image of Jesus.

Christ Jesus to whom the Lord God said, let Him be light, and He was light...

According to the original Hebrew prophetic text:

a light = אור masculine singular.

God was speaking to a person, Let Him be the light. and not let there be light, as if He was speaking to the vacuum of space.

God today just as yesterday is speaking to us through Jesus “the personification of His Logos” and who in sequence becomes flesh to portray the man Adam, therefore, it makes Adam a conceptual character and not physical one.

Jesus portraying the man Adam stands as the type of Him to come, pointing to Christ.

Jesus, the prototype, the stereotype, the role model for us all.

Christ Jesus to whom God said: let us make man in our image and in our likeness...

God puts a distance between the Lord Christ above and the Lord Jesus below.

Jesus the one who is right now and who was with God and Christ the one who is to come.

Everyone must bear in mind that Jesus Christ is the Spirit of the Logos and not a man magnified.

Testifying that the Logos, which proceeds out of the mouth of God, it is Spirit, and it is Life.

Confirmation that the Logos is Spirit:

And He said to them: You are from beneath; I am from above. You are of this world; I am not of this world. John 8:23

God is speaking to us through His prophetic Logos today just as yesterday, naming the Logos which proceeded out of His mouth Christ Jesus. The Anointed Saviour, My words they are Spirit, and they are Life.

Question:

How does a man who is born from a natural mother, born into the world a natural man, denies his natural birth and testifies that, He is not of this world?

Jesus cryptically reveals that He is the one portraying the first Adam:

Behold My hands and My feet, that it is I Myself. Handle Me and see, for a spirit does not have flesh and bones as you see I have. Luke 24:39

It is written that flesh blood shall not inherit the Kingdom of the heavens. The bones of Jesus, define a mystery, and refer to the soul. No bone of Jesus shall be broken.

The very words, the Adam of the Paradise Garden uttered when he saw Eve, the woman.

This is now bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh; she shall be called woman, because she was taken out of man. Gen.2:23

That is why Eve is a mystery, she is conceptual, and portrays several roles.

Jesus illustrates to the doubting Thomas (Didymus-the twain), the two seeds who are being reconciled, after the enmity is put to death for the two to become one new man.

The one side of Thomas is the doubter, while the other side is the believer.

Jesus, the resurrected first Adam as the living soul, reveals Himself to His disciples, waiting to be ascended and be transformed into the heavenly Adam, the Christ and who is the Living Spirit, who has no bone and no flesh.

The resurrected Jesus and now the Christ, out of nowhere suddenly appeared among His disciples, who thought He was a ghost.

The two Adams can be seen together in motion... Jesus the earthly becomes Christ the heavenly.

The divine directive:

Let us make man in our image and in our likeness, spoken in plural, has remained a mystery up until now, since the written confirms that God is One.

I am the Lord, and there is no other; there is no other God besides Me... Isaiah 45:5

The self-risen religious, ignorantly turned God into a trio, assuming that the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit were three different entities instead of three levels and stages of learning.

God is One. The only wise God. Since there is one God (Rom 3:30) and Father of all. (Eph.4:6) For there is one God. (1Tim.2:5) You have spoken the truth, for there is one God, and there is no other but He. (Mark 12:32)

Spoken by God the Father, who voluntarily emptied, lowered Himself to take on the form of man in the flesh of Jesus and in the image of Christ, who in continuation portrays the two Adams.

Proving beyond doubt that God is One, and that Christ Jesus is the One and only true God.

I and the Father are One...I am in the Father; and the Father is in me...no man comes to me unless he is drawn by my Father, and no man comes to the Father, but only through me.

And who sees me sees the Father.

For in Him dwells all the fullness of the Godhead bodily; and you are complete in Him, who is the head of all principality and power. Col.2:9-10

The commandment: Be renewed in the spirit of your mind.

Among them we too all formerly lived in the lusts of our flesh, indulging the desires of the flesh and of the mind, and were by nature children of wrath, even as the rest. Eph.2:3

Eph.2:3 includes all mankind, despite nationality emphasizing that we all are children of wrath.

Flesh and mind. The flesh must perish for the mind to be renewed. Renewal of the mind and purification of the heart and soul from evil, for a healthy mind and pure heart.

And now the Lord is the Spirit. God is Spirit and only in spirit and in truth...

The plain truth:

Jesus by portraying the man of the sinful flesh, (He who has no sin) crucifies Himself together with the sinful flesh of the man bearing the image of Adam.

There is no condemnation of those in Christ.

But, to achieve all (victory over death) we have to consider all temporary things as rubbish in order to receive the Excellency of the knowledge of Christ.

Yet indeed I also count all things loss for the excellence of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord, for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and count them as rubbish, that I may gain Christ and be found in Him, not having my own righteousness, which is from the law, but that which is through faith in Christ, the righteousness which is from God by faith; that I may know

Him and the power of His resurrection, and the fellowship of His sufferings, being conformed to His death, if, by any means, I may attain to the resurrection from the dead.

The above reveals that living according to the Law of ordinances, as many do claim, makes one self-righteous, self-risen religions, worship of angels, who are not serving God.

Jesus was asked: Who is my mother, and my brothers? Mark 3:33

Jesus answered:

For whoever does the will of God is My brother and My sister and mother. Mark 3:35

One must always bear in mind that in the Lord there is neither male nor female.

Mark 3:35 not only defines but also substantiates that Jesus' birth wasn't and is not a natural birth, but spiritual, designated as the implanted Logos.

The question: How is it possible for a male disciple to be the mother of Jesus, also His brother and His sister?

Confirmed by the written: Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God, see the implanted Logos inside them. The Logos which becomes flesh, takes the form of a man in the face of Jesus the Christ to come.

Jesus, the way, the truth, and the life; the Firstborn (of God) the role model among many adopted brothers. Fulfilling the written, unless you are born above, born of God, born in the spirit of your mind. The Logos who in the beginning was with God; and God was and still is the Logos today.

Jesus clearly confirms that His mother is not a single woman, because His birth is unnatural and He is born from within many mothers, many disciples, who conceive the spiritual seed through hearing. The seed that falls onto the good earth, the virgin earth.

He is born inside the heart of the person bearing the image of Adam who seeks God's Kingdom and righteousness.

After (the Logos) is conceived by the one man and one woman who have obeyed to do the will of God.

Revealing that the mother of Jesus is the person, (male and female) who does the will of God, and who bears the image of Adam, son of God. (Read Luke 3:38)

The disciple "the believer, Jesus' follower" puts on the exact image of God's own Son.

Today, if you will hear His voice...

Jesus the way, the First to crucify the sinful flesh and the First to be resurrected from the dead, stands the pioneer and the role model for us all.

His commandment: lift up your own cross and follow me...

Jesus' iconic crucifixion must happen to all of us, since we have decided to bear His image.

The cross as it has been revealed, refers to the two branches of the tree of knowledge of good and evil, the two opposing branches with the two opposing seeds, the two opposing strands of our DNA. Crossed in conflict, to manifest the enmity between them. Enmity the opposite of love.

The cross is the central point where the two seeds meet and confront one another, after the middle wall of partition, the fortified wall has been demolished. Therefore, the cross is conceptual.

Religious militants have purposely twisted the conceptual into a physical reality, but we have never seen any religious hierarch to crucify himself physically, after all, it is the commandment of Jesus.

Charlatans falsely claiming that they've found the actual cross, the two planks stuck together even the nails, also Jesus' tomb, His birthplace and so forth, which is a pack of lies, myths and delusions, vainly puffed up by their fleshy minds deviated by the spirit of error.

Purposely done for to control their vulnerable followers, they who worship relics, the blind leading the blind, they even sell them holy water, water from the tap full of chlorine. They, who have been selling woolen jumpers even to Polar bears.

The natural cross used by the Romans was only punishment for criminals, and since our flesh is the criminal (the irrational, child of wrath) God uses the cross but only as a conceptual parallel.

The two branches of the tree, good and evil, become crossed revealing the enmity for to crucify the flesh bearing the evil seed.

He shall crash your head...through knowledge by the renewal of the mind, obviously.

The crucifixion specifically happens on Golgotha=cranium-Scull, cryptically pointing to one's head and mind, where Jesus the implanted Logos (sharper than a two-edged sword) suspends between the two thieves. One either side of Jesus who is right in their midst.

Jesus the embodiment of the Logos becomes flesh and pitches the Tabernacle of His flesh inside the heart of the disciple and between the two seeds, the theme purposely I continually repeat.

The very picture which we paint outside is what must happen inside us. Thus, to cause division and to separate the two opposite forces within ourselves in order to crucify the flesh, to undress the old man with the primal demonic instinct.

The two, equated as two branches and as two thieves. Both thieves want to steal each other's lawful birthright, and each other's blessings.

And the one that repents, Jesus tells him.

Today you are with me in the Paradise Garden, and also the third heaven, where the two trees have been planted. Jesus takes the past and the future and brings them to the present.

After the crucifixion the bad branch is cut off; therefore, the repentant man is now entitled to eat from the tree of life. The tree of knowledge, of spiritual enlightenment has become the tree of Life. Gen. 2:9 and Rev. 22:2

To the victor it has been given to eat of the tree of life...

The case scenario of the ark of the covenant inside the holiest, which represents the heart of man, with the two Cherubs, either side, the two guardians of the tree of life, signifying good and evil. And when the evil is removed, cut off; the son of man is free to eat of the tree of life.

We can clearly see that the literal embroidery is symbolic, conceptual, concealing spiritual knowledge. Therefore, not physical but ingeniously arranged and written for our admonition, which only the Lord, the Author Himself can reveal, inspirationally.

Jesus vanishes from the tomb:

Jesus, the Living soul is transformed into the Living Spirit, becomes the Christ, and this is exactly what happens within the true disciple, the Living and powerful Logos transforms the man, the "adopted son" of God into the image and likeness of Jesus Christ who is the exact image of God. God who is the Logos.

Jesus, as the earthly and Christ as the heavenly and spiritual, and as we have borne the image of the one, we shall also bear the image of the other.

Jesus, as the earthly Jerusalem, and Christ as the heavenly; and if we bear the exact image of Jesus, we will also bear the exact image of Christ.

Character reference to the believer and true disciple of Jesus:

The tomb of Jesus happens to be inside the true disciple, whereas the stone that is removed, refers to the stone heart, Jesus changes into a fleshy heart, in the likeness of His flesh. It is the disciple who eats, Jesus' flesh and drinks His blood, because he puts on His image.

Jesus the embodiment of the Logos is inside the disciple, just as the cross is, as also the birth, the death, and resurrection of Jesus. Everything happens within, it is spiritual.

Spiritual things only spiritually are discerned and understood.

He makes us Συμμόρφους τῆς εἰκόνης τοῦ υἱοῦ αὐτοῦ=makes us identical "mirror image" of God's own Son. Rom.8:29 (Orig. Hellenic text).

We put on the exact image of God's own, we become adopted sons of God, for Jesus to be the Firstborn among many brothers; and our firstborn is our sinful fleshy man who bears the evil seed, and who must be sacrificed, for the son of man to be raised.

He who does not lift up his own cross and come after me...

We do exactly what Jesus “our brother and Lord” does, we crucify our sinful flesh (Jesus who is without sin manifests in the likeness of the sinful flesh) the Logos becomes flesh and pitches the Tabernacle of His flesh inside our heart. Jesus becomes one with us. Crucifying the sinful flesh, it is a spiritual process, through the faith in Christ, through knowledge and understanding. Through the Excellency of His knowledge.

Evidence of the two Adams:

(Luke 24:25-27) The resurrected Jesus now, as the Christ speaks to the two disciples, the twain, the one named Cleopa and the other not, because his name has been blotted out.

According to the written: two men in one bed (death bed and inside the same body) the one man is taken, and the other man is left... the two men represent the duality “the two seeds” inside one man, the outward and the inward man.

Therefore, the name of the evil seed has been blotted out, not found inside the book of life.

The name of the fleshy old man since he has been crucified is no longer found, and only the name of the new man, is mentioned.

The one who has been waiting for the resurrected Jesus the Saviour and now the Christ, to take him, because He has already prepared a place for him in His Father’s mansions. As He had promised.

Jesus speaks to the two seeds, equated as two disciples, the one named and the other not:

Then He (the resurrected Jesus and now the Christ) said to them: O foolish ones, and slow of heart to believe in all that the prophets have spoken!

Ought not the Christ to have suffered these things and to enter into His glory?

And beginning at Moses and all the Prophets, He expounded to them in all the scriptures the things concerning Himself.

Christ, the Logos of God in heaven and Jesus, the Logos of God on earth.

The Lord said to my Lord...

The Lord in heaven said to my Lord on earth. The Logos from heaven descends on earth. Angels “spiritual messages” ascending and descending on the son of man.

Essentially,

John 8:23 needs to be thoroughly reviewed and by all those who insist that Jesus came on earth as a natural man, even though He testifies that He is from above and not of this world.

We will always imagine Jesus as a man, that is the picture we all paint in our mind, even though we came to understand that He is Spirit.

To bear His image is only achieved spiritually, since He is the embodiment of the Logos, the Mystery which has been kept secret in God since the foundation of the cosmos.

The Logos becomes flesh, becomes a person within a person, confirmed by Paul who stands the very example of the true disciple and who has recognized his duality of characteristics.

Boldly testifying that with Christ he was crucified, and he no longer lives, but Christ lives in him, referring to “the Living and powerful logos of God” implanted inside him which made him spiritually alive.

My little children, for whom I labour in birth again until Christ is formed ἐν ὑμῖν=inside you. Gal.4:19

Jesus prepares the way for Christ to be formed inside us.

Paul, as the prophetic example of the true disciple especially for all the disciples of today, asks everyone to mimic Him as He has been mimicking Christ.

Saul as the old man and Paul as the new man. Saul, renamed Paul, was given a new name by Jesus and it translates “the desire of the small seed”

The Logos:

At that day you will know that I am in My Father, and you in Me, and I, in you. John 14:20
Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. Mat.11:29

Saul-Paul stands as the very example of the true disciple and Apostle who achieved the spiritual transformation to bear the image of Christ by undressing his old man Saul borne the image of Jesus. Whom he “inspirationally, spiritually” encountered on the road to Damascus, on the road to humbleness, dust, and ashes, equated as wearing sackcloth, the literal meaning of Damascus. Denoting that God only dwells in the humble man’s heart, God who was and still is the Logos today.

Saul, as the man who knows the Law (who sat at the feet of Gamaliel, teacher of the law) and comes under the righteous judgements of the Law, which led him to the faith in Christ Jesus who he encounters on his way to humbleness, the road to Damascus, Jesus whom he persecuted. (Moses wrote about me).

Saul after his experience and awakening Saul was convicted and chastised by Jesus, he received a new name, and immediately he was sent to the street called straight, to heal his spiritual blindness, and be guided on the right pathway. Jesus, the right way, the only truth, and the real life.

Paul’s testimony:

Therefore, having obtained help from God to this day I stand, witnessing both to small and great, saying no other things than those which the prophets and Moses said would come, that the Christ would suffer, that He would be the first to rise from the dead, and would proclaim light to the τῷ λαῷ=His people Israel (not specifically the Jews) and to the ἔθνεσιν=nations. Acts 26:22-23 (Orig. Hellenic text)

(The Jews, they who say they are Jews and are not (Rev.2:9 and 3:9) the scribes and the Pharisees who hijacked the title Jew; and who wanted to kill Jesus, they who falsely claimed that their father was Abraham. Jesus told them who their father was).

(The written already explains who the true Jew is, not one outwardly in the flesh, but one inwardly in the Spirit).

(Please note: the Hellenic text simply says τῷ λαῷ, referring to Jesus’ people, His true disciples, His brothers, His sisters and His mothers, whether in singular or in plural, independent of ethnicity and gender, the nominated Israel of God, and it does not say Jewish nation; and the very reason why, never there was an epistle addressed to the Jews.

Jesus the King of the Jews? When was Jesus physically the King of the Jews?

Those who claimed that they were Jews, and children of Abraham and they were not; and who wanted to kill Jesus.

Did not Moses give you the law, yet none of you keeps the law? Why do you seek to kill Me? John 7:19

However, no one spoke openly of Him for fear of the Jews. John 7:13

That same fear still exists today, the majority stay quiet, just in case the so-called Jews are offended, they of the Babylonian Talmud and the Tanakh, which are based not according to the Torah, Moses and the Prophets, but according to personal rabbinical attitudes, “manmade” opinions.

Jacob, renamed Israel, “the overcomer” whose roots come from Mesopotamia if taken the scriptures literally. But Jacob-Israel is and was a conceptual character and signifies the man who struggles with God and who rests his head upon the rock doctrine of Christ which enables him to see the stairway to heaven. The stairway to the three heavens and the Paradise of God, the three spiritual elevations “platforms” of spiritual knowledge of spiritual enlightenment of the mind and heart.

Unless one is born above, born, renewed in the spirit of his mind, awakened to the things of the spirit of God, also born of water and of spirit, neither he can see, nor he can enter the heavenly Kingdom.

Up to this day, Judaism, those of the Babylonian Talmud and Tanakh haven’t accepted that Jesus is the Messiah, The Personification of the Logos which proceeded out of the mouth of God and who proclaims the light of the gospel of Christ to His people, the Evangelion=the good news of salvation?

Even though, both witnesses, Moses and the prophets testify that it was the Logos of God which came to them. Referring to Jesus, the personification of the Logos. The spiritual concept which it has never been accepted.

When Israel was a child, I loved him, and out of Egypt I called My son. Hosea 11:1

Out of Egypt I called My Son. Mat.2:15 (referring to Jesus).

Israel, the son of God? Was called to come out of Egypt.

Jesus the son of God? Was also called to come out of Egypt.

This means that Jesus and Jacob renamed Israel are portrayed by the same spiritual entity. While in the meantime, Adam also is designated the son of God.

The son of Enos, the son of Seth, the son of Adam, the son of God. Luke 3:38

Jacob renamed Israel prophetically portrays the man who rests his head upon the rock “and the rock that follows is Christ”, the man whose mind rests upon the rock doctrine of Christ.

It is the Excellency of the knowledge of Christ that elevates the spirit of the mind, born above, able to see the stairway to heaven, see the kingdom of the heavens, through the instructions laid by Christ Jesus. For to see and also to enter the Kingdom. Born above, born of water and born of the Spirit.

That means, it is Jesus Christ who walks right through the entire scriptures, and portrays all the main characters, beginning from the book of Genesis and Adam... named the son of God. (Luke 3:38)

Adam and Jesus are the one and the same entity, unto whom God said, let Him be light...

Confirmation:

Up to this day I stand, witnessing both to small and great, saying no other things than those which the prophets and Moses said would come, that the Christ would suffer...

It must be understood that the Hellenic text is the anaparastasis=replication, reiteration, and also the fulfillment of Moses and of the Prophets. Adding that heaven and earth shall pass away but not one iota shall pass away from the Law or the Prophets.

Two parallels:

King Saul of the Old Testament was persecuting David=the beloved son, the King to be, while the Saul of the New Testament (the scribe and Pharisee, king and master of his own self) is persecuting Jesus=the beloved Son. Jesus the root of David.

Jesus being the root of David proves that it is Jesus the one who walks right through the entire scriptures... Before the foundation of the cosmos... before Abraham I am...

Where were you when I laid the foundations of the earth? Tell Me, if you have understanding. Job 38:4

From whose womb comes the ice? And the frost of heaven, who gives it birth? Job 38:29

The biggest question:

Who was the designer of nature and who has appointed the Laws of nature?

It is a must to bear the image of both Adams:

When one bears the image of the earthly Adam (portrayed by Jesus), he also bears the image of Jesus; and who is the personification of the Living Logos of God and the Living soul, until Christ the Living Spirit is formed, bearing the image of Christ.

This means, Jesus stands the tecton and the cornerstone and the One who builds the temple of God and in three stages (nominated as three tabernacles) of spiritual knowledge and wisdom, through Moses and the Prophets for the Temple to be fully established (man who is the temple of God) for Christ the High Priest of God to be formed and be the Lord inside the Temple of God. Christ in the class of Melchizedek.

After all, the whole aim, all the instructions of the entire scripture are to build the man bearing the image of Adam into the temple of God. First, into a Living soul and after into a Living Spirit as in the image and likeness of God.

And Moses indeed was faithful in all His house as a servant, for a testimony of those things which would be spoken afterward, but Christ as a Son over His own house, whose house we are if we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope firm to the end. Heb.3:5-6

From a mortal soul into a Living soul and into a Living Spirit.

And as we have borne the image of Jesus, we will also bear the image of Christ.

Be renewed in the spirit of your mind...

Unless one begins to truly believe and accept the authenticity of the Logos, and obey all of God's instructions, nothing will ever happen.

Jesus, the way, the truth, and the life, sets the example for us by crucifying the sinful flesh, the crucifixion picture we all paint in our mind, reading the conceptual story.

And because Jesus is the Living soul, He cannot die. The reason we need to be created from a mortal soul into a Living soul, which means we bear his image.

To crucify the flesh is to overcome the evil one and denotes the victory of the seed of the woman "the human" over the seed of the devil.

This mortal and corrupt must be dressed immortality and incorruption.

...I lay down My life that I may take it again. John 10:17

Therefore, the only ones that God knows from the beginning, "foreknows and foreknew" are the ones who have borne and will bear the image of Adam, the man who is willing to put down his life, the life of his sinful flesh and to undergo and experience the spiritual creation; and from a mortal soul to be created into a Living soul, entitled to enter God's rest to receive adoption and become a son of the Living God. Thus, to fulfill the prophetic decree: Let us make man in our image and in our likeness, in the image and likeness of God.

Fully furnished and fully prepared, having a spiritual body "eternal dwelling" already prepared by Christ, outside time and space, outside mortality and corruption.

From Adam begins the gospel of Christ, the Excellency of the knowledge of Christ, the Logos that proceeded out of the mouth of God.

Therefore, the book of Genesis conveys the beginning of the spiritual creation of the man of dust, the man bearing two opposing seeds "two genes" the descendant of the biological evolution.

The primate with the primal instinct, who through time had evolved into an intelligent and thinking being and began to invent and to create tools and weapons, which still carries on today.

The primate who will always carry the stigma of fear, the negative side of love and peace.

Fear is the destructive evil force, we all bear, and it is the imperfection of the natural and temporal world that leads to disbelief and violence.

Violence divorces man from his inner conscience, thus, making his stone heart corrupt to the core. For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies...

Here I must digress. The Logos is as infinite as God is...

TwelveLoaves preaches the everlasting Gospel, for to bear witness to the truth concerning the salvation of man's mortal soul.

All scripture is given inspirationally by God and to the man who truly seeks His Kingdom and righteousness...

TwelveLoaves presents a framework "a showcase" of an explicit intelligible interpretation based upon spiritual discernment of the Logos, not of the letter but of the Spirit, taught by God to ensure the reader its authenticity. The evidence of things not seen.

The Logos that proceeded out of the mouth of God became the guide in the face of Jesus Christ teaching us right through the ages and until this very day concerning the very purpose for our creation and our human condition and how to overcome the inevitable curse of death.

Christ Jesus, while in the form of God (as God the Father) empties “lowers” Himself and takes on the form of a man and in the face of Adam, portraying Adam’s dual role, the conceptual character, whom the religious ignorantly changed into a natural man, together with all his conceptual, biblical descendants.

Knowing that there is a God in heaven who reveals mysteries...

Revealing that It is Christ Jesus who portrays the two Adams, Jesus as the earthly Adam and Christ as the heavenly.

Testifying,

For I neither received it from man, nor was I taught it, but it came through the revelation of Jesus Christ. Taught by God through Jesus Christ, the embodiment of the Logos that proceeded out of the mouth of God. The mystery hidden in God since the foundation of the cosmos.

Therefore, since we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we do not lose heart.

Therefore, we do not lose heart. Even though our outward man is perishing, yet the inward man is being renewed day by day. 2Cor.4:16

Therefore, let us not sleep, as others do, but let us watch and be sober. 1Thes. 5:6

And let us not grow weary while doing good, for in due season we shall reap if we do not lose heart. Gal.6:9

If anyone competes, he is not crowned unless he competes according to the rules. 2Tim. 2:5

Let no one cheat you of your reward, taking delight in false humility and worship of angels, intruding into those things which he has not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind, and not holding fast to the Head, from whom all the body, nourished and knit together by joints and ligaments, grows with the increase that is from God. Col.2:18-19

He who wants to hear, let him hear, words of knowledge never spoken before ...

It is a must for us all to overcome the evil which is torturing and aims to destroy our humanity.

Grace to you and peace from God the Father and our Lord Jesus Christ, Amen.

Sincerely in Christ Jesus,

Twelveloaves.
